BACKGROUND:

Currently, ORS 342.934 requires school districts to prioritize the retention of its most senior teachers in the event of layoffs, and allows a district to retain a teacher with less experience only if it can determine that the teacher being retained is more competent or has more merit. House Bill 2001 requires districts to retain teachers that have more merit and would maintain the district's diversity ratio in the event of layoffs, and defines diversity ratio as the ratio of teachers that are Black, Hispanic, Asian or Pacific Islander, Native American, or non-native English speakers to students that share those characteristics.
