Whereas 84 percent of Oregon third-graders meet or exceed state reading standards; and
Whereas children need to learn to read by the third grade in order to read to learn; and
Whereas students who do not learn to read by the third grade are more likely to struggle to read as adults, drop out of school before graduating and be less successfully employed; and
Whereas the Start Making A Reader Today program, or SMART, was founded in Oregon in 1992; and
Whereas SMART partners with hundreds of schools statewide to provide literacy support to kindergarten through third grade students; and
Whereas SMART plays a valued role in helping to raise the literacy proficiency of Oregon children; and
Whereas SMART volunteers work with approximately 10,000 students each year; and Whereas SMART volunteers read with students weekly during the school year; and
Whereas these weekly reading sessions give children the attention, self-confidence and skills to succeed; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

That we, the members of the Seventy-fifth Legislative Assembly, join in designating March 16, 2009, as SMART Reading Day and commemorate the volunteers of the Start Making A Reader Today program for the crucial work they do in ensuring that children today succeed as readers in the future.
