14 or

15 (d) A subsidized private transaction.

16 (7) "Third-party right of enforcement" means a right provided in an affordable housing
17 covenant to a third party to enforce the terms of the covenant.

18 SECTION 3. (1) A person may create an affordable housing covenant as a condition of 19 giving or receiving a subsidy during ownership or upon conveyance of real property, in the 20 form of a covenant, servitude, easement, condition or restriction in a deed, declaration, land
21 sale contract, trust deed, mortgage, security agreement, assignment, will, trust, rental 22 agreement, lease or other written instrument that is:

23 (a) Executed by the owner of the real property and the covenant holder; and

24 (b) Recorded in the deed and mortgage records of the county in which the real property
25 is located.

26 (2) The affordable housing covenant creates a real property right in an eligible covenant
27 holder to:

28 (a) Limit the use of real property to occupancy by low or moderate income households
29 in rental or owner-occupied housing;

30 (b) Restrict the rental rate or sale price of real property to ensure affordability by future
31 low and moderate income households; or

32 (c) Limit, restrict or condition the use and enjoyment of real property to create or retain 33 rental or owner-occupied affordable housing for occupancy by low or moderate income 34 households.

35 (3) The affordable housing covenant may be conveyed, assigned, modified or terminated 36 by a written instrument recorded in the deed and mortgage records of the county in which 37 the real property is located. The affordable housing covenant may be:

38 (a) Conveyed or assigned by a written instrument executed by the conveying or assigning
39 covenant holder and the accepting covenant holder;

40 (b) Modified by a written instrument executed by the covenant holder and the owner of 41 the real property; or

42 (c) Terminated by a written instrument executed by the covenant holder and a third
43 party with the right to enforce the covenant.

44 (4) An affordable housing covenant is not invalid because a holder of the covenant is not
45 an eligible covenant holder. A covenant holder who is not an eligible covenant holder may

1 not modify, terminate or commence an action to enforce the covenant. However, the 2 covenant holder may convey or assign the covenant to an eligible covenant holder who may
3 modify or terminate the covenant or commence an action to enforce the covenant.

4 (5) An affordable housing covenant is unlimited in duration unless:

5 (a) The instrument creating the covenant provides otherwise; or

6 (b) The duration of the covenant is modified prior to the expiration of its stated term.

7 (6) Upon termination of an affordable housing covenant for any reason prior to the ex-
8 piration of its stated term, the covenant holder is entitled to receive the difference between 9 the fair market value of the real property immediately before termination and the fair mar-
10 ket value of the real property immediately after termination.

11 (7) An interest in real property in existence when an affordable housing covenant is 12 created is not impaired by the affordable housing covenant unless the owner of the interest
13 is a party to the affordable housing covenant, subordinates the interest to the affordable
14 housing covenant or otherwise agrees to be bound by the affordable housing covenant.

15 (8) The instrument creating an affordable housing covenant may grant the eligible
16 covenant holder, or a designee of the eligible covenant holder, a right to enter the real
17 property to ensure compliance with the covenant and, if the right is granted, the instrument
18 shall designate the time and manner in which the eligible covenant holder or designee may 19 enter the real property.

20 (9) An affordable housing covenant holder may assign a third-party right of enforcement,
21 by a written instrument executed by the covenant holder and recorded in the deed and
22 mortgage records of the county in which the real property is located, to a person that qual-
23 ifies to be an eligible covenant holder but that is not the holder of that covenant.

24 SECTION 4. An affordable housing covenant may:

25 (1) Include limitations, restrictions and affirmative obligations on the sale price or rental
26 rate of real property or the use of real property or the income or assets of purchasers or 27 tenants;

28 (2) Limit the amount of equity appreciation that a property owner may derive from 29 ownership of the real property;

30 (3) Grant a right of first refusal or an option to purchase to the eligible covenant holder;

31 (4) Restrict the class of persons to whom real property may be sold, leased or rented 32 according to, but not limited to, household income, assets, residency and prior 33 homeownership;

34 (5) Limit the use of the real property to residential use as the primary residence of a low
35 or moderate income household;

36 (6) Limit, condition or prohibit leasing or subletting;

37 (7) Impose obligations for maintenance and insurance of the real property;

38 (8) Limit, condition or prohibit the owner from allowing liens on the real property; and

39 (9) Make other limitations, conditions or prohibitions that affect the affordability of real 40 property for low or moderate income households.

41 SECTION 5. An action affecting an affordable housing covenant may be commenced or 42 intervened in by:

43 (1) The owner of an interest in the real property burdened by the covenant;

44 (2) An eligible covenant holder of the benefit of the covenant;

45 (3) A person that has a third-part right of enforcement; or

1 (4) A public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, in the jurisdiction of which the real property
2 burdened by the covenant is located.

3 SECTION 6. (1) An affordable housing covenant is valid and enforceable even though the 4 covenant is not of a character traditionally recognized at common law or is inconsistent with 5 a common law doctrine of real property law that might invalidate, impair enforcement of or 6 cause the termination of the covenant, including but not limited to common law doctrine
7 that holds that:

8 (a) The covenant is not appurtenant to an interest in the real property.

9 (b) The covenant imposes a negative burden.

10 (c) The covenant imposes affirmative obligations upon the owner of an interest in the 11 burdened real property or the eligible covenant holder.

12 (d) The covenant is held by an eligible covenant holder that does not have an interest in 13 the real property that is benefited by enforcement of the covenant against the burdened 14 property.

15 (e) The benefit of the covenant does not touch or concern real property in any other way.

16 (f) There is no privity of estate or privity of contract.

17 (g) The covenant can be or has been conveyed or assigned to a covenant holder.

18 (h) The covenant is as an unreasonable restraint on alienability.

19 (i) The covenant is a clog on the equity of redemption.

20 (j) The covenant lacks adequate consideration.

21 (2) An affordable housing covenant is valid and enforceable even if the covenant violates
22 the rule against perpetuities set forth in ORS 105.950 to 105.975.

23 (3) If a court denies equitable enforcement of an affordable housing covenant because of 24 a change of circumstances that renders the covenant not in the public interest, the court
25 may award damages as the only remedy in an action to enforce the affordable housing
26 covenant.

27 (4) The court may not use a comparative economic test as a basis for a determination
28 that an affordable housing covenant is not in the public interest.

29 SECTION 7. ORS 94.504 is amended to read:

30 94.504. (1) A city or county may enter into a development agreement as provided in ORS 94.504
31 to 94.528 with any person having a legal or equitable interest in real property for the development

33 (2) A development agreement shall specify:

34 (a) The duration of the agreement;

35 (b) The permitted uses of the property;

36 (c) The density or intensity of use;

37 (d) The maximum height and size of proposed structures;

38 (e) Provisions for reservation or dedication of land for public purposes;

39 (f) A schedule of fees and charges;

40 (g) A schedule and procedure for compliance review;

41 (h) Responsibility for providing infrastructure and services;

42 (i) The effect on the agreement when changes in regional policy or federal or state law or rules
43 render compliance with the agreement impossible, unlawful or inconsistent with such laws, rules or 44 policy;

45 (j) Remedies available to the parties upon a breach of the agreement;

1 (k) The extent to which the agreement is assignable; and

2 (L) The effect on the applicability or implementation of the agreement when a city annexes all
3 or part of the property subject to a development agreement.

4 (3) A development agreement shall set forth all future discretionary approvals required for the 5 development specified in the agreement and shall specify the conditions, terms, restrictions and re-
6 quirements for those discretionary approvals.

7 (4) A development agreement shall also provide that construction shall be commenced within a
8 specified period of time and that the entire project or any phase of the project be completed by a 9 specified time.

10 (5) A development agreement shall contain a provision that makes all city or county obligations
11 to expend moneys under the development agreement contingent upon future appropriations as part 12 of the local budget process. The development agreement shall further provide that nothing in the 13 agreement requires a city or county to appropriate any such moneys.

14 (6) A development agreement must state the assumptions underlying the agreement that relate
15 to the ability of the city or county to serve the development. The development agreement must also 16 specify the procedures to be followed when there is a change in circumstances that affects compli-
17 ance with the agreement.

18 (7) A development agreement is binding upon a city or county pursuant to its terms and for the 19 duration specified in the agreement.

20 (8) The maximum duration of a development agreement entered into with:

21 (a) A city is 15 years; and

22 (b) A county is seven years.

25 SECTION 8. ORS 197.309 is amended to read:

26 197.309. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a city, county or metropolitan
27 service district may not adopt a land use regulation or functional plan provision, or impose as a
28 condition for approving a permit under ORS 215.427 or 227.178, a requirement that has the effect
29 of establishing the sales price for a housing unit or residential building lot or parcel, or that re-
30 quires a housing unit or residential building lot or parcel to be designated for sale to any particular 31 class or group of purchasers.

32 (2) [Nothing in] This section [is intended to] does not limit the authority of a city, county or 33 metropolitan service district to:

34 (a) Adopt or enforce a land use regulation, functional plan provision or condition of approval
35 creating or implementing an incentive, contract commitment, density bonus or other voluntary reg-
36 ulation, provision or condition designed to increase the supply of moderate or lower cost housing 37 units; or

39 Act.

40 SECTION 9. (1) Sections 1 to 6 of this 2007 Act apply to a covenant:

42 2007 Act.

43 (b) Created before the effective date of this 2007 Act if the covenant would have been

1 (2) Sections 1 to 6 of this 2007 Act do not invalidate an otherwise enforceable affordable

3 effective date of this 2007 Act.
