

We have just gone into debt to put a new roof on a one bedroom house occupied by a tenant with some medical condition (I'm not allowed to ask). Even with his subsidized rent, I will have to pay back the loan out of my pocket. But that sort of repair can't wait for us to save up.

Please consider such things when you are sitting up in the legislature making decisions that could ruin us.

Stanjure LLC
J Ryden