

Senate Bill 556

Sponsored by Senator BEYER, Representative GILLIAM (at the request of Russian-American Builders' Association)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Amends procedural deadlines for appeal of occupational safety violations.
Extends time for payment of civil penalty before order assessing penalty may be recorded as judgment.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

2 Relating to occupational safety violation procedures; creating new provisions; and amending ORS
3 654.078 and 654.086.

4 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

5 SECTION 1. ORS 654.078 is amended to read:

6 654.078. (1) An employer may contest a citation, a proposed assessment of civil penalty and the 7 period of time fixed for correction of a violation, or any of these, by filing with the Department of 8 Consumer and Business Services, within [20] 60 days after receipt of the citation, notice or order,
9 a written request for a hearing before the Workers' Compensation Board. Such a request need not 10 be in any particular form, but shall specify the alleged violation that is contested and the grounds
11 upon which the employer considers the citation or proposed penalty or correction period unjust or 12 unlawful.

13 (2) An affected employee or representative of such employees may contest the time fixed for 14 correction of a violation by filing with the department, within [20] 60 days after the receipt by the 15 employer of the citation, notice or order which fixes such time for correction, a written request for 16 a hearing before the board. Such a request need not be in any particular form, but shall specify the 17 violation in question and the grounds upon which the employee considers the correction period to 18 be unreasonable.

19 (3) A hearing on any question relating to the validity of a citation or the proposed civil penalty
20 to be assessed therefor shall not be granted unless a request for hearing is filed by the employer
21 within the period specified in subsection (1) of this section. If a request for hearing is not so filed,
22 the citation and the assessment of penalty as proposed shall be a final order of the department and 23 shall not be subject to review by any agency or court.

24 (4) A hearing relating to the reasonableness of the time prescribed for the correction of a vio-
25 lation shall not be granted, except for good cause shown, unless a request for hearing is filed within 26 the period specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. If a request for hearing is not so filed
27 the time fixed for correction of the violation shall be a final order of the department and shall not 28 be subject to review by any agency or court.

29 (5) Where an employer contests, in good faith and not solely for delay or avoidance of penalties,
30 the period of time fixed for correction of a nonserious violation, such period of time shall not run
31 between the date the request for hearing is filed and the date the order of the department becomes

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 final by operation of law or on appeal.

2 (6) Where an employer or employee contests the period of time fixed for correction of a serious
3 violation, any hearing on that issue shall be conducted as soon as possible and shall take precedence
4 over other hearings conducted by the board under the provisions of ORS 654.001 to 654.295 and
5 654.750 to 654.780.

6 (7) Where informal disposition of a contested case is made by stipulation, agreed settlement or 7 a consent order, such stipulation, settlement or order shall not be pleaded or admissible in evidence
8 as an admission or confession in any criminal prosecution or in any other civil proceeding that may 9 be instituted against the employer, except in the case of a civil proceeding brought to enforce such 10 stipulation, settlement or order.

11 SECTION 2. ORS 654.086 is amended to read:

12 654.086. (1) The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services or the author-
13 ized representative of the director is hereby granted the authority to assess civil penalties as pro-
14 vided by this section for violation of the requirements of any state occupational safety or health
15 statute or the lawful rules, standards or orders adopted thereunder as follows:

16 (a) Any employer who receives a citation for a serious violation of such requirements shall be 17 assessed a civil penalty of not less than $50 and not more than $7,000 for each such violation.

18 (b) Any employer who receives a citation for a violation of such requirements, and such vio-
19 lation is specifically determined not to be of a serious nature, may be assessed a civil penalty of not 20 more than $7,000 for each such violation.

21 (c) Any employer who willfully or repeatedly violates such requirements may be assessed a civil 22 penalty of not more than $70,000 for each violation, but not less than $5,000 for a willful violation.

23 (d) Any employer who receives a citation, as provided in ORS 654.071 (4), for failure to correct
24 a violation may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than $7,000 for each day during which such 25 failure or violation continues.

26 (e) Any employer who knowingly makes any false statement, representation or certification re-
27 garding the correction of a violation shall be assessed a civil penalty of not less than $100 and not 28 more than $2,500.

29 (f) Any employer who violates any of the posting requirements, as prescribed under the pro-
30 visions of ORS 654.001 to 654.295 and 654.750 to 654.780, may be assessed a civil penalty of not more
31 than $1,000 for each violation.

32 (g) Any person who violates the provisions of ORS 654.082 (2) or (3) shall be assessed a civil 33 penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $5,000 for each such violation.

34 (h) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subsection, an employer who substantially fails to 35 comply with ORS 654.174 (1) shall be assessed a civil penalty of not less than $250 and not more
36 than $2,500 for each such violation.

37 (i) Any insurer or self-insured employer who violates any provision of ORS 654.097, or any rule
38 or order carrying out ORS 654.097, shall be assessed a civil penalty of not more than $2,000 for each
39 violation or $10,000 in the aggregate for all violations within any three-month period. Each violation,
40 or each day a violation continues, shall be considered a separate offense.

41 (2) For the purposes of ORS 654.001 to 654.295 and 654.750 to 654.780 a serious violation exists
42 in a place of employment if there is a substantial probability that death or serious physical harm
43 could result from a condition which exists, or from one or more practices, means, methods, oper-
44 ations or processes which have been adopted or are in use, in such place of employment unless the 45 employer did not, and could not with the exercise of reasonable diligence, know of the presence of

1 the violation.

2 (3) When an order assessing a civil penalty becomes final by operation of law or on appeal,
3 unless the amount of penalty is paid within [10] 180 days after the order becomes final, it constitutes
4 a judgment and may be recorded with the county clerk in any county of this state. The clerk shall
5 thereupon record the name of the person incurring the penalty and the amount of the penalty in the 6 County Clerk Lien Record. The penalty provided in the order so recorded shall become a lien upon 7 the title to any interest in property owned by the person against whom the order is entered, and
8 execution may be issued upon the order in the same manner as execution upon a judgment of a court
9 of record.

10 (4) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, civil penalties collected under ORS
11 654.001 to 654.295 and 654.750 to 654.780 shall be paid into the Consumer and Business Services
12 Fund.

13 (5) Civil penalties assessed under this section for a violation of ORS 658.750 shall be credited 14 to the Farmworker Housing Development Account of the Oregon Housing Fund.

15 SECTION 3. (1) The amendments to ORS 654.078 by section 1 of this 2007 Act apply to 16 citations, notices and orders received on or after the effective date of this 2007 Act.

17 (2) The amendments to ORS 654.086 by section 2 of this 2007 Act apply to orders assessing
18 civil penalties issued on or after the effective date of this 2007 Act.
