WHAT THE MEASURE DOES: Expresses support for findings of report issued by Federal Forestlands Advisory Committee. Expresses support for effort by Governor to form group to oversee implementation of report.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Frustration with federal management of forests
- Local collaborative process for decision making
- Forestlands Advisory Committee comprised of diverse group of stakeholders

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: The Federal Forestlands Advisory Committee, appointed by the Oregon Board of Forestry, was charged with developing a document that articulated the state's vision for how forests should be managed to contribute to the sustainability of Oregon's overall forestland base. Some 58 percent of Oregon's forests are federally-owned.
