Sponsored by Representative WHISNANT, Senator WESTLUND

Whereas in 1825 Peter S. Ogden of the Hudson's Bay Company conducted the first recorded exploration of the area now known as La Pine; and

Whereas construction of the Central Oregon Military Road opened the La Pine area for settlement in 1867; and

Whereas Bynon Johns Pengra, the Surveyor General of Oregon, established the Rosland post office on his land in 1897; and

Whereas in 1910, Alfred Aya, James Gleason and W. R. Riley acquired exclusive township rights from the Deschutes Land Company and the site of La Pine was platted and mapped; and

Whereas the birth of La Pine marked the death of nearby Rosland where Bynon Johns Pengra had established the post office; and

Whereas for many years La Pine remained a small rural community, but since the 1960s the La Pine area has seen continuous growth; and

Whereas after attempting to incorporate in 1985, 1994 and 2000, La Pine electors voted on November 7, 2006, to incorporate; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

That we, the members of the Seventy-fourth Legislative Assembly, congratulate La Pine, Oregon, on becoming the newest city in Oregon.
