

I am writing in support of SB 683. I believe honest education is important to disrupting systems of white supremacy and creating a more equitable society. It is imperative that we teach our children an accurate history so that they can understand the world they live in.