

We have hosted meetings about Common Core and done research on Common Core. It is NOT a good method of teaching, and we are adamantly opposed to it. Give us local control at the school board level and dump expensive curriculum that will prove to be the downfall of our American education. If I had children in school now, I'd pull them immediately and homeschool them and then protest any oversight by the government!

Olga Andersen