WHAT THE MEASURE DOES: Changes the name of the “Community Action Directors of Oregon” to “Community Action Partnership of Oregon.” Directs the Housing and Community Services Department (HCSD) to provide resources pursuant to ORS 409.750 for training and technical assistance to the partnership.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Need for name change

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: The Community Action Directors of Oregon advise the Housing and Community Services Department (HCSD) and the State Housing Council on community services programs. The purpose of the name change is to align this group’s name with similar organizations across the country. The national organization, Community Action Partnership, oversees a campaign to elevate the profile of all the states’ similar programs.

In addition to the name change, the measure directs the state to support groups who help eliminate poverty in accordance with statutory goals
