6 “(1) Communications within a public body or between public bodies of an advisory nature to the 7 extent that they cover other than purely factual materials and are preliminary to any final agency
8 determination of policy or action. This exemption shall not apply unless the public body shows that 9 in the particular instance the public interest in encouraging frank communication between officials 10 and employees of public bodies clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

11 “(2) Information of a personal nature such as but not limited to that kept in a personal, medical 12 or similar file, if public disclosure would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the 13 public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The 14 party seeking disclosure shall have the burden of showing that public disclosure would not consti-15 tute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.

16 “(3) Public body employee or volunteer addresses, Social Security numbers, dates of birth and 17 telephone numbers contained in personnel records maintained by the public body that is the em-
18 ployer or the recipient of volunteer services. This exemption:

22 terms of ORS 192.445;

23 “(b) Does not apply to employees or volunteers to the extent that the party seeking disclosure 24 shows by clear and convincing evidence that the public interest requires disclosure in a particular 25 instance;

26 “(c) Does not apply to a substitute teacher as defined in ORS 342.815 when requested by a

29 “(4) Information submitted to a public body in confidence and not otherwise required by law to 30 be submitted, where such information should reasonably be considered confidential, the public body 31 has obliged itself in good faith not to disclose the information, and when the public interest would 32 suffer by the disclosure.

33 “(5) Information or records of the Department of Corrections, including the State Board of 34 Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, to the extent that disclosure would interfere with the rehabili-

1 out of the functions of the department, if the public interest in confidentiality clearly outweighs the 2 public interest in disclosure.

3 “(6) Records, reports and other information received or compiled by the Director of the De-
4 partment of Consumer and Business Services in the administration of ORS chapters 723 and 725 not

6 their officers, employees and customers in preserving the confidentiality of such information out-7 weighs the public interest in disclosure.

8 “(7) Reports made to or filed with the court under ORS 137.077 or 137.530.

18 192.410 to 192.505;

19 “(C) The factual information was compiled by or at the direction of an attorney as part of an 20 investigation on behalf of the public body in response to information of possible wrongdoing by the 21 public body;

22 “(D) The factual information was not compiled in preparation for litigation, arbitration or an
