

Now that Covid is ending, it's time to return to normalcy and that includes the multifamily residential marketplace. The economy is experiencing a shortage of workers and employers are eager to hire. It's time for Oregon to stop encouraging it's residents to hide behind the law in order to skip paying their rent. It's time for Oregon's citizens to get back to work; and to support themselves and pay their bills.
Thank you.