26 SECTION 3. ORS 725.340, as amended by section 2, chapter 3, Oregon Laws 2006, is amended 27 to read:

28 725.340. [(1) Except as provided in ORS 725.622, a licensee may charge, contract for and receive 29 any interest or consideration for loans, secured or unsecured, as agreed upon by the licensee and the 30 borrower.]

31 (1) Except as provided in ORS 725.615 and 725.622, a licensee may:

32 (a) Charge, contract for and receive in connection with a consumer finance loan made in 33 accordance with this chapter a finance charge that, when expressed as an annual percentage 34 rate, does not exceed the greater of:

35 (A) 36 percent; or

36 (B) 30 percentage points in excess of the discount rate on 90-day commercial paper in 37 effect at the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. The Director of the Department of 38 Consumer and Business Services on the first business day of each calendar year shall de-
39 termine by order from published sources the discount rate upon which the annual percentage
40 rate set forth in this subparagraph will be based. The annual percentage rate set forth in this 41 subparagraph shall apply to each new loan made during the succeeding 12 months for the 42 entire term of the loan, including all renewals of the loan.

43 (b) Contract for and receive in connection with a consumer finance loan made in ac-
44 cordance with this chapter, and in addition to the finance charge described in paragraph (a) 45 of this subsection, other reasonable and bona fide fees, expenses or damages, subject to

1 oversight and regulation by the Department of Consumer and Business Services. For pur-
2 poses of this paragraph, “fees, expenses or damages” includes, but is not limited to:

3 (A) Items exempted from the computation of the finance charge in accordance with the 4 Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. 1605(d) and (e), as that Act existed on the effective date of 5 this 2007 Act, and similar pass-through fees or charges;

6 (B) Prepayment fees and late fees;

7 (C) Fees and damages in accordance with ORS 30.701;

8 (D) Actual expenses the licensee reasonably incurs in collecting a consumer finance loan
9 that the borrower or consumer has failed to repay according to the terms of the consumer 10 finance loan contract; and

11 (E) Amounts associated with the collection of a defaulted loan that are authorized by 12 statute or awarded by a court of law.

13 (c) For purposes of this subsection, “finance charge” and “annual percentage rate” have 14 the meanings given those terms in the federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.

15 (2) When a precomputed loan contract is originally scheduled to be repaid in 62 months or less 16 and requires repayment in substantially equal or consecutive monthly installments of principal and 17 interest combined, the interest or consideration may be precomputed, contracted for and earned on 18 scheduled unpaid principal balances on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made
19 when due. In such cases, every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and pre-20 computed interest until the contract is fully paid, and the acceptance or payment of interest or 21 consideration on any loan made under the provisions of this subsection is not considered to consti-
22 tute payment, deduction or receipt thereof in advance. The precomputed interest or consideration
23 is subject to the following adjustments:

24 (a) When a default of more than 10 days in the payment of any scheduled installment occurs, the 25 licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount 26 of the installment or $5, whichever is less. A default charge may be collected only once on an in-
27 stallment, but may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter. A default charge 28 may not be assessed with respect to an installment which is paid in full on or within 10 days after 29 a scheduled installment due date when an earlier maturing installment or a default or deferral
30 charge on an earlier maturing installment may not have been paid in full even though all or part 31 of such installment payment is applied to an earlier maturing installment, or a default or deferral
32 charge.

33 (b) If the payment of all unpaid installments is deferred one or more full months, and if the 34 contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferral charge not exceeding the annual 35 percentage rate specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section and previously disclosed to the 36 borrower pursuant to the [Federal Consumer Credit Protection (Truth-in-Lending) Act] federal Truth
37 in Lending Act applied to the sum of the installments deferred for the length of the deferral period.
38 The deferral period is that period in which no scheduled installment is required to be paid by reason
39 of the deferral. The charge may be collected at the time of deferral or at any time thereafter. A
40 deferral charge may not be made for the deferral of any installment with respect to which a default
41 charge has been collected, unless the default charge is deducted from the deferral charge. If pre-42 payment of the loan in full occurs during the deferral period, in addition to any other rebate which 43 may be required, the borrower shall receive a rebate of the portion of the deferral applicable to the 44 unexpired months in the deferral period, for which purpose a fraction of an unexpired month ex-45 ceeding 15 days is considered to be a month.

1 (c) Upon prepayment in full of the unpaid balance of a precomputed loan, a rebate of unearned
2 interest or consideration shall be made as provided in this paragraph. The amount of the rebate
3 shall be not less than the total interest contracted for to maturity, less the greater of:

4 (A) Ten percent of the amount financed or $75, whichever is less; or

5 (B) The interest or consideration earned to the installment due date nearest the date of pre-
6 payment, computed by applying the simple interest rate of the loan to the actual principal balances
7 outstanding, for the periods of time the balances were actually outstanding. For purposes of rebate
8 computations under this subparagraph, the installment due date preceding the date of prepayment
9 is considered to be nearest if prepayment occurs 15 days or less after that installment date. If pre-
10 payment occurs more than 15 days after the preceding installment due date, the next succeeding 11 installment due date is considered to be nearest to the date of prepayment. In determining the sim-12 ple interest rate, the licensee may apply to the scheduled payments the actuarial method, by which 13 each scheduled payment is applied first to accrued and unpaid interest or consideration, and any 14 amount remaining is applied to reduction of the principal balance.

15 (3) If the borrower agrees to perform certain duties to insure or preserve the collateral and fails 16 to perform those duties, the licensee may pay for the performance of those duties and add the 17 amounts paid to the unpaid principal balance. A charge may be made for sums advanced, at the rate 18 provided for in the loan agreement.

19 (4) The loan contract may provide that after default and referral the borrower shall pay the 20 licensee for reasonable attorney fees actually paid by the licensee to an attorney not a salaried
21 employee of the licensee.

22 SECTION 3a. If House Bill 2204 becomes law, section 3 of this 2007 Act (amending ORS 23 725.340) is repealed and ORS 725.340, as amended by section 2, chapter 3, Oregon Laws 2006, 24 and section 3, chapter __, Oregon Laws 2007 (Enrolled House Bill 2204), is amended to read:

25 725.340. [(1) Except as provided in ORS 725.615 and 725.622, a licensee may charge, contract for 26 and receive any interest or consideration for loans, secured or unsecured, as agreed upon by the 27 licensee and the borrower.]

28 (1) Except as provided in ORS 725.615 and 725.622, a licensee may:

29 (a) Charge, contract for and receive in connection with a consumer finance loan made in 30 accordance with this chapter a finance charge that, when expressed as an annual percentage 31 rate, does not exceed the greater of:

32 (A) 36 percent; or

33 (B) 30 percentage points in excess of the discount rate on 90-day commercial paper in 34 effect at the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. The Director of the Department of 35 Consumer and Business Services on the first business day of each calendar year shall de-
36 termine by order from published sources the discount rate upon which the annual percentage
37 rate set forth in this subparagraph will be based. The annual percentage rate set forth in this 38 subparagraph shall apply to each new loan made during the succeeding 12 months for the 39 entire term of the loan, including all renewals of the loan.

40 (b) Contract for and receive in connection with a consumer finance loan made in ac-
41 cordance with this chapter, and in addition to the finance charge described in paragraph (a)
42 of this subsection, other reasonable and bona fide fees, expenses or damages, subject to 43 oversight and regulation by the Department of Consumer and Business Services. For pur- 44 poses of this paragraph, “fees, expenses or damages” includes, but is not limited to:

45 (A) Items exempted from the computation of the finance charge in accordance with the

1 Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. 1605(d) and (e), as that Act existed on the effective date of
2 this 2007 Act, and similar pass-through fees or charges;

3 (B) Prepayment fees and late fees;

4 (C) Fees and damages in accordance with ORS 30.701;

5 (D) Actual expenses the licensee reasonably incurs in collecting a consumer finance loan
6 that the borrower or consumer has failed to repay according to the terms of the consumer
7 finance loan contract; and

8 (E) Amounts associated with the collection of a defaulted loan that are authorized by 9 statute or awarded by a court of law.

10 (c) For purposes of this subsection, “finance charge” and “annual percentage rate” have 11 the meanings given those terms in the federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.

12 (2) When a precomputed loan contract is originally scheduled to be repaid in 62 months or less 13 and requires repayment in substantially equal or consecutive monthly installments of principal and 14 interest combined, the interest or consideration may be precomputed, contracted for and earned on 15 scheduled unpaid principal balances on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made
16 when due. In such cases, every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and pre-17 computed interest until the contract is fully paid, and the acceptance or payment of interest or 18 consideration on any loan made under the provisions of this subsection is not considered to consti-
19 tute payment, deduction or receipt thereof in advance. The precomputed interest or consideration
20 is subject to the following adjustments:

21 (a) When a default of more than 10 days in the payment of any scheduled installment occurs, the 22 licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount 23 of the installment or $5, whichever is less. A default charge may be collected only once on an in-
24 stallment, but may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter. A default charge
25 may not be assessed with respect to an installment which is paid in full on or within 10 days after 26 a scheduled installment due date when an earlier maturing installment or a default or deferral
27 charge on an earlier maturing installment may not have been paid in full even though all or part 28 of such installment payment is applied to an earlier maturing installment, or a default or deferral 29 charge.

30 (b) If the payment of all unpaid installments is deferred one or more full months, and if the 31 contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferral charge not exceeding the annual 32 percentage rate specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section and previously disclosed to the 33 borrower pursuant to the [Federal Consumer Credit Protection (Truth-in-Lending) Act] federal Truth
34 in Lending Act applied to the sum of the installments deferred for the length of the deferral period.
35 The deferral period is that period in which no scheduled installment is required to be paid by reason
36 of the deferral. The charge may be collected at the time of deferral or at any time thereafter. A
37 deferral charge may not be made for the deferral of any installment with respect to which a default
38 charge has been collected, unless the default charge is deducted from the deferral charge. If pre-39 payment of the loan in full occurs during the deferral period, in addition to any other rebate which 40 may be required, the borrower shall receive a rebate of the portion of the deferral applicable to the 41 unexpired months in the deferral period, for which purpose a fraction of an unexpired month ex-
42 ceeding 15 days is considered to be a month.

43 (c) Upon prepayment in full of the unpaid balance of a precomputed loan, a rebate of unearned
44 interest or consideration shall be made as provided in this paragraph. The amount of the rebate 45 shall be not less than the total interest contracted for to maturity, less the greater of:

1 (A) Ten percent of the amount financed or $75, whichever is less; or

2 (B) The interest or consideration earned to the installment due date nearest the date of pre-
3 payment, computed by applying the simple interest rate of the loan to the actual principal balances
4 outstanding, for the periods of time the balances were actually outstanding. For purposes of rebate
5 computations under this subparagraph, the installment due date preceding the date of prepayment
6 is considered to be nearest if prepayment occurs 15 days or less after that installment date. If pre-7 payment occurs more than 15 days after the preceding installment due date, the next succeeding
8 installment due date is considered to be nearest to the date of prepayment. In determining the sim-9 ple interest rate, the licensee may apply to the scheduled payments the actuarial method, by which 10 each scheduled payment is applied first to accrued and unpaid interest or consideration, and any 11 amount remaining is applied to reduction of the principal balance.

12 (3) If the borrower agrees to perform certain duties to insure or preserve the collateral and fails 13 to perform those duties, the licensee may pay for the performance of those duties and add the 14 amounts paid to the unpaid principal balance. A charge may be made for sums advanced, at the rate 15 provided for in the loan agreement.

16 (4) The loan contract may provide that after default and referral the borrower shall pay the 17 licensee for reasonable attorney fees actually paid by the licensee to an attorney not a salaried
18 employee of the licensee.

19 SECTION 4. ORS 725.345 is amended to read:

20 725.345. (1) As used in this section and ORS 725.347, "open-end loan plan" means a plan or ar-

22 which loans are made, and under which:

24 time to time or the licensee may advance money on behalf of the borrower from time to time as 25 directed by the borrower;

26 (b) The unpaid principal balances and interest or consideration are debited to an account;

27 (c) Interest or consideration is calculated on the unpaid principal balance in the borrower's ac-28 count from time to time, which balance may include all advances made on behalf of the borrower 29 and all charges authorized under ORS 725.340 and this section; and

36 [(4)] (3) A security interest in real or personal property may be taken to secure an open-end loan 37 plan. Any security interest in real or personal property shall be promptly released if there has been

39 unilateral right to create a new outstanding balance or if the account is terminated at the borrow-40 er's request and paid in full.

41 [(5)] (4) ORS 725.050 (2), 725.340 (2) and 725.360 (1), (2) and (4) do not apply to any open-end loan

1 the conditions under which interest or consideration may be imposed, the method of determining the 2 principal balance upon which interest or consideration may be imposed, the method of determining 3 the amount of the interest or consideration, each periodic rate and the range of balances to which 4 each rate is applicable and the corresponding annual percentage rate in accordance with Regulation 5 Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under section 105 of the 6 Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1604), and the nature of the security taken.

7 [(7)] (6) Except for an account which the licensee deems to be uncollectible or with respect to 8 which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the licensee shall deliver or cause to 9 be delivered to the borrower, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an unpaid balance 10 of more than $1 in the account or with respect to which interest or consideration is imposed, a

29 card plan. A licensee may offer an open-end credit card plan in conjunction with noncredit features

32 (3) The agreement between the licensee and the borrower relating to the open-end credit card 33 plan shall conform to the requirements of ORS 725.345 [(6)] (5), except that the borrower's name and
