

While I sympathize with all of those who are furloughed or laid off, and willing to work with my tenants through this disaster, the truth is, my payments and expenses continue. In the broader picture, the landlord deserves consideration as well. We are all effected by this.

It doesn't bode well for any of us, to put ownership in jeopardy and the turmoil this would bring.

Terry Quast, Medford

Sent from my iPhone