28 646.775. (1)(a) The Attorney General may bring a civil action in the name of the State of Oregon,
29 on behalf of a political subdivision in this state or as parens patriae on behalf of a natural person,
30 in any circuit court in which venue is proper under ORS 646.790, to secure equitable and monetary
31 relief as provided in this section for injury sustained by the natural person or political subdivision
32 to the natural person's or political subdivision's property by reason of a violation of ORS 646.725
33 or 646.730. The Attorney General may bring the action authorized by this paragraph regardless of 34 whether the natural person or political subdivision dealt directly or indirectly with the adverse 35 party.

36 (b) The court shall exclude from the amount of monetary relief awarded in an action pursuant 37 to paragraph (a) of this subsection any amount of monetary relief:

38 (A) That duplicates amounts that have been awarded for the same injury; or

39 (B) That is properly allocable to natural persons who have excluded their claims pursuant to 40 subsection (2)(b) of this section, or to any business entity.

41 (c)(A) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection, the court shall award the state as monetary 42 relief three times the total damages sustained by natural persons and political subdivisions and the 43 costs the state incurs in the action.

44 (B) The court may award reasonable attorney fees to the Attorney General if the Attorney 45 General prevails in an action under this section.

1 (C) The court may award reasonable attorney fees to a defendant who prevails in an action
2 under this section if the court determines that the Attorney General had no objectively reasonable
3 basis for asserting the claim or no reasonable basis for appealing an adverse decision of the trial 4 court.

5 (d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c) of this subsection, the court shall award the state only the 6 actual damages sustained by natural persons and political subdivisions in an action in which:

7 (A) The Attorney General prevails solely on the basis of a judgment entered in a proceeding
8 under 15 U.S.C. 1 to 45 or in another action by the state under ORS 646.760, 646.770 or 646.780, used 9 as collateral estoppel against the defendant under ORS 646.805; or

10 (B) The natural person or political subdivision dealt indirectly with the adverse party and the 11 Attorney General establishes a violation other than a per se violation of ORS 646.725.

12 (2)(a) In any action pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section, the Attorney General shall, at 13 the times, in the manner and with the content the court directs, give notice by publication. If the 14 court finds that notice given solely by publication would deny due process of law to a natural person
15 or political subdivision, the court may direct further notice to the natural person or political sub-16 division according to the circumstances of the case.

17 (b) Any natural person or political subdivision on whose behalf an action is brought pursuant 18 to subsection (1)(a) of this section may elect to exclude from adjudication the portion of the claim 19 for monetary relief attributable to the natural person or political subdivision by filing notice of the 20 election with the court within the time specified in the notice given pursuant to paragraph (a) of this 21 subsection.

22 (c) The final judgment in an action pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section shall be res

25 subsection within the period specified in the notice given pursuant to paragraph (a) of this sub-26 section.

27 (3) An action pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section shall not be dismissed or compromised 28 without the approval of the court, and the notice of any proposed dismissal or compromise shall be 29 given in the manner the court directs.

30 (4) In any action pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section in which there has been a deter-
31 mination that a defendant agreed to fix prices in violation of ORS 646.725, damages may be proved 32 and assessed in the aggregate by statistical or sampling methods, by the computation and pro rata
33 allocation of illegal overcharges, or by any other reasonable system of estimating aggregate damages
34 as the court in its discretion may permit without the necessity of separately proving the individual
35 claim of, or amount of damage to, natural persons or political subdivisions on whose behalf the suit 36 was brought.

37 (5)(a) Monetary relief recovered in an action pursuant to subsection (1)(a) of this section shall 38 be distributed in the manner the court in its discretion may authorize, subject to the requirement 39 that any distribution procedure adopted afford each natural person or political subdivision on whose 40 behalf the suit was brought a reasonable opportunity to secure an appropriate portion of the net
41 monetary relief.

42 (b) The Attorney General shall deposit that portion of the monetary relief awarded by the court
43 as costs of suit and a reasonable attorney fee in the [Consumer] Department of Justice Protection
44 and Education Revolving Account established pursuant to ORS 180.095.

45 (c) To the extent that the monetary relief awarded by the court is not exhausted by distribution

1 pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, the remaining funds shall be deemed a civil 2 penalty by the court and assessed as such for the benefit of the state pursuant to ORS 646.760.

3 (6) The powers granted in this section are in addition to and not in derogation of the common
4 law powers of the Attorney General to act as parens patriae, or the powers of the Attorney General
5 to sue as a representative party on behalf of a class pursuant to ORCP 32.

6 SECTION 5. On the effective date of this 2009 Act, the State Treasurer shall transfer all 7 funds in the Consumer Protection and Education Revolving Account into the Department of 10 the purposes specified by ORS 180.095, as amended by section 1 of this 2009 Act.

11 SECTION 6. The amendments to ORS 180.095 by section 1 of this 2009 Act apply only to 12 judgments entered on or after the effective date of this 2009 Act and to settlements, com-
13 promises and assurances of voluntary compliance entered into on or after the effective date
