2 6 and insert:

3 “SECTION 1. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 136.557, 136.563, 136.565 or 136.567 and subject to 4 ORS 136.580 (2), criminal process authorizing or commanding the seizure or production of 5 papers, documents, records or other things may be issued to a recipient, regardless of 6 whether the recipient or the papers, documents, records or things are located within this 7 state, if:

8 “(a) The criminal matter is triable in Oregon under ORS 131.205 to 131.235; and 9 “(b) The exercise of jurisdiction over the recipient is not inconsistent with the Constitu- 10 tion of this state or the Constitution of the United States.

11 “(2) Criminal process that authorizes or commands the seizure or production of papers, 12 documents, records or other things from a recipient may be served by:

13 “(a) Delivering a copy to the recipient personally; or 14 “(b) Sending a copy by:

15 “(A) Certified or registered mail, return receipt requested;

16 “(B) Express mail; or

17 “(C) Facsimile or electronic transmission, if the copy is sent in a manner that provides 18 proof of delivery.

19 “(3) When criminal process is served under subsection (2) of this section, the recipient 20 shall provide the applicant, or if the process is described in ORS 136.447 or 136.580 (2), the 21 court, with all of the papers, documents, records or other things described in the criminal 22 process within 20 business days from the date the criminal process is received, unless:

23 “(a) The court, for good cause shown, includes in the process a requirement for pro- 24 duction within a period of time that is less than 20 business days;

25 “(b) The court, for good cause shown, extends the time for production to a period of time 26 that is more than 20 business days; or

27 “(c) The applicant consents to a request from the recipient for additional time to comply 28 with the process.

29 “(4) A recipient who seeks to quash or otherwise challenge the criminal process must 30 seek relief from the court that issued the process within the time required for production.
31 The court shall hear and decide the issue as soon as practicable. The consent of the applicant 32 to additional time to comply with the process under subsection (3)(c) of this section does not 33 extend the date by which a recipient must seek relief under this subsection.

34 “(5) Criminal process issued under this section must contain a notice on the first page 35 of the document that indicates:

1       “(a) That the process was issued under this section; 2       “(b) The date before which the recipient must respond to the process; and 3       “(c) That the deadline for seeking relief is not altered by the applicant’s consent to ad-4       ditional time to respond to the process.
5       “(6) Upon order of the court or the written request of the applicant, the recipient of the 6       process shall verify the authenticity of the papers, documents, records or other things that 7       the recipient produces in response to the criminal process by providing an affidavit or dec-8       laration that includes contact information for the custodian or other qualified person com-9       pleting the document and attests to the nature of the papers, documents, records or other 10      things. An affidavit or declaration that complies with this subsection may fulfill the re-11      quirements of ORS 40.460 (6), 40.505 and 132.320.
12      “(7) A party that intends to offer a paper, document, record or other thing into evidence 13      under this section must file written notice of that intention with the court and must disclose 14      the affidavit or declaration sufficiently in advance of offering the paper, document, record 15      or other thing into evidence to provide the adverse party with an opportunity to challenge 16      the affidavit or declaration and to have that challenge determined without prejudice to the 17      ability of the moving party to produce the custodian or other qualified person at trial. A 18      motion opposing admission of the paper, document, record or other thing into evidence must 19      be filed and determined by the court before trial and with sufficient time to allow the party 20      offering the paper, document, record or other thing, if the motion is granted, to produce the 21      custodian of the record or other qualified person at trial, without creating a hardship on the 22      party or the custodian or other qualified person.
23      “(8) Failure by a party that receives notice under subsection (7) of this section to timely 24      file a motion opposing admission of the paper, document, record or other thing constitutes 25      a waiver of objection to the admission of the evidence on the basis of the insufficiency of the 26      affidavit or declaration unless the court finds good cause to grant relief from the waiver.
27      If the court grants relief from the waiver, the court shall order the trial continued upon the 28      request of the proponent of the evidence and allow the proponent sufficient time to arrange 29      for the necessary witness to appear.
30      “(9) A recipient of criminal process under this section or any individual that responds to 31      the process is immune from civil and criminal liability for complying with the process and 32      for any failure to provide notice of any disclosure to a person who is the subject of, or 33      identified in, the disclosure.
34      “(10) Nothing in this section limits the authority of a court to issue criminal process 35      under any other provision of law or prohibits a party from calling the custodian of the evi-36      dence or other qualified person to testify regarding the evidence.
37      “(11) As used in this section:
38      “(a) ‘Applicant’ means:
39      “(A) A police officer or district attorney who applies for a search warrant or other court 40      order or seeks to issue a subpoena under this section; or 41      “(B) A defense attorney who applies for a court order or seeks to issue a subpoena under 42      this section.
43      “(b) ‘Criminal process’ means a subpoena, search warrant or other court order.
44      “(c) ‘Declaration’ has the meaning given that term in ORCP 1 E.
45      “(d) ‘Defense attorney’ means an attorney of record for a person charged with a crime

1 who is seeking the issuance of criminal process for the defense of the criminal case.

2 “(e) ‘Recipient’ means a business entity or nonprofit entity that has conducted business

7 A police officer charged with its execution may be accompanied by such other persons as may be 8 reasonably necessary for the successful execution of the warrant with all practicable safety.

9 “(2) The executing officer shall, before entering the premises, give appropriate notice of the 10 identity, authority and purpose of the officer to the person to be searched, or to the person in ap- 11 parent control of the premises to be searched, as the case may be.

12 “(3) Except as provided in ORS 133.619, before undertaking any search or seizure pursuant to 13 the warrant, the executing officer shall read and give a copy of the warrant to the person to be 14 searched, or to the person in apparent control of the premises to be searched. If the premises are 15 unoccupied or there is no one in apparent control, the officer shall leave a copy of the warrant 16 suitably affixed to the premises.

17 “SECTION 3. ORS 136.595 is amended to read:

18 “136.595. (1) Except as provided in ORS 136.447 and section 1 of this 2009 Act and [subsections 19 (2) and (3)] subsection (2) of this section, a subpoena is served by delivering a copy to the witness 20 personally. Proof of the service is made in the same manner as in the service of a summons.

21 “(2)(a) Every law enforcement agency shall designate an individual or individuals upon whom 22 service of subpoena may be made. At least one of the designated individuals shall be available dur-
23 ing normal business hours. In the absence of the designated individuals, service of subpoena pursu- 24 ant to paragraph (b) of this subsection may be made upon the officer in charge of the law 25 enforcement agency.

26 “(b) If a peace officer’s attendance at trial is required as a result of employment as a peace of- 27 ficer, a subpoena may be served on the peace officer by delivering a copy personally to the officer 28 or to one of the individuals designated by the agency that employs the officer not later than 10 days
29 prior to the date attendance is sought. A subpoena may be served in this manner only if the officer 30 is currently employed as a peace officer and is present within the state at the time of service.

31 “(c) When a subpoena has been served as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the law 32 enforcement agency shall make a good faith effort to actually notify the officer whose attendance 33 is sought of the date, time and location of the court appearance. If the officer cannot be notified, 34 the law enforcement agency shall contact the court and a continuance may be granted to allow the 35 officer to be personally served.

36 “(d) As used in this subsection, ‘law enforcement agency’ means the Oregon State Police, a

39 be served on a corporation or limited partnership in the manner provided by ORCP 7 D(3) for the 40 service of a summons.]

41 “[(4)] (3) When a subpoena has been served as provided in section 1 of this 2009 Act or sub- 42 section (1)[,] or (2) [or (3)] of this section and, subsequent to service, the date on, or the time at,
43 which the person subpoenaed is to appear has changed, a new subpoena is not required to be served 44 if:

45 “(a) The subpoena is continued orally in open court in the presence of the person subpoenaed;

1 or

2 “(b) The party who issued the original subpoena notifies the person subpoenaed of the change 3 by first class mail and by:

4 “(A) Certified or registered mail, return receipt requested; or 5 “(B) Express mail.

6 “SECTION 4. ORS 131.588 is amended to read:

7 “131.588. (1) If no financial institution has filed the affidavit described in ORS 131.579 (1), and 8 if the court has failed to uphold the claim or affidavit of any other person claiming an interest in 9 the property, the effect of the judgment is that:

10 “(a) Title to the property passes to the seizing agency free of any interest or encumbrance 11 thereon in favor of any person who has been given notice;

12 “(b) The seizing agency may transfer good and sufficient title to any subsequent purchaser or 13 transferee, and all courts, the state and the departments and agencies of this state, and any political 14 subdivision shall recognize the title. In the case of real property, the seizing agency shall warrant 15 the title against constitutional defect. A warranty under this paragraph is limited to the purchase 16 price of the real property; and 17 “(c) Any department, agency or officer of this state or any political subdivision whose official 18 functions include the issuance of certificates or other evidence of title is immune from civil or 19 criminal liability when such issuance is pursuant to a judgment of criminal forfeiture.

20 “(2) If an affidavit is filed by a financial institution under ORS 131.579 (1), or if a person files 21 an affidavit under ORS 131.579 (2):

22 “(a) The court shall foreclose all security interests, liens and vendor’s interests of financial in-23 stitutions and claimants as to which the court determines that there is a legal or equitable basis for 24 foreclosure; and 25 “(b) All other interests applicable to the property that are not foreclosed or otherwise elimi-26 nated through a judgment of foreclosure, if and to the extent that they are valid and subsisting, 27 remain in effect and the property remains subject to them upon completion of the criminal forfeiture 28 proceeding.

29 “(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a financial institution or other person has 30 filed an affidavit described in ORS 131.579, or if the court has upheld the claim of any claimant, then 31 as to each item of property seized:

32 “(a) If the court has determined that the property should not be forfeited and has not foreclosed 33 the security interests, liens or other interests covering the property, the court shall render judgment 34 in favor of the owner of the property, the property must be returned to the owner and all security 35 interests, liens and other interests applicable to the property remain in effect as though the property 36 had never been seized. Upon the return of the property to the owner, the seizing agency shall pay 37 all costs and expenses relating to towing and storage of the property and shall cause to be dis-38 charged any possessory chattel liens on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have 39 attached to the property since the seizure.

40 “(b) If the court has determined that the property should not be forfeited and has foreclosed one 41 or more interests covering the property, including security interests or liens covering the property 42 or contracts for the transfer or conveyance of the property, the seizing agency shall pay all costs 43 and expenses relating to towing and storage of the property and shall cause to be discharged any 44 possessory chattel liens on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to 45 the property since the seizure, and the court shall order the property sold pursuant to a sheriff’s

1 sale or other sale authorized by the court within such time as may be prescribed by the court fol-2 lowing entry of the judgment. If any interests covering the property have not been foreclosed, in-3 cluding any liens or security interests of a claimant whose claim has been upheld, or of a financial 4 institution that has filed the affidavit described in ORS 131.579, the property must be sold subject 5 to those interests. The judgment shall order the proceeds of the sale applied in the following order:

6 “(A) To the payment of the costs of the sale;

7 “(B) To the satisfaction of the foreclosed liens, security interests and contracts in order of their 8 priority; and

9 “(C) The excess, if any, to the owner of the property.

10 “(c) If the court has determined that the property should be forfeited and has foreclosed one or 11 more security interests, liens, contracts or other interests covering the property, the seizing agency 12 shall pay all costs and expenses relating to towing and storage of the property and shall cause to 13 be discharged any possessory chattel liens on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that 14 have attached to the property since the seizure, and the court shall order the property sold pursuant 15 to a sheriff’s sale or other sale authorized by the court. If any interest in the property was claimed 16 by a financial institution or other claimant and the interest was upheld but not foreclosed, the 17 property must be sold subject to the interest. The sale of the property must be held within such time 18 as may be prescribed by the court following entry of the judgment. The judgment shall also order 19 the proceeds of such sale applied in the following order:

20 “(A) To the payment of the costs of the sale;

21 “(B) To the satisfaction of the foreclosed liens, security interests and contracts in the order of 22 their priority; and 23 “(C) The excess, if any, to the seizing agency to be disposed of as provided in ORS 131.594 or 24 131.597.

25 “(d) If the court has determined that the property should be forfeited and has not foreclosed the 26 interests of any party in the property, the seizing agency shall pay all costs and expenses relating 27 to towing and storage of the property and shall cause to be discharged any possessory chattel liens 28 on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that have attached to the property since the 29 seizure. The court shall enter a judgment awarding the property to the seizing agency, subject to 30 the interests of any claimants whose claims or affidavits were upheld by the court, and subject to 31 the interests of any financial institutions that filed affidavits under ORS 131.579 (1), that remain in 32 full force and effect.

33 “(4) Upon motion of the state, the court may include in the judgment of criminal forfeiture 34 an order that directs the seizing agency to distribute to the victim of the crime of conviction a 35 portion of any proceeds from property received by the seizing agency if[.]

36 “[a] The crime of conviction was a person felony or person Class A misdemeanor as those terms 37 are defined by rule of the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission; and]

38 “[b] the court included an order of restitution in the criminal judgment.

39 “(5) The seizing agency is not liable to any person as a consequence of obedience to a judgment 40 directing conveyance to a financial institution.

41 “(6) The forfeiture counsel shall send a copy of the judgment to the Asset Forfeiture Oversight 42 Advisory Committee.

43 “(7)(a) On entry of judgment for a claimant in any proceeding to forfeit property under ORS 44 131.550 to 131.600, unless the court has foreclosed one or more security interests, liens or other in-45 terests covering the property, the property or interest in property must be returned or conveyed

1 immediately to the claimant designated by the court.

2 “(b) If it appears that there was reasonable suspicion that the property was subject to criminal 3 forfeiture, the court shall cause a finding to be entered and no claimant or financial institution is 4 entitled to damages nor is the person who made the seizure, the seizing agency or forfeiture counsel 5 liable to suit or judgment on account of the seizure or action. An order directing seizure issued 6 under ORS 131.561 constitutes a finding of reasonable suspicion that the property was subject to 7 criminal forfeiture.

8 “(8) Nothing in this section prevents a claimant or financial institution from obtaining any de-9 ficiency to which the claimant or financial institution would otherwise be entitled.

10 “(9) Nothing in this section or in ORS 131.564 prevents a seizing agency from entering into an 11 agreement with a claimant or other person for the reimbursement of the seizing agency for the costs 12 and expenses relating to towing and storage of property or the cost of discharging any possessory 13 chattel lien on the property arising under ORS 87.152 to 87.162 that attached to the property in the 14 period between the seizure of the property and the release or criminal forfeiture of the property.

15 “SECTION 5. This 2009 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public 16 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2009 Act takes effect 17 on its passage.”
