Directs Department of State Police to establish pilot program to monitor certain sex offenders with electronic monitoring units.

Sunsets January 2, 2010.

Declares emergency, effective July 1, 2007.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to electronic monitoring of sex offenders; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) On or before October 1, 2007, the Department of State Police shall, as provided by section 621 of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (P.L. 109-248, 120 Stat. 587), establish a pilot program to monitor sex offenders with electronic monitoring units.

(2) In implementing and administering the pilot program, the department shall:

(a) Use electronic monitoring units to supervise selected sex offenders who are required to report under ORS 181.594 to 181.601;

(b) Establish by rule policies and procedures for use of the electronic monitoring units; and

(c) Make determinations about which offenders, of those required to report, should be selected for monitoring.

(3) The electronic monitoring units used in the pilot program shall:

(a) Provide a tracking device for each offender that contains a central processing unit with global positioning system and cellular technology in a single unit;

(b) Provide two- and three-way voice communication; and

(c) Permit active, real-time and continuous monitoring of offenders 24 hours a day.

(4) The department shall apply to the Attorney General of the United States for grant moneys as provided by section 621 of P.L. 109-248, 120 Stat. 587 (2006), for the purpose of operating the pilot program. The department shall prepare and submit any reports required by the Attorney General in accordance with section 621.

SECTION 2. The Department of State Police shall evaluate the effectiveness of the pilot program in fulfilling the purpose of ORS 181.594 to 181.601 and shall report to the Legislative Assembly its findings on the pilot program established in section 1 of this 2007 Act on or before March 1, 2009.

SECTION 3. Sections 1 and 2 of this 2007 Act are repealed on January 2, 2010.

SECTION 4. The Department of State Police shall conduct the pilot program described in section 1 of this 2007 Act within the legislatively approved budget.
