

House Bill 3317

Sponsored by COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Expands definition of private indecency to include person in view of place where another person has reasonable expectation of privacy.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to private indecency; amending ORS 163.467.

3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

4 SECTION 1. ORS 163.467 is amended to read:

5 163.467. (1) A person commits the crime of private indecency if the person exposes the genitals
6 of the person with the intent of arousing the sexual desire of the person or another person and:

7 (a) The person is in a place, or in view of a place, where another person has a reasonable
8 expectation of privacy;

9 (b) The person is in view of the other person;

10 (c) The exposure reasonably would be expected to alarm or annoy the other person; and

11 (d) The person knows that the other person did not consent to the exposure.

12 (2) Private indecency is a Class A misdemeanor.

13 (3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to a person who commits the act described in
14 subsection (1) of this section if the person cohabits with and is involved in a sexually intimate re-
15 lationship with the other person.

16 (4) For purposes of this section, "place, or in view of a place, where another person has a 17 reasonable expectation of privacy" includes, but is not limited to, residences, yards of residences,
18 working areas and offices.
