 37 applies to the claim for noneconomic damages.

38 (2) For the purpose of the limitation on liability established by this section, a person is conclu-
 39 sively presumed to have been in violation of ORS 806.010 or 813.010 if the person is convicted in a
 40 criminal proceeding of one or both of those offenses. If the person has not been convicted of vio-

9 (3) of this section shall remain in effect until the conclusion of the criminal proceedings.

10 (5) The limitation on liability established by this section does not apply if:

11 (a) The defendant in the civil action was also in violation of ORS 806.010 or 813.010 at the time
12 the act or omission causing the death or injury occurred;

16 the time the act or omission causing the death or injury occurred; or

17 (d) The defendant was engaged in conduct that would constitute a felony at the time the act or 18 omission causing the death or injury occurred.

19 (6) The limitation on liability established by this section based on a violation of ORS 806.010
20 does not apply if the plaintiff in the civil action was insured under a motor vehicle liability insur-

22 (5) Any candidate or political committee aggrieved by a violation of this section shall have a
 23 right of action against the person alleged to have committed the violation. The aggrieved party may

 45 false statement reversed the outcome of the election. If the finder of fact finds by clear and con-

2   be deprived of the nomination or election and the nomination or office shall be declared vacant.

3       (9) An action under this section must be filed not later than the 30th day after the election re-

16   person. As used in this section, "total amount of benefits" means the amount of money recovered
