25 SECTION 3. ORS 91.225 is amended to read:

26 91.225. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that there is a social and economic need to insure an 27 adequate supply of affordable housing for Oregonians. The Legislative Assembly also finds that the 28 imposition of general restrictions on housing rents will disrupt an orderly housing market, increase 29 deferred maintenance of existing housing stock, lead to abandonment of existing rental units and 30 create a property tax shift from rental-owned to owner-occupied housing. Therefore, the Legislative 31 Assembly declares that the imposition of rent control on housing in the State of Oregon is a matter 32 of statewide concern.

33 (2) Except as provided in subsections (3) to (5) of this section, a city or county shall not enact 34 any ordinance or resolution which controls the rent that may be charged for the rental of any 35 dwelling unit.

36 (3) This section does not impair the right of any state agency, city, county or urban renewal
37 agency as defined by ORS 457.035 to reserve to itself the right to approve rent increases, establish 38 base rents or establish limitations on rents on any residential property for which it has entered into 39 a contract under which certain benefits are applied to the property for the expressed purpose of 40 providing reduced rents for low income tenants. Such benefits include, but are not limited to, prop-
41 erty tax exemptions, long-term financing, rent subsidies, code enforcement procedures and zoning 42 density bonuses.

43 (4) Cities and counties are not prohibited from including in condominium conversion ordinances
44 a requirement that, during the notification period specified in ORS 100.305, the owner or developer 45 may not raise the rents of any affected tenant except [in a proportional amount equal to the per-

1 centage increase in the All Items Portland Consumer Price Index since the date of the last rent increase
2 for the dwelling unit then occupied by the affected tenant] by an amount established by ordinance
3 that does not exceed the limit imposed by section 5 of this 2007 Act.

4 (5) Cities, counties and state agencies may impose temporary rent controls when a natural or 5 man-made disaster that materially eliminates a significant portion of the rental housing supply oc-
6 curs, but must remove the controls when the rental housing supply is restored to substantially 7 normal levels.

8 (6) As used in this section, “dwelling unit” and “rent” have the meaning given those terms in 9 ORS 90.100.

10 (7) This section is applicable throughout this state and in all cities and counties therein. The 11 electors or the governing body of a city or county shall not enact, and the governing body shall not 12 enforce, any ordinance, resolution or other regulation that is inconsistent with this section.

13 SECTION 4. Sections 5 and 6 of this 2007 Act are added to and made a part of ORS 14 chapter 90.

15 SECTION 5. (1) The landlord of a building for which a declarant of a conversion condo-
16 minium has issued the tenant a notice of conversion under ORS 100.305 may not:

17 (a) Give the tenant a 30-day notice without stated cause that causes the tenancy to ter-18minate on a date that is prior to the end of the 120-day period described in ORS 100.305 or 19the 60-day period described in ORS 100.310; or 20 (b) Increase the rent for the dwelling unit in excess of:

21 (A) Any scheduled increase provided for in a written rental agreement; or

22 (B) A percentage equal to the percentage increase in the Portland-Salem Consumer Price 23 Index for All Urban Consumers for All Items as reported by the United States Bureau of 24 Labor Statistics.

25 (2) A tenant may bring an action against a landlord that violates subsection (1) of this 26 section to recover the greater of:

27 (a) Six times the monthly rent for the dwelling unit; or

28 (b) Twice the actual damages to the tenant arising out of the termination.

29 SECTION 6. (1) A tenant may bring an action against a building landlord if for the pur-
30 pose of avoiding, or assisting a declarant of a conversion condominium in avoiding, the re-
31 quirements under ORS 100.305 to 100.320:

32 (a) Within one year before the declarant records the declaration under ORS 100.100, the 33 landlord gives a tenant a 30-day notice without stated cause; or

34 (b) Within one year before the declarant records the declaration under ORS 100.100, the 35 landlord increases the rent in excess of the percentage increase in the Portland-Salem Con-
36 sumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for All Items as reported by the United States
37 Bureau of Labor Statistics.

38 (2) If a court finds that a landlord has taken an action described in subsection (1) of this 39 section for the purpose of avoiding, or assisting a declarant of a conversion condominium in 40 avoiding, the requirements under ORS 100.305 to 100.320, the court may award the tenant the 41 greater of:

42 (a) Six times the monthly rent for the dwelling unit; or

43 (b) Twice the actual damages to the tenant arising out of the termination or rent in-44 crease.

45 (3) The time allowed under ORS 12.125 to commence an action under this section begins

1 on the date the declarant records the declaration under ORS 100.100.

2 SECTION 7. (1) Section 5 of this 2007 Act applies to rental agreement terminations and 3 rent increases occurring on or after the effective date of this 2007 Act.

4 (2) Section 6 of this 2007 Act applies to eviction notices served, and rent increases im-
5 posed, on or after the effective date of this 2007 Act.

6 (3) The amendments to ORS 100.315 by section 2 of this 2007 Act apply to improvement
7 or rehabilitation work on general common elements performed on or after the effective date
8 of this 2007 Act.

9 (4) The amendments to ORS 100.305 by section 1 of this 2007 Act apply to notices of
