35 “(4) The department shall:

1 “(a) Develop a case management protocol to be followed by the staff of the resource 2 centers;

3 “(b) Adopt a model contract for purposes of contracting with resource centers; and 4 “(c) Adopt rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

5 “(5) At least 90 days prior to a person’s release from a correctional facility in this state 6 on parole or post-prison supervision into one of the locations listed in subsection (2) of this 7 section, the department shall:

8 “(a) Forward to the appropriate resource center a checklist of the person’s needs, as 9 determined by the department after consultation with the person; and 10 “(b) Facilitate contact by telephone and mail between the person and the resource center.

11 “(6) A resource center is a criminal justice agency for the purpose of access to criminal 12 offender information pursuant to ORS 181.555.

13 “(7) The department shall encourage collaboration between the resource center, parole 14 and probation officers, sheriffs, state and local law enforcement, district attorneys, public 15 defenders, the supervisory authority of each county, community-based organizations, com-16 munity colleges and the circuit courts.

17 “(8) The department or a resource center may not take any action that impedes or dis-18 qualifies an active partnership between a resource center and the district courts of the 19 United States or the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

20 “(9) The Oregon Criminal Justice Commission shall contract with a qualified independent 21 person or organization to conduct a scientifically valid evaluation of the pilot grant programs 22 described in subsection (2) of this section. All state agencies and persons participating in the 23 programs shall cooperate fully in conducting the evaluation. The evaluation shall determine 24 whether each pilot grant program has reduced recidivism. The evaluation shall start when 25 the pilot grant programs begin operations, and regular progress reports shall be provided to 26 the commission every six months. A final report shall be provided by the commission to the 27 Legislative Assembly not later than January 1, 2011.

28 “SECTION 2. This 2009 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public 29 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2009 Act takes effect
30 on July 1, 2009.”.
