16 SECTION 2. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 40.225 to 40.295, a public or private official who has 17 reasonable cause to believe that an animal with which the official has come in contact has 18 suffered aggravated animal abuse, or that any person with whom the official has come in 19 contact has committed aggravated animal abuse, may immediately report the suspected ag-
20 gravated animal abuse in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of this section.

21 (2) A report of suspected aggravated animal abuse authorized under subsection (1) of this 22 section may be made to a law enforcement agency, either orally or in writing, and may in-
23 clude, if known:

24 (a) The name and description of each animal involved;

25 (b) The address and telephone number of the owner or other person responsible for the 26 care of the animal;

27 (c) The nature and extent of the suspected abuse;

28 (d) Any evidence of previous aggravated animal abuse;

29 (e) Any explanation given for the suspected abuse; and

30 (f) Any other information that the person making the report believes may be helpful in 31 establishing the cause of the suspected abuse or the identity of the person causing the abuse.

32 (3) A public or private official who acts in good faith and has reasonable grounds for 33 making a report of suspected aggravated animal abuse under this section is not liable in any 34 civil or criminal proceeding brought as a result of making the report.

35 SECTION 3. ORS 40.252 is amended to read:

36 40.252. (1) In addition to any other limitations on privilege that may be imposed by law, there
37 is no privilege under ORS 40.225, 40.230 or 40.250 for communications if:

38 (a) In the professional judgment of the person receiving the communications, the communi-
39 cations reveal that the declarant has a clear and serious intent at the time the communications are 40 made to subsequently commit a crime involving physical injury, a threat to the physical safety of 41 any person, sexual abuse or death or involving an act described in ORS 167.322;

42 (b) In the professional judgment of the person receiving the communications, the declarant poses
43 a danger of committing the crime; and

44 (c) The person receiving the communications makes a report to another person based on the 45 communications.

1 (2) The provisions of this section do not create a duty to report any communication to any 2 person.

3 (3) A person who discloses a communication described in subsection (1) of this section, or fails
4 to disclose a communication described in subsection (1) of this section, is not liable to any other
5 person in a civil action for any damage or injury arising out of the disclosure or failure to disclose.

6 SECTION 4. ORS 686.460 is amended to read:

7 686.460. (1) A law enforcement agency receiving a report of suspected aggravated animal abuse
8 pursuant to ORS 686.455 or section 2 of this 2007 Act shall investigate the nature and cause of the 9 suspected aggravated animal abuse.

10 (2) If the law enforcement agency finds reasonable cause to believe that aggravated animal
11 abuse has occurred, the law enforcement agency shall process the case in the same manner as any 12 other criminal investigation.
