SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

In memoriam: Former state Senator Ted Hallock, 1921-2006.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 Whereas former state Senator Ted Hallock, who served 20 years in the Oregon Legislative As-3 ssembly from 1963 to 1983, was known for his fiery passions and his devotion to his constituents; and

4 Whereas Senator Hallock was born in Hollywood, California, in 1921, the son of an electrical 5 engineer; and

6 Whereas Senator Hallock moved to Portland, Oregon, in 1921, and settled in Irvington; and

7 Whereas Senator Hallock enlisted in the United States Army Air Forces after the attack on 8 Pearl Harbor in June 1942 and became a seasoned veteran of over 30 combat missions, earning a 9 Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and the Presidential Unit Citation; and

10 Whereas after the war, Senator Hallock earned a journalism degree from the University of 11 Oregon and worked in radio, earning the prestigious Peabody Award in 1952 for a news talk show; 12 and

13 Whereas in 1962, after covering elections as part of his radio job, Hallock, a lifelong Democrat,
14 decided to run for office and entered the state Senate in 1963, announcing his intention to "upgrade 15 the general intellectual level of the Senate"; and

16 Whereas Hallock was known as the state Senate's best spontaneous orator and in 1973 gave 17 birth to Oregon's initial land use legislation, Senate Bill 100, requiring every city and county in the 18 state to create a land use plan; and

19 Whereas Hallock left the state Senate in 1983 but never really retired, returning to advertising
20 and serving on the Northwest Power Planning Council where he supported measures to restore 21 salmon runs on the Snake and Columbia Rivers; and

22 Whereas Senator Hallock was a political giant in the Oregon tradition, who passed away at the 23 age of 85 in December 2006; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

24 That we, the members of the Seventy-fourth Legislative Assembly, extend our condolences to the 25 family of former state Senator Ted Hallock and recognize his outstanding service, numerous 26 achievements and contributions to the people and the State of Oregon throughout his life.
