

Growing up around diversity is so important. Looking back on school I didn't see many teachers of color. Kids shouldn't have to grow up almost exclusively around people they don't look like.