43 “SECTION 26. Sections 27 to 29 of this 2007 Act are added to and made a part of ORS

45 “SECTION 27. (1) As used in this section and sections 28 and 29 of this 2007 Act, ‘rent’

1 does not include funds paid under the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f).

2 “(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a landlord waives the right to terminate 3 a rental agreement for a particular violation of the rental agreement or of law if the land-

5 “(a) During three or more separate rental periods, accepts rent with knowledge of the 6 violation by the tenant; or

7 “(b) Accepts performance by a tenant that varies from the terms of the rental agree-9 “(3) A landlord has not accepted rent for purposes of subsection (2) of this section if:

10 “(a) Within 10 days after receipt of the rent payment, the landlord refunds the rent; or 12 “(4) A landlord does not waive the right to terminate a rental agreement for a violation 13 under any of the following circumstances:

14 “(a) The landlord and tenant agree otherwise after the violation has occurred.

15 “(b) The violation concerns the tenant’s conduct and, following the violation but prior to 16 acceptance of rent for three rental periods or performance as described in subsection (2) of 17 this section, the landlord gives a written warning notice to the tenant regarding the violation 18 that:

19 “(A) Describes specifically the conduct that constitutes the violation, either as a separate 20 and distinct violation, a series or group of violations or a continuous or ongoing violation;

21 “(B) States that the tenant is required to discontinue the conduct or correct the vio-22 lation; and

23 “(C) States that a reoccurrence of the conduct that constitutes a violation may result in 24 a termination of the tenancy pursuant to ORS 90.392, 90.398, 90.405 or 90.630.

25 “(c) The tenancy consists of rented space for a manufactured dwelling or floating home 26 as described in ORS 90.505, and the violation concerns:

27 “(A) Disrepair or deterioration of the manufactured dwelling or floating home pursuant 28 to ORS 90.632; or

36 vided by ORS 90.370 (1); or 37 “(C) Rent paid for a rent obligation not yet due and paid more than one rental period in 38 advance.

39 “(5) For a continuous or ongoing violation, the landlord’s written warning notice under 40 subsection (4)(b) of this section remains effective for 12 months and may be renewed with a 41 new warning notice before the end of the 12 months.

42 “(6) A landlord that must refund rent under this section shall make the refund to the 43 tenant or other payer by personal delivery or first class mail. The refund may be in the form 44 of the tenant’s or other payer’s check or in any other form of check or money.

45 “SECTION 28. (1) If a notice of termination has been given by the landlord or the tenant,

1 the following do not waive the right of the landlord to terminate on the notice and do not 2 reinstate the tenancy:

3 “(a) Except when the notice is a nonpayment of rent termination notice under ORS 4 90.394, the acceptance of rent if:

5 “(A) The rent is prorated to the termination date specified in the notice; or 6 “(B) The landlord refunds at least the unused balance of the rent prorated for the period 7 beyond the termination date within 10 days after receiving the rent payment.

8 “(b) Except if the termination is for cause under ORS 90.392, 90.398, 90.405, 90.630 or 9 90.632, the acceptance of rent for a rental period that extends beyond the termination date 10 in the notice, if the landlord refunds at least the unused balance of the rent for the period 11 beyond the termination date within 10 days after the end of the remedy or correction period 12 described in the applicable notice.

13 “(c) If the termination is for cause under ORS 90.392, 90.398, 90.405, 90.630 or 90.632 and 14 proceedings have commenced under ORS 105.105 to 105.168 to recover possession of the 15 premises based on the termination:

16 “(A) The acceptance of rent for a period beyond the expiration of the notice of termi-17 nation during which the tenant remains in possession if:

18 “(i) The landlord notifies the tenant in writing in, or after the service of, the notice of 19 termination for cause that the acceptance of rent while an action for possession is pending 20 will not waive the right to terminate under the notice; and 21 “(ii) The rent does not cover a period that extends beyond the date the rent payment is 22 accepted.

23 “(B) Service of a nonpayment of rent termination notice under ORS 90.394.

24 “(2) The following do not waive the right of the landlord to terminate on a notice of 25 termination given by the landlord or the tenant and do not reinstate a tenancy:

26 “(a) The acceptance of a last month’s rent deposit collected at the beginning of the 27 tenancy, whether or not the deposit covers a period beyond a termination date.

28 “(b) The acceptance of rent distributed under a court order releasing money that was 29 paid into the court as provided under ORS 90.370 (1).

30 “(c) The acceptance of rent paid for a rent obligation not yet due and paid more than one 31 rental period in advance.

32 “(3) When a landlord must refund rent under this section, the refund shall be made to 33 the tenant or other payer by personal delivery or first class mail and may be in the form of 34 the tenant’s or other payer’s check or in any other form of check or money.

35 “SECTION 29. (1) A tenant’s duty regarding rent payments is to tender to the landlord 36 an offer of the full amount of rent owed within the time allowed by law and by the rental 37 agreement provisions regarding payment. A landlord may refuse to accept a rent tender that 38 is for less than the full amount of rent owed or that is untimely.

39 “(2) A landlord may accept a partial payment of rent. The acceptance of a partial pay-40 ment of rent in a manner consistent with subsection (3) of this section does not constitute 41 a waiver under section 27 (2)(b) of this 2007 Act of the landlord’s right to terminate the 42 tenancy under ORS 90.394 for nonpayment of the balance of the rent owed.

43 “(3) A landlord and tenant may by written agreement provide that monthly rent shall be 44 paid in regular installments of less than a month pursuant to a schedule specified in the 45 agreement. Installment rent payments described in this subsection are not partial payment

1 of rent for purposes of this section.

2 “(4) The acceptance of a partial payment of rent waives the right of the landlord to ter-3 minate the tenant’s rental agreement under ORS 90.394 for nonpayment of rent unless:

4 “(a)(A) The landlord accepted the partial payment of rent before the landlord gave a 5 nonpayment of rent termination notice under ORS 90.394 based on the tenant’s agreement 6 to pay the balance by a time certain and the tenant does not pay the balance of the rent as 7 agreed;

8 “(B) The landlord’s notice of termination is served no earlier than it would have been 9 permitted under ORS 90.394 had no rent been accepted; and 10 “(C) The notice permits the tenant to avoid termination of the tenancy for nonpayment 11 of rent by paying the balance within 72 hours or 144 hours, as the case may be, or by any 12 date to which the parties agreed, whichever is later; or 13 “(b) The landlord accepted a partial payment of rent after giving a nonpayment of rent 14 termination notice under ORS 90.394 and entered into a written agreement with the tenant 15 that the acceptance does not constitute waiver. The agreement may provide that the landlord 16 may terminate the rental agreement and take possession as provided in ORS 105.105 to 17 105.168 without serving a new notice under ORS 90.394 if the tenant fails to pay the balance 18 of the rent by a time certain.

19 “(5) Notwithstanding any acceptance of a partial payment of rent under subsection (4) 20 of this section, the tenant continues to owe the landlord the unpaid balance of the rent.

21 “SECTION 30. ORS 90.415 and 316.153 are repealed.

22 “SECTION 30a. The repeal of ORS 316.153 by section 30 of this 2007 Act applies to tax 23 years beginning on or after January 1, 2007.

24 “SECTION 31. ORS 90.425 is amended to read:

26 “(a) ‘Current market value’ means the amount in cash, as determined by the county assessor, 27 that could reasonably be expected to be paid for a manufactured dwelling or floating home by an 28 informed buyer to an informed seller, each acting without compulsion in an arm’s-length transaction 29 occurring on the assessment date for the tax year or on the date of a subsequent reappraisal by the 30 county assessor.

31 “(b) ‘Dispose of the personal property’ means that, if reasonably appropriate, the landlord may 34 benefit.

35 “(c) ‘Goods’ includes those goods left inside a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or 4 prior to May 1, 2005.

5 “(C) For a floating home, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the State
6 Marine Board pursuant to ORS 830.740 to 830.755 for a home registered and titled with the board
7 pursuant to ORS 830.715.

8 “(f) ‘Owner’ means any owner of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or 9 floating home, if different from the tenant and either of record or actually known to the landlord.

10 “(g) ‘Personal property’ means goods, vehicles and recreational vehicles and includes manufac-11 tured dwellings and floating homes not located in a facility. ‘Personal property’ does not include 12 manufactured dwellings and floating homes located in a facility and therefore subject to being 13 stored, sold or disposed of as provided under ORS 90.675.

14 “(2) A landlord may not store, sell or dispose of abandoned personal property except as provided 15 by this section. This section governs the rights and obligations of landlords, tenants and any 16 lienholders or owners in any personal property abandoned or left upon the premises by the tenant 17 or any lienholder or owner in the following circumstances:

18 “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 19 relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the 20 circumstances that the tenant has left the personal property upon the premises with no intention 21 of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the personal property;

22 “(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination 23 of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or

24 “(c) The landlord receives possession of the premises from the sheriff following restitution pur-25 suant to ORS 105.161.

26 “(3) Prior to selling or disposing of the tenant’s personal property under this section, the land-27 lord must give a written notice to the tenant that must be:

28 “(a) Personally delivered to the tenant; or

29 “(b) Sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to the tenant at:

30 “(A) The premises;

31 “(B) Any post-office box held by the tenant and actually known to the landlord; and 32 “(C) The most recent forwarding address if provided by the tenant or actually known to the 33 landlord.

34 “(4)(a) In addition to the notice required by subsection (3) of this section, in the case of an 35 abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, a landlord shall also give 36 a copy of the notice described in subsection (3) of this section to:

37 “(A) Any lienholder of the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home; 38 “(B) Any owner of the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home; 39 “(C) The tax collector of the county where the manufactured dwelling or floating home is lo-40 cated; and

41 “(D) The assessor of the county where the manufactured dwelling or floating home is located.

42 “(b) The landlord shall give the notice copy required by this subsection by personal delivery or 43 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be both by first class mail and by 44 certified mail with return receipt requested.

45 “(c) A notice to lienholders under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must be sent to each

1 lienholder at each address:

2 “(A) Actually known to the landlord;

3 “(B) Of record; and

4 “(C) Provided to the landlord by the lienholder in a written notice that identifies the personal 5 property subject to the lien and that was sent to the landlord by certified mail with return receipt
6 requested within the preceding five years. The notice must identify the personal property by de-7 scribing the physical address of the property.

8 “(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section must state that:

9 “(a) The personal property left upon the premises is considered abandoned;

10 “(b) The tenant or any lienholder or owner must contact the landlord by a specified date, as 11 provided in subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal 12 property;

13 “(c) The personal property is stored at a place of safekeeping, except that if the property in-14 cludes a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the dwelling or home must be stored on the rented 15 space;

16 “(d) The tenant or any lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, 17 may arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described tele-18 phone number or address on or before the specified date;

19 “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any 20 lienholder or owner, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at rea-21 sonable times;

22 “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) 23 of this section, the landlord may require payment of removal and storage charges, as provided by 24 subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any 25 lienholder or owner;

26 “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this 27 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal 28 property;

29 “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder or owner fails to contact the landlord by the specified date, 30 or after that contact, fails to remove the personal property within 30 days for recreational vehicles, 31 manufactured dwellings and floating homes or 15 days for all other personal property, the landlord 32 may sell or dispose of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes that the personal 33 property will be eligible for disposal pursuant to subsection (10)(b) of this section and the landlord 34 intends to dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief 35 and intent; and

36 “(i) If the personal property includes a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating 37 home and if applicable, there is a lienholder or owner that has a right to claim the recreational 38 vehicle, dwelling or home, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

39 “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant, 40 lienholder or owner must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal 41 property is:

42 “(a) For abandoned recreational vehicles, manufactured dwellings or floating homes, not less 43 than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice; or 44 “(b) For all other abandoned personal property, not less than five days after personal delivery 45 or eight days after mailing of the notice.

1 “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord: 2 “(a) Shall store any abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home on the rented space and 3 shall exercise reasonable care for the dwelling or home; 4 “(b) Shall store all other abandoned personal property of the tenant, including goods left inside 5 a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon the rented space outside 6 a recreational vehicle, dwelling or home, in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable 7 care for the personal property, except that the landlord may: 8 “(A) Promptly dispose of rotting food; and 9 “(B) Allow an animal control agency to remove any abandoned pets or livestock. If an animal 10 control agency will not remove the abandoned pets or livestock, the landlord shall exercise reason-11 able care for the animals given all the circumstances, including the type and condition of the ani-12 mals, and may give the animals to an agency that is willing and able to care for the animals, such 13 as a humane society or similar organization; 14 “(c) Except for manufactured dwellings and floating homes, may store the abandoned personal 15 property at the dwelling unit, move and store it elsewhere on the premises or move and store it at 16 a commercial storage company or other place of safekeeping; and 17 “(d) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-18 posal, including any cost of removal to a place of storage. In the case of an abandoned manufactured 19 dwelling or floating home, the storage charge may be no greater than the monthly space rent last 20 payable by the tenant.
21 “(8) If a tenant, lienholder or owner, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) 22 or (4) of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the spec-23 ified date in the landlord’s notice that the tenant, lienholder or owner intends to remove the per-24 sonal property from the premises or from the place of safekeeping, the landlord must make that 25 personal property available for removal by the tenant, lienholder or owner by appointment at rea-26 sonable times during the 15 days or, in the case of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 27 or floating home, 30 days following the date of the response, subject to subsection (18) of this sec-28 tion. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of 29 this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this section, the landlord may require payment 30 of removal and storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(d) of this section, prior to allowing the 31 tenant, lienholder or owner to remove the personal property. Acceptance by a landlord of such 32 payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to [ORS 33 90.415] section 27 or 29 of this 2007 Act.
34 “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant, lienholder or 35 owner of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home does not respond within the 36 time provided by the landlord’s notice, or the tenant, lienholder or owner does not remove the per-37 sonal property within the time required by subsection (8) of this section or by any date agreed to 38 with the landlord, whichever is later, the tenant’s, lienholder’s or owner’s personal property is con-39 clusively presumed to be abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder or owner that have been given 40 notice pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution 41 of sale proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest 42 to the personal property and may not claim or sell the property.
43 “(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 44 the landlord then may:
45 “(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale of a

1 recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home:

2 “(A) The landlord may seek to transfer ownership of record of the personal property by com-3 plying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

4 “(B) The landlord shall:

5 “(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the recreational 6 vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home is located. The notice shall state:

7 “(I) That the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home is abandoned;

8 “(II) The tenant’s and owner’s name, if of record or actually known to the landlord;

9 “(III) The address and any space number where the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 10 or floating home is located, and any plate, registration or other identification number for a recre-11 ational vehicle or floating home noted on the certificate of title, if actually known to the landlord;

12 “(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;

13 “(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 14 be accepted; and

15 “(VI) The name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the recreational ve-16 hicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home;

17 “(ii) At a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by sub-18 subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph to the tenant and to any lienholder and owner, by personal 19 delivery or first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be by first class mail 20 with certificate of mailing;

21 “(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required 22 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of 23 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted; 24 and

25 “(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes and assessments on the man-26 ufactured dwelling or floating home have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized 27 the sale, with the sale proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section;

28 “(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines that:

29 “(A) For a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the current market value of the property is 30 $8,000 or less as determined by the county assessor; or 31 “(B) For all other personal property, the reasonable current fair market value is $500 or less 32 or so low that the cost of storage and conducting a public sale probably exceeds the amount that 33 would be realized from the sale; or

34 “(c) Consistent with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, sell certain items and destroy or 35 otherwise dispose of the remaining personal property.

36 “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section must:

37 “(A) For a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, be conducted consist-38 ent with the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including 39 the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable; or 40 “(B) For all other personal property, be conducted under the provisions of ORS 79.0610.

41 “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the personal 42 property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-43 lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

44 “(12) Notwithstanding ORS 446.155 (1) and (2), unless a landlord intentionally misrepresents the 45 condition of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord is not liable for the condition

1 of the dwelling or home to:

2 “(a) A buyer of the dwelling or home at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section, with 3 or without consideration; or

4 “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the dwelling or home pur-5 suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

6 “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

7 “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 8 “(B) Unpaid rent.

9 “(b) If the sale was of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, after deducting the amounts 10 listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to 11 the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on the 12 dwelling or home.

13 “(c) If the sale was of a recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, after de-14 ducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable, the landlord 15 shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid balance 16 owed on the lien on the recreational vehicle, dwelling or home.

17 “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-18 plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant or owner the remaining proceeds, if any, together 19 with an itemized accounting.

20 “(e) If the tenant or owner cannot after due diligence be found, the landlord shall deposit the 21 remaining proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not 22 claimed within three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are 23 available for general purposes.

24 “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes and assessments owed on 25 a manufactured dwelling or floating home, as provided under ORS 311.790, only under one of the 26 following circumstances:

27 “(a) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home after a determination 28 described in subsection (10)(b) of this section.

29 “(b) There is no buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 30 subsection (11) of this section.

31 “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 32 subsection (11) of this section;

33 “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is $8,000 or less; 34 and

35 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-36 ments owed on the dwelling or home after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 37 of this section.

38 “(d)(A) The landlord buys the manufactured dwelling or floating home at a sale described under 39 subsection (11) of this section;

40 “(B) The current market value of the manufactured dwelling or floating home is more than 41 $8,000;

42 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-43 ments owed on the manufactured dwelling or floating home after distribution of the proceeds pur-44 suant to subsection (13) of this section; and 45 “(D) The landlord disposes of the manufactured dwelling or floating home.

1 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant, lienholder or owner resulting 2 from storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 3 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 4 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant, lienholder or owner.

5 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 6 any action brought by a tenant, lienholder or owner against a landlord for loss or damage to such 7 personal property disposed of pursuant to this section.

8 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

9 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 10 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 11 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

12 “(b) A lienholder or owner aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 13 actual damages sustained by the lienholder or owner. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of 14 attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and 15 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 16 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 17 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 18 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

19 “(18) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home, 20 the provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned 21 vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to any lienholder except that the lienholder may not sell or 22 remove the vehicle, dwelling or home unless:

23 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed its lien on the recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling 24 or floating home;

25 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 26 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (25) of this section; 27 or

28 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 29 expired.

30 “(19)(a) In the case of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home but not including 31 a dwelling or home abandoned following a termination pursuant to ORS 90.429 and except as pro-32 vided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a timely response to a notice 33 of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of this section and so requests, 34 a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the lienholder providing that the 35 dwelling or home may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 12 months. A storage 36 agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the previously rented space 37 during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the personal property.

38 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant, owner 39 or, in the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee 40 to remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

41 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
42 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 43 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 44 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
45 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord

1 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-
2 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a 3 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 4 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

5 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-6 lord and the lienholder, that:

7 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-8 section (7)(d) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 9 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 10 in ORS 90.532, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer service and natural gas and if in-11 cidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may not be due more frequently than 12 monthly;

13 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-14 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges de-15 scribed in the rental agreement between the landlord and the tenant; and

16 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-17 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-18 ment between the landlord and the tenant.

19 “(e) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder has the 20 right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of the lien. Selling the property in-21 cludes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and 22 become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously agreed to by the landlord and tenant regard-23 ing the landlord’s approval of a purchaser or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable con-24 ditions by the landlord regarding approval of any purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or 25 home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for oc-26 cupancy of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and mainte-27 nance costs.

28 “(f)(A) If the lienholder violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agree-29 ment by giving at least 90 days’ written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the 30 lienholder of the reason for the termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the 31 notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the 32 dwelling or home without further notice to the lienholder.

33 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 34 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the 35 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the 36 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the lienholder
37 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 38 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-39 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

40 “(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days’ written 41 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the rented space if the lienholder has paid 42 all storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

43 “(g) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this sub-44 section or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 45 has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the landlord may sell or dispose

1 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the lienholder.

2 “(20) If the personal property consists of an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home 3 and is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who was the only tenant and who 4 owned the dwelling or home, this section applies, except as follows:

5 “(a) Any personal representative named in a will or appointed by a court to act for the deceased 6 tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be contacted by the landlord in the 7 event of the tenant’s death has the same rights and responsibilities regarding the abandoned dwell-8 ing or home as a tenant.

9 “(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be:

10 “(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and 11 “(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 12 person if actually known to the landlord.

13 “(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section must refer to any personal represen-14 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and must incorporate the provisions of 15 this subsection.

16 “(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 17 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period 18 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 19 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the dwelling or home may not 20 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-
21 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the 22 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not 23 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 24 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 25 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

26 “(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage
27 agreement, subsection (19)(c), (d) and (f)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or person 28 having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

29 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-30 resentative or person has the right to remove or sell the dwelling or home, including a sale to a 31 purchaser or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave 32 the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to any conditions previously 33 agreed to by the landlord and tenant regarding the landlord’s approval for occupancy of a purchaser, 34 heir or devisee or, if there was no such agreement, any reasonable conditions by the landlord re-35 garding approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee who wishes to leave the dwelling 36 or home on the rented space and become a tenant. The landlord also may condition approval for 37 occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the dwelling or home upon payment of all unpaid 38 storage charges and maintenance costs.

39 “(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate 40 the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the representative or person stating facts
41 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-42 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 43 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the dwelling or home without further notice to the 44 representative or person.

45 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-

1 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 2 or the representative or person has sold or removed the manufactured dwelling or floating home, the 3 landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the 4 representative or person.

5 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of a manufactured dwelling, float-6 ing home or recreational vehicle abandoned under this section constitutes an extreme health or 7 safety hazard under state or local law and the agency determines that the hazard endangers others 8 in the immediate vicinity and requires quick removal of the property, the landlord may sell or dis-9 pose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The landlord shall comply with all provisions of 10 this section, except as follows:

11 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, owner, 12 personal representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition 13 of the property must be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice re-14 quired by subsection (3) of this section.

15 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 16 owner, personal representative or designated person must remove the property must be not less than 17 seven days after the tenant, lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person contacts 18 the landlord.

19 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be as provided in subsection (5) 20 of this section, except that:

21 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the prop-
22 erty must be consistent with this subsection;

23 “(B) The notice must state that a governmental agency has determined that the property con-24 stitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and 25 “(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency’s determination to the notice.

26 “(d) If the tenant, a lienholder, owner, personal representative or designated person does not 27 remove the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under 28 subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

29 “(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, owner, 30 personal representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

31 “(22)(a) If an official or agency referred to in ORS 453.876 notifies the landlord that the official 32 or agency has determined that all or part of the premises is unfit for use as a result of the presence 33 of an illegal drug manufacturing site involving methamphetamine, and the landlord complies with 34 this subsection, the landlord is not required to comply with subsections (1) to (21) and (23) to (26) 35 of this section with regard to personal property left on the portion of the premises that the official 36 or agency has determined to be unfit for use.

37 “(b) Upon receiving notice from an official or agency determining the premises to be unfit for 38 use, the landlord shall promptly give written notice to the tenant as provided in subsection (3) of 39 this section. The landlord shall also attach a copy of the notice in a secure manner to the main 40 entrance of the dwelling unit. The notice to the tenant shall include a copy of the official’s or 41 agency’s notice and state:

42 “(A) That the premises, or a portion of the premises, has been determined by an official or 43 agency to be unfit for use due to contamination from the manufacture of methamphetamine and that 44 as a result subsections (1) to (21) and (23) to (26) of this section do not apply to personal property 45 left on any portion of the premises determined to be unfit for use;

1 “(B) That the landlord has hired, or will hire, a contractor to assess the level of contamination 2 of the site and to decontaminate the site;

3 “(C) That upon hiring the contractor, the landlord will provide to the tenant the name, address 4 and telephone number of the contractor; and 5 “(D) That the tenant may contact the contractor to determine whether any of the tenant’s per-6 sonal property may be removed from the premises or may be decontaminated at the tenant’s expense 7 and then removed.

8 “(c) To the extent consistent with rules of the Department of Human Services, the contractor 9 may release personal property to the tenant.

10 “(d) If the contractor and the department determine that the premises or the tenant’s personal 11 property is not unfit for use, upon notification by the department of the determination, the landlord 12 shall comply with subsections (1) to (21) and (23) to (26) of this section for any personal property left 13 on the premises.

14 “(e) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection, the landlord is not responsible for 15 storing or returning any personal property left on the portion of the premises that is unfit for use.

16 “(23) In the case of an abandoned recreational vehicle, manufactured dwelling or floating home 17 that is owned by someone other than the tenant, the provisions of this section regarding the rights 18 and responsibilities of a tenant to the abandoned vehicle, dwelling or home also apply to that owner, 19 with regard only to the vehicle, dwelling or home, and not to any goods left inside or outside the 20 vehicle, dwelling or home.

21 “(24) In the case of an abandoned motor vehicle, the procedure authorized by ORS 98.830 and 22 98.835 for removal of abandoned motor vehicles from private property may be used by a landlord 23 as an alternative to the procedures required in this section.

24 “(25)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant’s abandoned personal property without com-25 plying with subsections (1) to (24) and (26) of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no 26 more than seven days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a 27 writing entered into in good faith:

28 “(A) The landlord;

29 “(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only 30 tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 31 personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and

32 “(C) In the case of a manufactured dwelling, floating home or recreational vehicle, any owner 33 and any lienholder.

34 “(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, require a tenant, a personal represen-35 tative, a designated person or any lienholder or owner to waive any right provided by this section.

36 “(26) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of 37 this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal prop-38 erty.

39 “SECTION 32. ORS 90.630 is amended to read:

40 “90.630. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the landlord may terminate a 41 rental agreement that is a month-to-month or fixed term tenancy for space for a manufactured 42 dwelling or floating home by giving to the tenant not less than 30 days’ notice in writing before the 43 date designated in the notice for termination if the tenant:

44 “(a) Violates a law or ordinance related to the tenant’s conduct as a tenant, including but not 45 limited to a material noncompliance with ORS 90.740;

1 “(b) Violates a rule or rental agreement provision related to the tenant’s conduct as a tenant 2 and imposed as a condition of occupancy, including but not limited to a material noncompliance with 3 a rental agreement regarding a program of recovery in drug and alcohol free housing; [or]

4 “(c) Is determined to be a predatory sex offender under ORS 181.585 to 181.587; or 5 “(c) (d) Fails to pay a:

7 “(B) Fee pursuant to ORS 90.302; or 8 “(C) Utility or service charge pursuant to ORS 90.534 or 90.536.

9 “(2) A violation making a tenant subject to termination under subsection (1) of this section in- 10 cludes a tenant’s failure to maintain the space as required by law, ordinance, rental agreement or 11 rule, but does not include the physical condition of the dwelling or home. Termination of a rental
12 agreement based upon the physical condition of a dwelling or home shall only be as provided in ORS 13 90.632.

14 “(3) The notice required by subsection (1) of this section shall state facts sufficient to notify the 15 tenant of the reasons for termination of the tenancy and state that the tenant may avoid termination 16 by correcting the violation as provided in subsection (4) of this section.

17 “(4) The tenant may avoid termination of the tenancy by correcting the violation within the 18 30-day period specified in subsection (1) of this section. However, if substantially the same act or 19 omission that constituted a prior violation of which notice was given recurs within six months after 20 the date of the notice, the landlord may terminate the tenancy upon at least 20 days’ written notice 21 specifying the violation and the date of termination of the tenancy.

22 “(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3) or (4) of this section, a tenant who is given a notice 23 of termination under subsection (1)(c) of this section does not have a right to correct the 24 violation. A notice given to a tenant under subsection (1)(c) of this section must state that 25 the tenant does not have a right to avoid the termination.

1 “[(9)] (6) This section does not limit a landlord’s right to terminate a tenancy for nonpayment 2 of rent under ORS 90.394 or for other cause under ORS 90.380 (5)(b), 90.396, 90.398 or 90.632 by 3 complying with ORS 105.105 to 105.168.

4 “[(10)] (7) A tenancy terminates on the date designated in the notice and without regard to the 5 expiration of the period for which, by the terms of the rental agreement, rents are to be paid. Un-6 less otherwise agreed, rent is uniformly apportionable from day to day.

11 “[(12)(a)] (8) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or ORS [90.392,] 90.394, 90.396 12 or 90.398, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement for space for a manufactured dwelling 13 or floating home because of repeated late payment of rent by giving the tenant not less than 30 days’ 14 notice in writing before the date designated in that notice for termination and may take possession 15 as provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168 if:

16 “[(A)] (a) The tenant has not paid the monthly rent prior to the eighth day of the rental period 17 as described in ORS 90.394 (2)(a) or the fifth day of the rental period as described in ORS 90.394 18 (2)(b) in at least three of the preceding 12 months and the landlord has given the tenant a [notice 19 for] nonpayment of rent termination notice pursuant to ORS 90.394 (2) during each of those three 20 instances of nonpayment;

21 “[(B)] (b) The landlord warns the tenant of the risk of a 30-day notice for termination with no 22 right to correct the cause, upon the occurrence of a third [notice for] nonpayment of rent termi-
23 nation notice within a 12-month period. The warning must be contained in at least two [notices 24 for] nonpayment of rent termination notices that precede the third notice within a 12-month period 25 or in separate written notices that are given concurrent with, or a reasonable time after, each of 26 the two [notices for] nonpayment of rent termination notices; and 27 “[(C)] (c) The 30-day notice of termination states facts sufficient to notify the tenant of the cause 28 for termination of the tenancy and is given to the tenant concurrent with or after the third or a 29 subsequent [notice for] nonpayment of rent termination notice.

30 “[(b)] (9) Notwithstanding subsection [(2)] (4) of this section, a tenant who receives a 30-day 31 notice of termination pursuant to [this] subsection (8) of this section does not have a right to cor-32 rect the cause for the notice.

33 “[(c)] (10) The landlord may give a copy of the notice required by [paragraph (a) of this] sub-34 section (8) of this section to any lienholder of the manufactured dwelling or floating home by first 35 class mail with certificate of mailing or by any other method allowed by ORS 90.150 (2) and (3). A 36 landlord is not liable to a tenant for any damages incurred by the tenant as a result of the landlord 37 giving a copy of the notice in good faith to a lienholder. A lienholder’s rights and obligations re-38 garding an abandoned manufactured dwelling or floating home shall be as provided under ORS 39 90.675.

40 “SECTION 32a. ORS 90.260 is amended to read:

41 “90.260. (1) A landlord may impose a late charge or fee, however designated, only if:

42 “(a) The rent payment is not received by the fourth day of the weekly or monthly rental period 43 for which rent is payable; and 44 “(b) There exists a written rental agreement that specifies:

45 “(A) The tenant’s obligation to pay a late charge on delinquent rent payments;

1 “(B) The type and amount of the late charge, as described in subsection (2) of this section; and 2 “(C) The date on which rent payments are due and the date or day on which late charges be-3 come due.

4 “(2) The amount of any late charge may not exceed:

5 “(a) A reasonable flat amount, charged once per rental period. ‘Reasonable amount’ means the 6 customary amount charged by landlords for that rental market;

7 “(b) A reasonable amount, charged on a per-day basis, beginning on the fifth day of the rental 8 period for which rent is delinquent. This daily charge may accrue every day thereafter until the 9 rent, not including any late charge, is paid in full, through that rental period only. The per-day 10 charge may not exceed six percent of the amount described in paragraph (a) of this subsection; or 11 “(c) Five percent of the periodic rent payment amount, charged once for each succeeding five-12 day period, or portion thereof, for which the rent payment is delinquent, beginning on the fifth day 13 of that rental period and continuing and accumulating until that rent payment, not including any 14 late charge, is paid in full, through that rental period only.

15 “(3) In periodic tenancies, a landlord may change the type or amount of late charge by giving 16 30 days’ written notice to the tenant.

17 “(4) A landlord may not deduct a previously imposed late charge from a current or subsequent 18 rental period rent payment, thereby making that rent payment delinquent for imposition of a new 19 or additional late charge or for termination of the tenancy for nonpayment under ORS 90.394.

20 “(5) A landlord may charge simple interest on an unpaid late charge at the rate allowed for 21 judgments pursuant to ORS 82.010 (2) and accruing from the date the late charge is imposed.

22 “(6) Nonpayment of a late charge alone is not grounds for termination of a rental agreement for 23 nonpayment of rent under ORS 90.394, but is grounds for termination of a rental agreement for 24 cause under ORS 90.392 or 90.630 (1). A landlord may note the imposition of a late charge on a 25 [notice of] nonpayment of rent termination notice under ORS 90.394, so long as the notice states 26 or otherwise makes clear that the tenant may cure the nonpayment notice by paying only the de-27 linquent rent, not including any late charge, within the allotted time.

28 “(7) A late charge includes an increase or decrease in the regularly charged periodic rent pay-29 ment imposed because a tenant does or does not pay that rent by a certain date.

30 “SECTION 33. ORS 90.632 is amended to read:

31 “90.632. (1) A landlord may terminate a month-to-month or fixed term rental agreement and re-32 quire the tenant to remove a manufactured dwelling or floating home from a facility, due to the 33 physical condition of the manufactured dwelling or floating home, only by complying with this sec-34 tion and ORS 105.105 to 105.168. A termination shall include removal of the dwelling or home.

35 “(2) A landlord may not require removal of a manufactured dwelling or floating home, or con-36 sider a dwelling or home to be in disrepair or deteriorated, because of the age, size, style or original 37 construction material of the dwelling or home or because the dwelling or home was built prior to 38 adoption of the National Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 39 U.S.C. 5403), in compliance with the standards of that Act in effect at that time or in compliance 40 with the state building code as defined in ORS 455.010.

41 “(3) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, if the tenant’s dwelling or home is in 42 disrepair or is deteriorated, a landlord may terminate a rental agreement and require the removal 43 of a dwelling or home by giving to the tenant not less than 30 days’ written notice before the date 44 designated in the notice for termination.

45 “(4) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must:

1 “(a) State facts sufficient to notify the tenant of the causes or reasons for termination of the 2 tenancy and removal of the dwelling or home;

3 “(b) State that the tenant can avoid termination and removal by correcting the cause for ter-4 mination and removal within the notice period;

5 “(c) Describe what is required to correct the cause for termination;

6 “(d) Describe the tenant’s right to give the landlord a written notice of correction, where to give 7 the notice and the deadline for giving the notice in order to ensure a response by the landlord, all 8 as provided by subsection (6) of this section; and 9 “(e) Describe the tenant’s right to have the termination and correction period extended as pro-10 vided by subsection (7) of this section.

11 “(5) The tenant may avoid termination of the tenancy by correcting the cause within the period 12 specified. However, if substantially the same condition that constituted a prior cause for termination 13 of which notice was given recurs within 12 months after the date of the notice, the landlord may 14 terminate the tenancy and require the removal of the dwelling or home upon at least 30 days’ 15 written notice specifying the violation and the date of termination of the tenancy.

16 “(6) During the termination notice or extension period, the tenant may give the landlord written 17 notice that the tenant has corrected the cause for termination. Within a reasonable time after the 18 tenant’s notice of correction, the landlord shall respond to the tenant in writing, stating whether the 19 landlord agrees that the cause has been corrected. If the tenant’s notice of correction is given at 20 least 14 days prior to the end of the termination notice or extension period, failure by the landlord 21 to respond as required by this subsection is a defense to a termination based upon the landlord’s 22 notice for termination.

23 “(7) Except when the disrepair or deterioration creates a risk of imminent and serious harm to 24 other dwellings, homes or persons within the facility, the 30-day period provided for the tenant to 25 correct the cause for termination and removal shall be extended by at least:

26 “(a) An additional 60 days if:

27 “(A) The necessary correction involves exterior painting, roof repair, concrete pouring or simi-28 lar work and the weather prevents that work during a substantial portion of the 30-day period; or

29 “(B) The nature or extent of the correction work is such that it cannot reasonably be completed 30 within 30 days because of factors such as the amount of work necessary, the type and complexity 31 of the work and the availability of necessary repair persons; or 32 “(b) An additional six months if the disrepair or deterioration has existed for more than the 33 preceding 12 months with the landlord’s knowledge or acceptance as described in [ORS 90.415 (1)] 34 section 27 of this 2007 Act.

35 “(8) In order to have the period for correction extended as provided in subsection (7) of this 36 section, a tenant must give the landlord written notice describing the necessity for an extension in 37 order to complete the correction work. The notice must be given a reasonable amount of time prior 38 to the end of the notice for termination period.

39 “(9) A tenancy terminates on the date designated in the notice and without regard to the expi-40 ration of the period for which, by the terms of the rental agreement, rents are to be paid. Unless 41 otherwise agreed, rent is uniformly apportionable from day to day.

42 “(10) This section does not limit a landlord’s right to terminate a tenancy for nonpayment of 43 rent under ORS 90.394 or for other cause under ORS 90.380 (5)(b), 90.396, 90.398 or 90.630 by com-44 plying with ORS 105.105 to 105.168.

45 “(11) A landlord may give a copy of the notice for termination required by this section to any

1 lienholder of the dwelling or home, by first class mail with certificate of mailing or by any other 2 method allowed by ORS 90.150 (2) and (3). A landlord is not liable to a tenant for any damages in-3 curred by the tenant as a result of the landlord giving a copy of the notice in good faith to a 4 lienholder.

5 “(12) When a tenant has been given a notice for termination pursuant to this section and has 6 subsequently abandoned the dwelling or home as described in ORS 90.675, any lienholder shall have 7 the same rights as provided by ORS 90.675, including the right to correct the cause of the notice, 8 within the 90-day period provided by ORS 90.675 (19) notwithstanding the expiration of the notice 9 period provided by this section for the tenant to correct the cause.

10 “SECTION 34. ORS 90.675 is amended to read:

11 “90.675. (1) As used in this section:

12 “(a) ‘Current market value’ means the amount in cash, as determined by the county assessor, 13 that could reasonably be expected to be paid for personal property by an informed buyer to an in-14 formed seller, each acting without compulsion in an arm’s-length transaction occurring on the as-15 sessment date for the tax year or on the date of a subsequent reappraisal by the county assessor.

16 “(b) ‘Dispose of the personal property’ means that, if reasonably appropriate, the landlord may 17 throw away the property or may give it without consideration to a nonprofit organization or to a 18 person unrelated to the landlord. The landlord may not retain the property for personal use or 19 benefit.

20 “(c) ‘Lienholder’ means any lienholder of abandoned personal property, if the lien is of record 21 or the lienholder is actually known to the landlord.

22 “(d) ‘Of record’ means:

23 “(A) For a manufactured dwelling, that a security interest has been properly recorded in the 24 records of the Department of Consumer and Business Services pursuant to ORS 446.611 or on a 25 certificate of title issued by the Department of Transportation prior to May 1, 2005.

26 “(B) For a floating home, that a security interest has been properly recorded with the State
27 Marine Board pursuant to ORS 830.740 to 830.755 for a home registered and titled with the board
28 pursuant to ORS 830.715.

29 “(e) ‘Personal property’ means only a manufactured dwelling or floating home located in a fa-30 cility and subject to ORS 90.505 to 90.840. ‘Personal property’ does not include goods left inside a 31 manufactured dwelling or floating home or left upon a rented space and subject to disposition under 32 ORS 90.425.

33 “(2) A landlord may not store, sell or dispose of abandoned personal property except as provided 34 by this section. This section governs the rights and obligations of landlords, tenants and any 35 lienholders in any personal property abandoned or left upon the premises by the tenant or any 36 lienholder in the following circumstances:

37 “(a) The tenancy has ended by termination or expiration of a rental agreement or by 38 relinquishment or abandonment of the premises and the landlord reasonably believes under all the 39 circumstances that the tenant has left the personal property upon the premises with no intention 40 of asserting any further claim to the premises or to the personal property;

41 “(b) The tenant has been absent from the premises continuously for seven days after termination 42 of a tenancy by a court order that has not been executed; or

43 “(c) The landlord receives possession of the premises from the sheriff following restitution pur-
44 suant to ORS 105.161.

45 “(3) Prior to selling or disposing of the tenant’s personal property under this section, the land-

1 lord must give a written notice to the tenant that must be:

2 “(a) Personally delivered to the tenant; or

3 “(b) Sent by first class mail addressed and mailed to the tenant at:

4 “(A) The premises;

5 “(B) Any post-office box held by the tenant and actually known to the landlord; and

6 “(C) The most recent forwarding address if provided by the tenant or actually known to the 7 landlord.

8 “(4)(a) A landlord shall also give a copy of the notice described in subsection (3) of this section

9 to:

10 “(A) Any lienholder of the personal property;

11 “(B) The tax collector of the county where the personal property is located; and 12 “(C) The assessor of the county where the personal property is located.

13 “(b) The landlord shall give the notice copy required by this subsection by personal delivery or

14 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be both by first class mail and by 15 certified mail with return receipt requested.

16 “(c) A notice to lienholders under paragraph (a)(A) of this subsection must be sent to each

17 lienholder at each address:

18 “(A) Actually known to the landlord;

19 “(B) Of record; and

20 “(C) Provided to the landlord by the lienholder in a written notice that identifies the personal

21 property subject to the lien and that was sent to the landlord by certified mail with return receipt

22 requested within the preceding five years. The notice must identify the personal property by de-

23 scribing the physical address of the property.

24 “(5) The notice required under subsection (3) of this section must state that:

25 “(a) The personal property left upon the premises is considered abandoned;

26 “(b) The tenant or any lienholder must contact the landlord by a specified date, as provided in 27 subsection (6) of this section, to arrange for the removal of the abandoned personal property;

28 “(c) The personal property is stored on the rented space; 29 “(d) The tenant or any lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, may 30 arrange for removal of the personal property by contacting the landlord at a described telephone

31 number or address on or before the specified date;

32 “(e) The landlord shall make the personal property available for removal by the tenant or any 33 lienholder, except as provided by subsection (18) of this section, by appointment at reasonable times;

34 “(f) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b)

35 of this section, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided by subsection (7)(b)

36 of this section, prior to releasing the personal property to the tenant or any lienholder;

37 “(g) If the personal property is considered to be abandoned pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this

38 section, the landlord may not require payment of storage charges prior to releasing the personal

39 property;

40 “(h) If the tenant or any lienholder fails to contact the landlord by the specified date or fails

41 to remove the personal property within 30 days after that contact, the landlord may sell or dispose 42 of the personal property. If the landlord reasonably believes the county assessor will determine that 43 the current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less, and the landlord intends to 44 dispose of the property if the property is not claimed, the notice shall state that belief and intent;

45 and

1 “(i) If applicable, there is a lienholder that has a right to claim the personal property, except 2 as provided by subsection (18) of this section.

3 “(6) For purposes of subsection (5) of this section, the specified date by which a tenant or 4 lienholder must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of abandoned personal property 5 must be not less than 45 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice.

6 “(7) After notifying the tenant as required by subsection (3) of this section, the landlord:

7 “(a) Shall store the abandoned personal property of the tenant on the rented space and shall 8 exercise reasonable care for the personal property; and 9 “(b) Is entitled to reasonable or actual storage charges and costs incidental to storage or dis-10 posal. The storage charge may be no greater than the monthly space rent last payable by the tenant.

11 “(8) If a tenant or lienholder, upon the receipt of the notice provided by subsection (3) or (4) 12 of this section or otherwise, responds by actual notice to the landlord on or before the specified date 13 in the landlord’s notice that the tenant or lienholder intends to remove the personal property from 14 the premises, the landlord must make that personal property available for removal by the tenant or 15 lienholder by appointment at reasonable times during the 30 days following the date of the response, 16 subject to subsection (18) of this section. If the personal property is considered to be abandoned 17 pursuant to subsection (2)(a) or (b) of this section, but not pursuant to subsection (2)(c) of this sec-18 tion, the landlord may require payment of storage charges, as provided in subsection (7)(b) of this 19 section, prior to allowing the tenant or lienholder to remove the personal property. Acceptance by 20 a landlord of such payment does not operate to create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver 21 pursuant to [ORS 90.415] section 27 or 29 of this 2007 Act.

22 “(9) Except as provided in subsections (18) to (20) of this section, if the tenant or lienholder does 23 not respond within the time provided by the landlord’s notice, or the tenant or lienholder does not 24 remove the personal property within 30 days after responding to the landlord or by any date agreed 25 to with the landlord, whichever is later, the personal property is conclusively presumed to be 26 abandoned. The tenant and any lienholder that have been given notice pursuant to subsection (3) 27 or (4) of this section shall, except with regard to the distribution of sale proceeds pursuant to sub-28 section (13) of this section, have no further right, title or interest to the personal property and may 29 not claim or sell the property.

30 “(10) If the personal property is presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of this section, 31 the landlord then may:

32 “(a) Sell the personal property at a public or private sale, provided that prior to the sale:

33 “(A) The landlord may seek to transfer ownership of record of the personal property by com-34 plying with the requirements of the appropriate state agency; and

35 “(B) The landlord shall:

36 “(i) Place a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the personal 37 property is located. The notice shall state:

38 “(I) That the personal property is abandoned;

39 “(II) The tenant’s name;

40 “(III) The address and any space number where the personal property is located, and any plate, 41 registration or other identification number for a floating home noted on the title, if actually known 42 to the landlord;

43 “(IV) Whether the sale is by private bidding or public auction;

44 “(V) Whether the landlord is accepting sealed bids and, if so, the last date on which bids will 45 be accepted; and

1 “(VI) The name and telephone number of the person to contact to inspect the personal property;

2 “(ii) At a reasonable time prior to the sale, give a copy of the notice required by sub-

3 subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph to the tenant and to any lienholder, by personal delivery or 4 first class mail, except that for any lienholder, mail service must be by first class mail with certif-

5 icate of mailing;

6 “(iii) Obtain an affidavit of publication from the newspaper to show that the notice required

7 under sub-subparagraph (i) of this subparagraph ran in the newspaper at least one day in each of

8 two consecutive weeks prior to the date scheduled for the sale or the last date bids will be accepted;

9 and

10 “(iv) Obtain written proof from the county that all property taxes and assessments on the per-

11 sonal property have been paid or, if not paid, that the county has authorized the sale, with the sale

12 proceeds to be distributed pursuant to subsection (13) of this section; or 13 “(b) Destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property if the landlord determines from the 14 county assessor that the current market value of the property is $8,000 or less.

15 “(11)(a) A public or private sale authorized by this section must be conducted consistent with 16 the terms listed in subsection (10)(a)(B)(i) of this section. Every aspect of the sale including the 17 method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable.

18 “(b) If there is no buyer at a sale described under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the personal

19 property is considered to be worth $8,000 or less, regardless of current market value, and the land-

20 lord shall destroy or otherwise dispose of the personal property.

22 condition of personal property, the landlord is not liable for the condition of the personal property

23 to:

24 “(a) A buyer of the personal property at a sale pursuant to subsection (10)(a) of this section,

25 with or without consideration; or

26 “(b) A person or nonprofit organization to whom the landlord gives the personal property pur-

27 suant to subsection (1)(b), (10)(b) or (11)(b) of this section.

28 “(13)(a) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale:

29 “(A) The reasonable or actual cost of notice, storage and sale; and 30 “(B) Unpaid rent.

31 “(b) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the landlord shall 32 remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to the county tax collector to the extent of any unpaid prop-

33 erty taxes and assessments owed on the dwelling or home.

34 “(c) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, if applicable,

35 the landlord shall remit the remaining proceeds, if any, to any lienholder to the extent of any unpaid 36 balance owed on the lien on the personal property.

37 “(d) After deducting the amounts listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this subsection, if ap-

38 plicable, the landlord shall remit to the tenant the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an 39 itemized accounting.

40 “(e) If the tenant cannot after due diligence be found, the landlord shall deposit the remaining

41 proceeds with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred. If not claimed within 42 three years, the deposited proceeds revert to the general fund of the county and are available for 43 general purposes.

44 “(14) The county tax collector shall cancel all unpaid property taxes and assessments as pro-

45 vided under ORS 311.790 only under one of the following circumstances:

1 “(a) The landlord disposes of the personal property after a determination described in subsection 2 (10)(b) of this section.

3 “(b) There is no buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 4 section.

5 “(c)(A) There is a buyer of the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 6 section;

7 “(B) The current market value of the personal property is $8,000 or less; and

8 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-
9 ments owed on the personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13) 10 of this section.

11 “(d)(A) The landlord buys the personal property at a sale described under subsection (11) of this 12 section;

13 “(B) The current market value of the personal property is more than $8,000;

14 “(C) The proceeds of the sale are insufficient to satisfy the unpaid property taxes and assess-
15 ments owed on the personal property after distribution of the proceeds pursuant to subsection (13)

17 “(D) The landlord disposes of the personal property.

18 “(15) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant or lienholder resulting from 19 storage of personal property in compliance with this section unless the loss was caused by the 20 landlord’s deliberate or negligent act. In the event of a deliberate and malicious violation, the 21 landlord is liable for twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant or lienholder.

22 “(16) Complete compliance in good faith with this section shall constitute a complete defense in 23 any action brought by a tenant or lienholder against a landlord for loss or damage to such personal 24 property disposed of pursuant to this section.

25 “(17) If a landlord does not comply with this section:

26 “(a) The tenant is relieved of any liability for damage to the premises caused by conduct that 27 was not deliberate, intentional or grossly negligent and for unpaid rent and may recover from the 28 landlord up to twice the actual damages sustained by the tenant;

29 “(b) A lienholder aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the actual 30 damages sustained by the lienholder. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 31 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph; and

32 “(c) A county tax collector aggrieved by the noncompliance may recover from the landlord the 33 actual damages sustained by the tax collector, if the noncompliance is part of an effort by the 34 landlord to defraud the tax collector. ORS 90.255 does not authorize an award of attorney fees to 35 the prevailing party in any action arising under this paragraph.

36 “(18) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 37 abandoned personal property also apply to any lienholder, except that the lienholder may not sell 38 or remove the dwelling or home unless:

39 “(a) The lienholder has foreclosed the lien on the manufactured dwelling or floating home;

40 “(b) The tenant or a personal representative or designated person described in subsection (20) 41 of this section has waived all rights under this section pursuant to subsection (22) of this section; 42 or

43 “(c) The notice and response periods provided by subsections (6) and (8) of this section have 44 expired.

45 “(19)(a) Except as provided by subsection (20)(d) and (e) of this section, if a lienholder makes a

1 timely response to a notice of abandoned personal property pursuant to subsections (6) and (8) of 2 this section and so requests, a landlord shall enter into a written storage agreement with the 3 lienholder providing that the personal property may not be sold or disposed of by the landlord for 4 up to 12 months. A storage agreement entitles the lienholder to store the personal property on the 5 previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not entitle anyone to occupy the 6 personal property.

7 “(b) The lienholder’s right to a storage agreement arises upon the failure of the tenant or, in 8 the case of a deceased tenant, the personal representative, designated person, heir or devisee to 9 remove or sell the dwelling or home within the allotted time.

10 “(c) To exercise the right to a storage agreement under this subsection, in addition to contacting
11 the landlord with a timely response as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the lienholder 12 must enter into the proposed storage agreement within 60 days after the landlord gives a copy of 13 the agreement to the lienholder. The landlord shall give a copy of the proposed storage agreement
14 to the lienholder in the same manner as provided by subsection (4)(b) of this section. The landlord 15 may include a copy of the proposed storage agreement with the notice of abandoned property re-
16 quired by subsection (4) of this section. A lienholder enters into a storage agreement by signing a
17 copy of the agreement provided by the landlord and personally delivering or mailing the signed copy 18 to the landlord within the 60-day period.

19 “(d) The storage agreement may require, in addition to other provisions agreed to by the land-20 lord and the lienholder, that:

21 “(A) The lienholder make timely periodic payment of all storage charges, as described in sub-22 section (7)(b) of this section, accruing from the commencement of the 45-day period described in 23 subsection (6) of this section. A storage charge may include a utility or service charge, as described 24 in ORS 90.532, if limited to charges for electricity, water, sewer service and natural gas and if in-25 cidental to the storage of personal property. A storage charge may not be due more frequently than 26 monthly;

27 “(B) The lienholder pay a late charge or fee for failure to pay a storage charge by the date re-28 quired in the agreement, if the amount of the late charge is no greater than for late charges imposed 29 on facility tenants;

30 “(C) The lienholder maintain the personal property and the space on which the personal prop-31 erty is stored in a manner consistent with the rights and obligations described in the rental agree-32 ment that the landlord currently provides to tenants as required by ORS 90.510 (4); and 33 “(D) The lienholder repair any defects in the physical condition of the personal property that 34 existed prior to the lienholder entering into the storage agreement, if the defects and necessary re-35 pairs are reasonably described in the storage agreement and, for homes that were first placed on 36 the space within the previous 24 months, the repairs are reasonably consistent with facility stan-37 dards in effect at the time of placement. The lienholder shall have 90 days after entering into the 38 storage agreement to make the repairs. Failure to make the repairs within the allotted time consti-39 tutes a violation of the storage agreement and the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving 40 at least 14 days’ written notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of 41 the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the 42 agreement terminates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without fur-43 ther notice to the lienholder.

44 “(e) Notwithstanding subsection (7)(b) of this section, a landlord may increase the storage 45 charge if the increase is part of a facility-wide rent increase for all facility tenants, the increase is

1 no greater than the increase for other tenants and the landlord gives the lienholder written notice 2 consistent with the requirements of ORS 90.600 (1).

3 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under this subsection, the lienholder has the 4 right to remove or sell the property, subject to the provisions of the lien. Selling the property in-
5 cludes a sale to a purchaser who wishes to leave the property on the rented space and become a 6 tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The landlord may condition approval for occupancy 7 of any purchaser of the property upon payment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

8 “(g)(A) Except as provided in paragraph (d)(D) of this subsection, if the lienholder violates the 9 storage agreement, the landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 90 days’ written 10 notice to the lienholder stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for the termi-11 nation. Unless the lienholder corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement termi-12 nates as provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the 13 lienholder.

14 “(B) After a landlord gives a termination notice pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 15 for failure of the lienholder to pay a storage charge and the lienholder corrects the violation, if the 16 lienholder again violates the storage agreement by failing to pay a subsequent storage charge, the 17 landlord may terminate the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the lienholder
18 stating facts sufficient to notify the lienholder of the reason for termination. Unless the lienholder 19 corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as provided and the land-20 lord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the lienholder.

21 “(C) A lienholder may terminate a storage agreement at any time upon at least 14 days’ written 22 notice to the landlord and may remove the property from the facility if the lienholder has paid all 23 storage charges and other charges as provided in the agreement.

24 “(h) Upon the failure of a lienholder to enter into a storage agreement as provided by this 25 subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree or the lienholder 26 has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this 27 section without further notice to the lienholder.

28 “(20) If the personal property is considered abandoned as a result of the death of a tenant who 29 was the only tenant, this section applies, except as follows:

30 “(a) The provisions of this section regarding the rights and responsibilities of a tenant to the 31 abandoned personal property shall apply to any personal representative named in a will or appointed 32 by a court to act for the deceased tenant or any person designated in writing by the tenant to be 33 contacted by the landlord in the event of the tenant’s death.

34 “(b) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be:

35 “(A) Sent by first class mail to the deceased tenant at the premises; and

36 “(B) Personally delivered or sent by first class mail to any personal representative or designated 37 person if actually known to the landlord.

38 “(c) The notice described in subsection (5) of this section must refer to any personal represen-39 tative or designated person, instead of the deceased tenant, and must incorporate the provisions of 40 this subsection.

41 “(d) If a personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 42 property, such as an heir or devisee, responds by actual notice to a landlord within the 45-day period
43 provided by subsection (6) of this section and so requests, the landlord shall enter into a written 44 storage agreement with the representative or person providing that the personal property may not 45 be sold or disposed of by the landlord for up to 90 days or until conclusion of any probate pro-

1 ceedings, whichever is later. A storage agreement entitles the representative or person to store the 2 personal property on the previously rented space during the term of the agreement, but does not
3 entitle anyone to occupy the personal property. If such an agreement is entered, the landlord may 4 not enter a similar agreement with a lienholder pursuant to subsection (19) of this section until the 5 agreement with the personal representative or designated person ends.

6 “(e) If a personal representative or other person requests that a landlord enter into a storage 7 agreement, subsection (19)(c) to (e) and (g)(C) of this section applies, with the representative or 8 person having the rights and responsibilities of a lienholder with regard to the storage agreement.

9 “(f) During the term of an agreement described under paragraph (d) of this subsection, the rep-
10 resentative or person has the right to remove or sell the property, including a sale to a purchaser 11 or a transfer to an heir or devisee where the purchaser, heir or devisee wishes to leave the property 12 on the rented space and become a tenant, subject to the provisions of ORS 90.680. The landlord also 13 may condition approval for occupancy of any purchaser, heir or devisee of the property upon pay-14 ment of all unpaid storage charges and maintenance costs.

15 “(g) If the representative or person violates the storage agreement, the landlord may terminate 16 the agreement by giving at least 30 days’ written notice to the representative or person stating facts
17 sufficient to notify the representative or person of the reason for the termination. Unless the rep-18 resentative or person corrects the violation within the notice period, the agreement terminates as 19 provided and the landlord may sell or dispose of the property without further notice to the repre-20 sentative or person.

21 “(h) Upon the failure of a representative or person to enter into a storage agreement as pro-22 vided by this subsection or upon termination of an agreement, unless the parties otherwise agree 23 or the representative or person has sold or removed the property, the landlord may sell or dispose 24 of the property pursuant to this section without further notice to the representative or person.

25 “(21) If a governmental agency determines that the condition of personal property abandoned 26 under this section constitutes an extreme health or safety hazard under state or local law and the 27 agency determines that the hazard endangers others in the facility and requires quick removal of 28 the property, the landlord may sell or dispose of the property pursuant to this subsection. The 29 landlord shall comply with all provisions of this section, except as follows:

30 “(a) The date provided in subsection (6) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, personal 31 representative or designated person must contact a landlord to arrange for the disposition of the 32 property must be not less than 15 days after personal delivery or mailing of the notice required by 33 subsection (3) of this section.

34 “(b) The date provided in subsections (8) and (9) of this section by which a tenant, lienholder, 35 personal representative or designated person must remove the property must be not less than seven 36 days after the tenant, lienholder, personal representative or designated person contacts the landlord.

37 “(c) The notice required by subsection (3) of this section must be as provided in subsection (5) 38 of this section, except that:

39 “(A) The dates and deadlines in the notice for contacting the landlord and removing the prop-40 erty must be consistent with this subsection;

41 “(B) The notice must state that a governmental agency has determined that the property con-42 stitutes an extreme health or safety hazard and must be removed quickly; and

43 “(C) The landlord shall attach a copy of the agency’s determination to the notice.

44 “(d) If the tenant, a lienholder or a personal representative or designated person does not re-45 move the property within the time allowed, the landlord or a buyer at a sale by the landlord under

1 subsection (11) of this section shall promptly remove the property from the facility.

2 “(e) A landlord is not required to enter into a storage agreement with a lienholder, personal 3 representative or designated person pursuant to subsection (19) of this section.

4 “(22)(a) A landlord may sell or dispose of a tenant’s abandoned personal property without com-5 plying with the provisions of this section if, after termination of the tenancy or no more than seven 6 days prior to the termination of the tenancy, the following parties so agree in a writing entered into 7 in good faith:

8 “(A) The landlord;

9 “(B) The tenant, or for an abandonment as the result of the death of a tenant who was the only 10 tenant, the personal representative, designated person or other person entitled to possession of the 11 personal property, such as an heir or devisee, as described in subsection (20) of this section; and 12 “(C) Any lienholder.

13 “(b) A landlord may not, as part of a rental agreement, as a condition to approving a sale of 14 property on rented space under ORS 90.680 or in any other manner, require a tenant, a personal 15 representative, a designated person or any lienholder to waive any right provided by this section.

16 “(23) Until personal property is conclusively presumed to be abandoned under subsection (9) of 17 this section, a landlord does not have a lien pursuant to ORS 87.152 for storing the personal prop-
18 erty.

19 “SECTION 35. ORS 90.680 is amended to read:

20 “90.680. (1) A landlord may not deny any manufactured dwelling or floating home space tenant 21 the right to sell a manufactured dwelling or floating home on a rented space or require the tenant 22 to remove the dwelling or home from the space solely on the basis of the sale.

23 “(2) The landlord may not exact a commission or fee for the sale of a manufactured dwelling 24 or floating home on a rented space unless the landlord has acted as agent for the seller pursuant 25 to written contract.

26 “(3) The landlord may not deny the tenant the right to place a ‘for sale’ sign on or in a manu-27 factured dwelling or floating home owned by the tenant. The size, placement and character of such 28 signs shall be subject to reasonable rules of the landlord.

29 “(4) If the prospective purchaser of a manufactured dwelling or floating home desires to leave 30 the dwelling or home on the rented space and become a tenant, the landlord may require in the 31 rental agreement:

32 “(a) Except when a termination or abandonment occurs, that a tenant give not more than 10 33 days’ notice in writing prior to the sale of the dwelling or home on a rented space;

34 “(b) That prior to the sale, the prospective purchaser submit to the landlord a complete and 35 accurate written application for occupancy of the dwelling or home as a tenant after the sale is fi-36 nalized and that a prospective purchaser may not occupy the dwelling or home until after the pro-37 spective purchaser is accepted by the landlord as a tenant;

38 “(c) That a tenant give notice to any lienholder, prospective purchaser or person licensed to sell 39 dwellings or homes of the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (d) of this subsection, the location of 40 all properly functioning smoke alarms and any other rules and regulations of the facility such as 41 those described in ORS 90.510 (5)(b), (f), (h) and (i); and 42 “(d) If the sale is not by a lienholder, that the prospective purchaser pay in full all rents, fees, 43 deposits or charges owed by the tenant as authorized under ORS 90.140 and the rental agreement, 44 prior to the landlord’s acceptance of the prospective purchaser as a tenant.

45 “(5) If a landlord requires a prospective purchaser to submit an application for occupancy as a

1 tenant under subsection (4) of this section, at the time that the landlord gives the prospective pur-2 chaser an application the landlord shall also give the prospective purchaser copies of the statement 3 of policy, the rental agreement and the facility rules and regulations, including any conditions im-
4 posed on a subsequent sale, all as provided by ORS 90.510. The terms of the statement, rental 5 agreement and rules and regulations need not be the same as those in the selling tenant's statement, 6 rental agreement and rules and regulations.

7 “(6) The following apply if a landlord receives an application for tenancy from a prospective 8 purchaser under subsection (4) of this section:

9 “(a) The landlord shall accept or reject the prospective purchaser's application within seven 10 days following the day the landlord receives a complete and accurate written application. An ap-11 plication is not complete until the prospective purchaser pays any required applicant screening 12 charge and provides the landlord with all information and documentation, including any financial 13 data and references, required by the landlord pursuant to ORS 90.510 (5)(h). The landlord and the 14 prospective purchaser may agree to a longer time period for the landlord to evaluate the prospective 15 purchaser's application or to allow the prospective purchaser to address any failure to meet the 16 landlord's screening or admission criteria. If a tenant has not previously given the landlord the 10 17 days' notice required under subsection (4)(a) of this section, the period provided for the landlord to 18 accept or reject a complete and accurate written application is extended to 10 days.

19 “(b) The landlord may not unreasonably reject a prospective purchaser as a tenant. Reasonable 20 cause for rejection includes, but is not limited to, failure of the prospective purchaser to meet the 21 landlord's conditions for approval as provided in ORS 90.510 (5)(h) or failure of the prospective 22 purchaser's references to respond to the landlord's timely request for verification within the time 23 allowed for acceptance or rejection under paragraph (a) of this subsection. Except as provided in 24 paragraph (c) of this subsection, the landlord shall furnish to the seller and purchaser a written 25 statement of the reasons for the rejection.

26 “(c) If a rejection under paragraph (b) of this subsection is based upon a consumer report, as 27 defined in 15 U.S.C. 1681a for purposes of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, the landlord may 28 not disclose the contents of the report to anyone other than the purchaser. The landlord shall dis-29 close to the seller in writing that the rejection is based upon information contained within a con-30 sumer report and that the landlord may not disclose the information within the report.

31 “(7) The following apply if a landlord does not require a prospective purchaser to submit an 32 application for occupancy as a tenant under subsection (4) of this section or if the landlord does not 33 accept or reject the prospective purchaser as a tenant within the time required under subsection (6) 34 of this section:

35 “(a) The landlord waives any right to bring an action against the tenant under the rental 36 agreement for breach of the landlord's right to establish conditions upon and approve a prospective 37 purchaser of the tenant's dwelling or home;

38 “(b) The prospective purchaser, upon completion of the sale, may occupy the dwelling or home 39 as a tenant under the same conditions and terms as the tenant who sold the dwelling or home; and 40 “(c) If the prospective purchaser becomes a new tenant, the landlord may impose conditions or 41 terms on the tenancy that are inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the seller's rental 42 agreement only if the new tenant agrees in writing.

43 “(8) A landlord may not, because of the age, size, style or original construction material of the 44 dwelling or home or because the dwelling or home was built prior to adoption of the National 45 Manufactured Housing Construction and Safety Standards Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5403), in compli-

1 ance with the standards of that Act in effect at that time or in compliance with the state building
2 code as defined in ORS 455.010:

3 “(a) Reject an application for tenancy from a prospective purchaser of an existing dwelling or 4 home on a rented space within a facility; or

5 “(b) Require a prospective purchaser of an existing dwelling or home on a rented space within 6 a facility to remove the dwelling or home from the rented space.

7 “(9) A tenant who has received a notice pursuant to ORS 90.632 may sell the tenant’s dwelling 8 or home in compliance with this section during the notice period. The tenant shall provide a pro-9 spective purchaser with a copy of any outstanding notice given pursuant to ORS 90.632 prior to a 10 sale. The landlord may also give any prospective purchaser a copy of any such notice. The landlord 11 may require as a condition of tenancy that a prospective purchaser who desires to leave the dwell-12 ing or home on the rented space and become a tenant must comply with the notice within the notice 13 period consistent with ORS 90.632. If the tenancy has been terminated pursuant to ORS 90.632, or 14 the notice period provided in ORS 90.632 has expired without a correction of cause or extension of 15 time to correct, a prospective purchaser does not have a right to leave the dwelling or home on the 16 rented space and become a tenant.

17 “(10) Except as provided by subsection (9) of this section, after a tenancy has ended and during 18 the period provided by ORS 90.675 (6) and (8), a former tenant retains the right to sell the tenant’s 19 dwelling or home to a purchaser who wishes to leave the dwelling or home on the rented space and 20 become a tenant as provided by this section, if the former tenant makes timely periodic payment of 21 all storage charges as provided by ORS 90.675 (7)(b), maintains the dwelling or home and the rented 22 space on which it is stored and enters the premises only with the written permission of the landlord.
23 Payment of the storage charges or maintenance of the dwelling or home and the space does not 24 create or reinstate a tenancy or create a waiver pursuant to [ORS 90.415] section 27 or 29 of this 25 2007 Act. A former tenant may not enter the premises without the written permission of the land-26 lord, including entry to maintain the dwelling or home or the space or to facilitate a sale.

27 “SECTION 36. ORS 105.120 is amended to read:

28 “105.120. (1) As used in this section, ‘rent’ does not include funds paid under the United 29 States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f).

30 “[(1)] (2) Except as provided in subsection [(2)] (3) of this section, an action for the recovery 31 of the possession of the premises may be maintained in cases provided in ORS 105.115 (1)(b), when 32 the notice to terminate the tenancy or to quit has been served upon the tenant or person in pos-33 session in the manner prescribed by ORS 91.110 and for the period prescribed by ORS 91.060 to 34 91.080 before the commencement of the action, unless the leasing or occupation is for the purpose 35 of farming or agriculture, in which case the notice must be served for a period of 90 days before the 36 commencement of the action. Any person entering into the possession of real estate under written 37 lease as the tenant of another may, by the terms of the lease, waive the giving of any notice re-38 quired by this subsection.

39 “[(2)] (3) An action for the recovery of the possession of a dwelling unit to which ORS chapter 40 90 applies may be maintained in situations described in ORS 105.115 (2) when the notice to terminate 41 the tenancy or to quit has been served by the tenant upon the landlord or by the landlord upon the 42 tenant or person in possession in the manner prescribed by ORS 90.155.

43 “[(3)] (4) Except when a tenancy involves a dwelling unit subject to ORS chapter 90, the service 44 of a notice to quit upon a tenant or person in possession does not authorize an action to be main-45 tained against the tenant or person in possession for the possession of premises before the expiration

1 of any period for which the tenant or person has paid the rent of the premises in advance.

2 “[(4)] (5) An action to recover possession of a dwelling unit subject to ORS chapter 90 may not 3 be brought or filed against a tenant or person in possession based upon a notice under ORS 90.427 4 to terminate the tenancy until after the expiration of any period for which the tenant or person has 5 paid the rent of the dwelling unit in advance, unless:

6 “(a) The only other money paid by the tenant was collected as a last month’s rent deposit as 7 provided under ORS 90.300; or

8 “(b) The only unused rent was paid by the tenant for a rental period extending beyond the ter-9 mination date specified in a valid outstanding notice to terminate the tenancy and the landlord re-10 funded the unused rent within six days after receipt by delivering the unused rent to the tenant in 11 person or by first class mailing.

12 “SECTION 37. ORS 90.300 is amended to read:

13 “90.300. (1) As used in this section, ‘security deposit’ includes any last month’s rent deposit.

14 “(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a landlord may require the payment of a se-15 curity deposit. A security deposit or prepaid rent shall be held by the landlord for the tenant who 16 is a party to the rental agreement. The claim of a tenant to the security deposit or prepaid rent 17 shall be prior to the claim of any creditor of the landlord, including a trustee in bankruptcy. The 18 holder of the landlord’s interest in the premises at the time of termination of the tenancy is re-19 sponsible to the tenant for any security deposit or prepaid rent and is bound by this section.

20 “(3)(a) A landlord may not change the rental agreement to require the payment of a new or in-21 creased security deposit during the first year after the tenancy has begun, except that an additional 22 deposit may be required if the landlord and tenant agree to modify the terms and conditions of the 23 rental agreement to permit a pet or for other cause and the additional deposit relates to that mod-24 ification. This paragraph does not prevent the collection of a security deposit that was provided for 25 under an initial rental agreement but remained unpaid at the time the tenancy began.

26 “(b) If a landlord requires a new or increased security deposit after the first year of the tenancy, 27 the landlord shall allow the tenant at least three months to pay that deposit.

28 “(4) The landlord may claim all or part of the security deposit only if the security deposit was 29 made for any or all of the purposes provided by subsection (5) of this section.

30 “(5) The landlord may claim from the security deposit only the amount reasonably necessary:

31 “(a) To remedy the tenant’s defaults in the performance of the rental agreement including, but 32 not limited to, unpaid rent; and 33 “(b) To repair damages to the premises caused by the tenant, not including ordinary wear and 34 tear.

35 “(6) A landlord may not require that a security deposit or prepaid rent be required or forfeited 36 to the landlord upon the failure of the tenant to maintain a tenancy for a minimum number of 37 months in a month-to-month tenancy.

38 “(7) Any last month’s rent deposit must be applied to the rent due for the last month of the 39 tenancy:

40 “(a) Upon either the landlord or tenant giving to the other a notice of termination, pursuant to 41 this chapter, other than a notice of termination under ORS 90.394;

42 “(b) Upon agreement by the landlord and tenant to terminate the tenancy; or 43 “(c) Upon termination pursuant to the provisions of a written rental agreement for a term 44 tenancy.

45 “(8) Any portion of a last month’s rent deposit not applied as provided under subsection (7) of 1 this section shall be accounted for and refunded as provided under subsections (10) to (12) of this 2 section. Unless the tenant and landlord agree otherwise, a last month's rent deposit shall not be 3 applied to rent due for any period other than the last month of the tenancy. A last month's rent 4 deposit shall not operate to limit the amount of rent charged unless a written rental agreement 5 provides otherwise.

6 "(9) Upon termination of the tenancy, a landlord shall account for and refund to the tenant the 7 unused balance of any prepaid rent not previously refunded to the tenant as required by ORS 90.380 8 and 105.120 [(4)(b)] (5)(b) or any other provision of this chapter, in the same manner as required for 9 security deposits by this section. The landlord may claim from the remaining prepaid rent only the 10 amount reasonably necessary to pay the tenant's unpaid rent.

11 "(10) In order to claim all or part of any prepaid rent or security deposit, within 31 days after 12 the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession the landlord shall give to the tenant a 13 written accounting that states specifically the basis or bases of the claim. The landlord shall give 14 a separate accounting for security deposits and for prepaid rent.

15 "(11) The security deposit or prepaid rent or portion thereof not claimed in the manner provided 16 by subsections (9) and (10) of this section shall be returned to the tenant not later than 31 days after 17 the termination of the tenancy and delivery of possession to the landlord.

18 "(12) The landlord shall give the written accounting as required by subsection (10) of this sec-19 tion or shall return the security deposit or prepaid rent as required by subsection (11) of this section 20 by personal delivery or by first class mail.

21 "(13) If a security deposit or prepaid rent secures a tenancy for a space for a tenant owned and 22 occupied manufactured dwelling or floating home, whether or not in a facility, and the dwelling or 23 home is abandoned as described in ORS 90.425 (2) or 90.675 (2), the 31-day period described in sub-24 subsections (10) and (11) of this section commences on the earliest of:

25 "(a) Waiver of the abandoned property process under ORS 90.425 (25) or 90.675 (22); 26 "(b) Removal of the manufactured dwelling or floating home from the rented space; 27 "(c) Destruction or other disposition of the manufactured dwelling or floating home under ORS 28 90.425 (10)(b) or 90.675 (10)(b); or 29 "(d) Sale of the manufactured dwelling or floating home pursuant to ORS 90.425 (10)(a) or 90.675 30 (10)(a).

31 "(14) If the landlord fails to comply with subsection (11) of this section or if the landlord in bad 32 faith fails to return all or any portion of any prepaid rent or security deposit due to the tenant 33 under this chapter or the rental agreement, the tenant may recover the money due in an amount 34 equal to twice the amount:

35 "(a) Withheld without a written accounting under subsection (10) of this section; or 36 "(b) Withheld in bad faith.

37 "(15)(a) A security deposit or prepaid rent in the possession of the landlord is not garnishable 38 property, as provided in ORS 18.618.

39 "(b) If a security deposit or prepaid rent is delivered to a garnishor in violation of ORS 18.618 40 (2), the landlord that delivered the security deposit or prepaid rent to the garnishor shall allow the 41 tenant at least 30 days after a copy of the garnishee response required by ORS 18.680 is delivered 42 to the tenant under ORS 18.690 to restore the security deposit or prepaid rent. If the tenant fails 43 to restore a security deposit or prepaid rent under the provisions of this paragraph before the 44 tenancy terminates, and the landlord retains no security deposit or prepaid rent from the tenant 45 after the garnishment, the landlord is not required to refund or account for the security deposit or 1 prepaid rent under subsection (9) of this section.

2 “(16) This section does not preclude the landlord or tenant from recovering other damages under 3 this chapter.
