

Now is not the time to change curriculum! Your only concern is getting kids back into school full time! They need writing, math and reading... Just stop with all the shenanigans and actually have concern for children's education instead of pushing your agenda!