

To whom it may concern,

My husband and I are the owners of five rental units. I understand in these difficult times the inability to be able to pay bills when jobs are being lost, or people are being put into a forced layoff. However, as a property owner we rely on rent payments to be able to pay the mortgages on our units. If we do not receive our rents, then we will end up being in default of our mortgages. I'm not sure what the answer is, but to put the burden on the owners of the buildings to pay the rent for others with money we don't have doesn't seem like the right solution. Please consider us before making any drastic decisions!!

Thank you,

Linda Kelly
