- 3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
 - SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2009 Act is added to and made a part of ORS chapter 616.
 - SECTION 2. (1) As used in this section, "olive oil" means oil derived from the fruit of the species Olea europaea L.
 - (2) The State Department of Agriculture shall adopt rules under ORS 616.205 to 616.385 establishing standards of identity and quality and labeling requirements for olive oil sold in this state. The standards and requirements shall prohibit labeling as olive oil any oil derived from the use of solvents or reesterification processes. The standards and requirements shall prohibit adding other types of oil to olive oil, except for the purpose of producing flavored olive oil. The department shall develop standards and requirements for ordinary virgin oil, virgin oil, extra virgin oil, olive-pomace oil, refined olive-pomace oil and crude olive-pomace oil.
 - (3) The standards developed by the department shall provide, at a minimum, for the following:
 - (a)(A) Olive oil that is labeled as any form of virgin olive oil must be obtained from olives solely by mechanical or other physical means under conditions, including thermal conditions, that do not cause alterations to the oil. The oil obtained from the olives may not undergo treatment other than washing, decanting, centrifuging and filtration.
 - (B) Oil labeled as extra virgin olive oil must be virgin olive oil that has a free acidity, expressed as oleic acid, of not more than 0.8 grams per 100 grams and has not more than 20 milliequivalent of peroxide oxygen per kilogram of oil.
 - (C) Oil labeled as virgin olive oil must have free acidity, expressed as oleic acid, of not more than 2 grams per 100 grams of oil and not more than 20 milliequivalent of peroxide oxygen per kilogram of oil.

- (D) Oil labeled as ordinary virgin olive oil must have free acidity, measured as oleic acid, of not more than 3.3 grams per 100 grams of oil and not more than 20 milliequivalent of peroxide oxygen per kilogram of oil.
- (b) Olive oil that is labeled as refined olive oil must be obtained from a type of virgin olive oil by a refining method that does not lead to alteration in the initial glyceridic structure. Refined oil shall have a free acidity, expressed as oleic acid, of not more than 0.3 grams per 100 grams of oil.
- (c)(A) Olive oil that is labeled as any form of olive-pomace oils must be obtained by treating olive pomace by solvents or other physical treatments. The oil may not be obtained through reesterification processes or through mixture with nonolive oils.
- (B) Oil labeled as olive-pomace oil must be a blend of olive-pomace oil and virgin olive oil and have a free acidity, expressed as oleic acid, of not more than 1 gram per 100 grams of oil.
- (C) Oil labeled as refined olive-pomace oil must be obtained from crude olive-pomace oil by refining methods that do not lead to alterations in the initial glyceridic structure and must have free acidity, expressed as oleic acid, of not more than 0.3 grams per 100 grams of oil.
- (D) Oil labeled as crude olive-pomace oil must be oil intended for refining before use for human consumption or be intended for technical use.
- (d) Olive oil that is labeled as flavored olive oil must be the product of mixing extra virgin olive oil, virgin olive oil or olive oil with a flavoring or be the product of mixing olives with fruit, vegetables, herbs, nuts, seeds or spices before processing the olives into oil. Flavored olive oil must contain not less than 90 percent extra virgin olive oil, virgin oil or olive oil.
- (4) The standards developed by the department shall provide that alpha-tocopherol may be added to refined olive oil, olive oil, refined olive-pomace oil and olive-pomace oil to restore natural tocopherol lost in the refining process. The standards may not allow the concentration of alpha-tocopherol in a finished product to exceed 200 milligrams per kilogram of oil.
- (5) In establishing or amending standards and requirements under this section, in addition to the requirements of this section and the definitions and standards described under ORS 616.230 and 616.325, the department shall give consideration to any definitions and standards used by organizations administering an international agreement on olive oil.
- SECTION 3. (1) As used in this section, "imitation olive oil" means the mixture of any edible oil that is artificially colored or flavored to resemble olive oil.
- (2) A person may not knowingly distribute imitation olive oil for sale in this state. A person may not knowingly sell imitation olive oil in this state or knowingly offer imitation olive oil for sale in this state.
- (3) The State Department of Agriculture may impose a civil penalty, not to exceed $500 per occurrence, for a violation of this section.
- SECTION 4. The State Department of Agriculture shall adopt and implement olive oil standards and requirements under section 2 of this 2009 Act no later than January 2, 2011.
- SECTION 5. Notwithstanding ORS 616.992, violation of section 2 of this 2009 Act is an unclassified misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500, imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.
 - SECTION 6. Section 3 of this 2009 Act applies to the distribution, sale or offering for sale
