SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

JOINT MEMORIAL

To the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled:

We, your memorialists, the Seventy-fourth Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, in legislative session assembled, respectfully represent as follows:

Whereas Oregon is a national leader in student achievement through its high academic standards and its successful record of school accountability; and

Whereas Congress enacted and the President signed into law the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB), which has as its announced purposes the establishment of high academic standards in reading, math and science and the implementation of test-based accountability for achievement of those standards at schools that do not have accountability; and

Whereas although NCLB has laudable purposes and may impose standards and accountability in states that have failed to hold schools accountable for student achievement, the federal law is misplaced in its application to Oregon; and

Whereas a stated goal of NCLB is to provide flexibility for states to improve academic achievement; and

Whereas NCLB contains expensive mandates that Congress has not sufficiently funded; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

(1) The Congress of the United States of America is respectfully requested to provide funding adequate to achieve the mandates and goals established by the No Child Left Behind Act and to exempt states from any of its provisions that are not adequately federally funded, without such exemption relating to a loss of any federal funds currently granted to the state in question.

(2) A copy of this memorial shall be sent to the Senate Majority Leader and the Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and the Clerk of the United States House of Representatives and each member of the Oregon Congressional Delegation.
