SEARCH WARRANTS

SECTION 1. ORS 133.545 is amended to read:

133.545. (1) A search warrant may be issued only by a judge. A search warrant issued by a judge of the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals may be executed anywhere in the state. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a search warrant issued by a judge of a circuit court may only be executed within the judicial district in which the court is located. A search warrant issued by a justice of the peace may only be executed within the county in which the justice court is located. A search warrant issued by a municipal judge authorized to exercise the powers and perform the duties of a justice of the peace may only be executed in the municipality in which the court is located.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a circuit court judge may authorize execution of a search warrant outside of the judicial district in which the court is located, if the judge finds from the application that one or more of the objects of the search relate to an offense committed or triable within the judicial district in which the court is located. If the warrant authorizes the installation or tracking of a mobile tracking device, the officer may track the device in any county to which it is transported.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 (3) Application for a search warrant may be made only by a district attorney or by any police
2 officer.

3 (4) The application shall consist of a proposed warrant in conformance with ORS 133.565, and 4 shall be supported by one or more affidavits particularly setting forth the facts and circumstances

6 viduals, to be searched. If an affidavit is based in whole or in part on hearsay, the affiant shall set 7 forth facts bearing on any unnamed informant's reliability and shall disclose, as far as possible, the 8 means by which the information was obtained.

9 (5) Instead of the written affidavit described in subsection (4) of this section, the judge may take 10 an oral statement under oath. The oral statement shall be recorded and transcribed. The transcribed
11 statement shall be considered to be an affidavit for the purposes of this section. In such cases, the 12 recording of the sworn oral statement and the transcribed statement shall be certified by the judge 13 receiving it and shall be retained as a part of the record of proceedings for the issuance of the 14 warrant.

15 (6)(a) In addition to the procedure set out in subsection (5) of this section, the proposed warrant 16 and the affidavit may be sent to the court by facsimile transmission or any similar electronic 17 transmission that delivers a complete printable image of the signed [and acknowledged] affidavit and 18 proposed warrant. The affidavit may have a notarized acknowledgement, or the affiant may

20 subsection must execute a declaration that recites the manner and time of the oath's ad-
21 ministration. The declaration must be filed with the return.

23 section:

24 (A) The court may transmit the signed warrant to the district attorney or police officer by 25 means of facsimile transmission or similar electronic transmission, as described in paragraph (a) of 26 this subsection. The court shall file the original signed warrant and a printed image of the district 27 attorney's or police officer's application with the return.

28 (B) The district attorney or police officer shall deliver the original signed [and acknowledged] 29 affidavit to the court with the return. If the affiant swore to the affidavit by telephone, the 30 affiant must so note next to the affiant's signature on the affidavit.

SECTION 4. ORS 1.220 is amended to read:

1.220. [Any judicial officer may act as an attorney in any action, suit or proceeding to which the judicial officer is a party or in which the judicial officer is directly interested. A judge of the county court or justice of the peace, otherwise authorized by law, may act as an attorney in any court other than the one of which the judge of the county court or justice of the peace is judge, except in an action, suit or proceeding removed therefrom to another court for review, but no judicial officer shall, as attorney, institute or cause to be instituted any suit, action or proceeding, or act as attorney in any suit, action or proceeding with or without hire, in any court or otherwise, other than as in this section allowed. No judicial officer shall have a partner who shall practice law or act as attorney in the court over which the judicial officer presides.]

(1) Except as provided in this section, a judicial officer appointed or elected to a full-time position may not act as an attorney in an action or proceeding.

(2) A judicial officer appointed or elected to a full-time position may act as an attorney in an action or proceeding if the judicial officer is an active member of the Oregon State Bar and is either a party to the action or proceeding or the judicial officer has a direct interest in the action or proceeding.

(3) A judge of a county court or justice court who is an active member of the Oregon State Bar:

(a) May act as an attorney in a court other than the court in which the judge presides; and

(b) May not be engaged in the practice of law with an attorney who appears in the court in which the judge presides.

(4) A judge pro tempore may not preside in an action or proceeding if an attorney who is engaged in the practice of law with the judge appears in the action or proceeding.

STAY OF JUDGMENT ON APPEAL

SECTION 5. ORS 19.335 is amended to read:

19.335. (1) If a judgment is for the recovery of money, a supersedeas undertaking acts to stay the judgment if the undertaking provides that the appellant will pay the judgment to the extent that the judgment is affirmed on appeal.

(2) If a judgment requires the transfer or delivery of possession of real property, a supersedeas undertaking acts to stay the judgment if the undertaking provides that the appellant will not commit waste or allow waste to be committed on the real property while the appellant possesses the property, and the appellant will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property for the period of possession if the judgment is affirmed. The value of the use and occupation during the period of possession must be stated in the undertaking.

(3)(a) If a judgment requires the transfer or delivery of possession of personal property, a supersedeas undertaking acts to stay the judgment if the undertaking provides that the appellant will obey the judgment of the appellate court, and that if the appellant does not obey the judgment, the appellant will pay an amount determined by the trial court and stated in the undertaking.

(b) If a judgment requires the transfer or delivery of possession of personal property, the judgment is stayed without the filing of a supersedeas undertaking if the appellant transfers or delivers

1 the personal property to the court or places the property in the custody of an officer or receiver
2 appointed by the trial court.

3 (4) If a judgment requires the foreclosure of a mortgage, lien or other encumbrance, and also 4 requires payment of the debt secured by the mortgage, lien or other encumbrance, a supersedeas
5 undertaking acts to stay that portion of the judgment that requires payment of the debt if the 6 undertaking provides that the appellant will pay any portion of the judgment remaining unsatisfied
7 after the sale of the property subject to the mortgage, lien or other encumbrance. The amount of 8 the undertaking must be stated in the undertaking. The requirements of this subsection are in ad-9 dition to any provisions in a supersedeas undertaking that may be required under subsection (2) or 10 (3) of this section to stay delivery or transfer of property.

11 (5) If a judgment requires the execution of a conveyance or other instrument, the judgment is 12 stayed without the filing of a supersedeas undertaking if the appellant executes the instrument and 13 deposits the instrument with the trial court administrator. Unless otherwise directed by the appel-
14 late court, the instrument must be held by the trial court administrator until issuance of the appel-
15 late judgment terminating the appeal.

16 (6) Except as provided in ORCP 72, a stay of judgment described in this section takes 17 effect only after the party has filed a notice of appeal and filed any supersedeas undertaking
18 required for the stay.

19
20 EXCERPT OF RECORD ON APPEAL

21
22 SECTION 6. ORS 20.310 is amended to read:

23 20.310. (1) In any appeal to the Court of Appeals or review by the Supreme Court, the court 24 shall allow costs and disbursements to the prevailing party, unless a statute provides that in the 25 particular case costs and disbursements shall not be allowed to the prevailing party or shall be al-
26 lowed to some other party, or unless the court directs otherwise. If, under a special provision of any 27 statute, a party has a right to recover costs, such party shall also have a right to recover dis-
28 bursements. On the same terms and conditions, when the Supreme Court denies a petition for re-29 view, the respondent on review is entitled to costs and disbursements reasonably incurred in 30 connection with the petition for review.

31 (2) Costs and disbursements on appeal to the Court of Appeals or Supreme Court or on petition
32 for review by the Supreme Court are the filing or appearance fee, the reasonable cost for any bond
33 or irrevocable letter of credit, the prevailing party fee provided for under ORS 20.190, the printing, 34 including the [abstract] excerpt of record, required by rule of the court, postage for the filing or

 11 Appeals, Oregon Tax Court and each circuit court. For each circuit court there shall be a principal 12 location in each county in the judicial district.

13 (2) The Chief Justice may designate locations for the sitting of the Supreme Court, Court of 14 Appeals, Oregon Tax Court and each circuit court other than those designated under subsection (1)
 15 of this section. Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, [other] locations designated 16 under this subsection for a circuit court [shall] must be in the circuit court's judicial district.

17 (3) The Chief Justice may designate locations in the state for the sitting of circuit courts
 18 in the event of an emergency. Locations designated under this subsection need not be in the 19 circuit court's judicial district.

20 SECTION 9. ORS 3.070 is amended to read:

21 3.070. Any judge of a circuit court in any judicial district may, in chambers, grant and sign de-
 22 faults, judgments, interlocutory orders and provisional remedies, make findings and decide motions, 23 demurrers and other like matters relating to any judicial business coming before the judge from any 24 judicial district in which the judge has presided in such matters. The judge may hear, in chambers, 25 contested motions, demurrers and other similar matters pending within the judicial district, at any 26 location [in the district] designated under ORS 1.085. Upon stipulation of counsel, the judge may try 27 and determine any issue in equity or in law where a jury has been waived and hear and decide
 28 motions, demurrers and other like matters, in chambers, at any location in the state where the judge
 29 may happen to be, relating to any judicial business coming before the judge from any judicial district
 30 in which the judge has presided in such matters. The judge may exercise these powers as fully and 31 effectively as though the motions, demurrers, matters or issues were granted, ordered, decided, 32 heard and determined in open court in the county where they may be pending. If signed other than 33 in open court, all such orders, findings and judgments issued, granted or rendered, other than orders
 34 not required to be filed and entered with the clerk before becoming effective, shall be transmitted
 35 by the judge to the clerk of the court within the county where the matters are pending. They shall 36 be filed and entered upon receipt thereof and shall become effective from the date of entry in the 37 register.

38 SECTION 10. ORS 3.185 is amended to read:

39 3.185. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 1.040, a judge of the Circuit Court for Marion County when 40 hearing matters relating to writs of habeas corpus as provided in ORS 34.310 to 34.730 may direct 41 that the court be held or continued at any location designated under ORS 1.085 [(2)] and under such 42 conditions as may be ordered.

43 (2) When a court is held at a location directed as provided by subsection (1) of this section,

45 SECTION 11. ORS 305.475 is amended to read:

1 305.475. The principal office of the tax court shall be in the state capital, but the court may hold
 2 hearings in any [county seat] location designated under ORS 1.085 [(2)]. The county court or board
 3 of county commissioners, upon request of the judge of the tax court, shall provide the court with 4 suitable rooms [at the county seat] when hearings are held in the county [seat].

5
 6 CONSOLIDATION OF DOMESTIC RELATION CASES AND JUVENILE CASES

7
 8 SECTION 12. ORS 419B.806 is amended to read:

9 419B.806. (1) As used in this section, “consolidated” means that actions are heard before one 10 judge of the circuit court to determine issues regarding a child or ward.

11 (2) In any action filed in the juvenile court in which the legal or physical custody of a child or 12 ward is at issue and there is also a child custody, parenting time, visitation, restraining order,
 13 filiation or Family Abuse Prevention Act action involving the child or ward in a domestic relations,
 14 filiation or guardianship proceeding, the matters shall be consolidated. Actions must be consol-
 15 idated under this subsection regardless of whether the actions to be consolidated were filed or ini-
 16 tiated before or after the filing of the petition under ORS 419B.100.

17 (3) Consolidation does not merge the procedural or substantive law of the individual actions.
 18 Parties to the individual consolidated actions do not have standing, solely by virtue of the consol-
 19 idation, in every action subject to the order of consolidation. Parties must comply with provisions 20 for intervention or participation in a particular action under the provisions of law applicable to that 21 action.

22 (4) Upon entry of an order of consolidation, all pending issues pertaining to the actions subject
 23 to the order shall be heard together in juvenile court. The court shall hear the juvenile matters first 24 unless the court finds that it is in the best interest of the child or ward to proceed otherwise.

25 (5) A judge shall make and modify orders and findings in actions subject to the order of con-
 26 solidation upon the filing of proper motions and notice as provided by law applicable to the actions.
 27 Any findings, orders or modifications must be consistent with the juvenile court orders, and persons 28 who were parties to the juvenile court action may not relitigate issues in consolidated actions.

29 (6) The judge shall set out separately from orders entered under this chapter or ORS chapter
 30 419C any orders or judgments made in other actions subject to the consolidation order. The trial 31 court administrator shall file the orders and judgments in the appropriate actions subject to the 32 consolidation order. An order or judgment in an individual juvenile court action is final if it finally 33 disposes of the rights and duties of the parties to that action, without reference to whether the order
 34 or judgment disposes of the rights and duties of the parties to another action with which the action 35 has been consolidated.

36 (7)(a) When the actions described in subsection (2) of this section exist in two or more [judicial 37 districts] circuit courts, the judges assigned to the actions shall confer to determine the appropriate
 38 [judicial district] court in which to consolidate and hear the actions. The judges shall confer not 39 later than 10 judicial days after a court has received notice of the existence of an action in another 40 [judicial district] circuit court.

41 (b) If the judges agree on the [judicial district] circuit court in which the actions should be 42 consolidated, the judges shall take such action as is necessary to consolidate the actions in the 43 circuit court [of that district].

44 (c) If the judges do not agree on the [judicial district] circuit court in which the actions should 45 be consolidated, the actions must be consolidated in the [judicial district] court in which the juve-

1 nile action is filed or, if more than one juvenile action is pending, in the [judicial district] court in 2 which the first juvenile action was filed.

3 (8) Nothing in this section requires the consolidation of any administrative proceeding under 4 ORS chapter 25 or 416 with a juvenile court or other action.

5
6 APPOINTED JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS

7
8 SECTION 13. ORS 2.570 is amended to read:

9 2.570. (1) In hearing and determining causes, the judges of the Court of Appeals may sit together
10 or in departments.

11 (2) A department shall consist of three judges. For convenience of administration, each depart-
12 ment may be numbered. The Chief Judge shall from time to time designate the number of depart-
13 ments and make assignments of the judges among the departments. The Chief Judge may sit in one 14 or more departments and when so sitting may preside. The Chief Judge shall designate a judge to 15 preside in each department.

16 (3) The majority of any department shall consist of regularly elected [and qualified] or ap-
17 pointed judges of the Court of Appeals. However, if disqualifications, recusals or other events re-
18 duce the number of available judges to fewer than three, the Supreme Court may appoint such 19 number of qualified persons as may be necessary as pro tempore members of the Court of Appeals.

20 (4) The Chief Judge shall apportion the business of the court between the departments. Each 21 department shall have power to hear and determine causes, and all questions that may arise therein,
22 subject to subsection (5) of this section. The presence of three judges is necessary to transact busi-
23 ness in any department, except such business as may be transacted in chambers by any judge. The 24 concurrence of two judges is necessary to pronounce judgment.

25 (5) The Chief Judge or a majority of the regularly elected [and qualified] or appointed judges
26 of the Court of Appeals at any time may refer a cause to be considered en banc. When sitting en 27 banc, the court may include not more than two judges pro tempore of the Court of Appeals. When 28 the court sits en banc, the concurrence of a majority of the judges participating is necessary to 29 pronounce judgment, but if the judges participating are equally divided in their view as to the 30 judgment to be given, the judgment appealed from shall be affirmed.

31 (6) The Chief Judge may rule on motions and issue orders in procedural matters in the Court
32 of Appeals.

33 (7) A judge or judge pro tempore of the Court of Appeals may participate in the decision of the 34 matter without resubmission of the cause even though the judge is not present for oral argument 35 on the matter.

36 (8) A judge or judge pro tempore of the Court of Appeals may participate in the decision of a 37 matter without resubmission of the cause in the following circumstances:

38 (a) The judge was appointed or elected to the Court of Appeals after submission of the cause.

39 (b) The judge is participating in the decision of a cause that was submitted to a department, and 40 the judge is participating in lieu of a judge of the department who has died, become disabled, is 41 disqualified or is otherwise unable to participate in the decision of a cause submitted to the de-42 partment.

43 (c) The judge is considering a cause en banc, but the judge was not part of the department that 44 originally considered the cause.
