27 ments.

28 (c) Records required to be retained by this section must be legible and complete and may 29 be retained in paper, photograph, microprocess, magnetic, mechanical or electronic media, 30 or by any process that accurately reproduces or forms a durable medium for the reproduc-

37 SECTION 11. (1) With an application for a life settlement, a life settlement provider or 38 life settlement broker shall provide the owner with at least the following disclosures no later 39 than the time the application for the life settlement contract is signed by all parties. The 40 disclosures must be provided in a separate document that is signed by the owner and the life 41 settlement provider or life settlement broker, and must provide the following information:

42 (a) There are possible alternatives to life settlement contracts, including any accelerated 43 death benefits or policy loans offered under the owner's life insurance policy.

44 (b) A life settlement broker represents exclusively the owner, and not the insurer or the 45 life settlement provider, and owes a fiduciary duty to the owner, including a duty to act ac-

1 cording to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner.

2 (c) Some or all of the proceeds of the life settlement may be taxable under federal and 3 state income tax, and assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.

4 (d) Proceeds of the life settlement may be subject to the claims of creditors.

5 (e) Receipt of the proceeds of a life settlement may adversely affect the owner's eligibility 6 for Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements, and advice should be obtained 7 from the appropriate government agencies.

8 (f) The owner has the right to rescind a life settlement contract before the earlier of 60 9 calendar days after the date upon which the life settlement contract is executed by all par-

19 provider has received the insurer or group administrator's written acknowledgment that 20 ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary 21 has been designated.

22 (h) Entering into a life settlement contract may prevent the owner from qualifying for 23 new life insurance coverage in the future and may cause other rights or benefits, including 24 conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certif-25 icate, to be forfeited by the owner. Assistance should be sought from a financial adviser.

26 (i) The following language: "All medical, financial or personal information solicited or 27 obtained by a life settlement provider or life settlement broker about an insured, including 28 the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may 29 be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement between the owner and the life settle-30 ment provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to 31 the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides 32 funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information 33 every two years."

34 (j) Following execution of a life contract, the insured may be contacted for the purpose 35 of determining the insured's health status and to confirm the insured's residential or busi-36 ness street address and telephone number, or as otherwise provided in ORS 744.319 to 37 744.358. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expect-38 ancy of more than one year, and to no more than once per month if the insured has a life 39 expectancy of one year or less. All such contacts shall be made only by a life settlement

41 or by the authorized representative of a duly licensed life settlement provider.

42 (2) Prior to or concurrently with the disclosures required under subsection (1) of this 43 section, the owner shall be given a brochure describing the process of life settlements. The 44 Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services shall develop and approve a 45 form for the brochure.

6 surance policy to be settled;

7 (b) The name, business address and telephone number of the life settlement provider;

8 (c) Any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the life settlement provider and 9 the life settlement purchaser;

10 (d) If an insurance policy to be settled has been issued as a joint policy or involves family 11 riders or any coverage of a life other than the insured under the policy to be settled, infor-
12 mation about the possible loss of coverage on the other lives under the policy and the need 13 to consult with the owner's insurance producer or the insurer issuing the policy for advice 14 on the proposed life settlement;

15 (e) The dollar amount of the current death benefit payable to the life settlement provider 16 under the policy or certificate. If known, disclosure of the availability of any additional 17 guaranteed insurance benefits, the dollar amount of any accidental death and 18 dismemberment benefits under the policy or certificate and the extent to which the owner's 19 interest in those benefits will be transferred as a result of the life settlement contract;

20 (f) If the funds will be escrowed with an independent third party during the transfer 21 process, the name, business address and telephone number of the independent third party 22 escrow agent, and the fact that the owner may inspect or receive copies of the relevant 23 escrow or trust agreements or documents;

24 (g) The name, business address and telephone number of the life settlement broker;

25 (h) A full, complete and accurate description of all offers, counter-offers, acceptances and

34 agraph (j) of this subsection, is taken from a proposed life settlement offer, disclosure of the 35 total amount of the life settlement offer and the percentage of the life settlement offer 36 comprised by the life settlement broker's compensation.

37 (4) If the life settlement provider transfers ownership or changes the beneficiary of the 38 insurance policy, the provider shall communicate in writing the change in ownership or 39 beneficiary to the insured within 20 days after the change.

40 (5) A life settlement provider or its life settlement investment agent shall provide the life 41 settlement purchaser with at least the following disclosures prior to the date the life settle-
42 ment purchase agreement is signed by all parties. The disclosures must be conspicuously 43 displayed in any life purchase contract or in a separate document signed by the life settle- 44 ment purchaser and life settlement provider or life settlement investment agent, and must

2 sured dies and a death claim payment is made.

3 (b) The actual annual rate of return on a life settlement contract is dependent upon an 4 accurate projection of the insured's life expectancy and the actual date of the insured's 5 death. An annual guaranteed rate of return is not determinable.

6 (c) The settled life insurance contract should not be considered a liquid purchase since 7 it is impossible to predict the exact timing of its maturity and the funds probably are not 8 available until the death of the insured. There is no established secondary market for resale 9 of these products by the purchaser.

10 (d) The purchaser may lose all benefits or may receive substantially reduced benefits if 11 the insurer goes out of business during the term of the life investment.

12 (e) The purchaser is responsible for payment of the insurance premium or other costs 13 related to the policy, if required by the terms of the life purchase agreement. These pay-14 ments may reduce the purchaser's return. If a party other than the purchaser is responsible 15 for the payment, the name and address of that party also shall be disclosed.

16 (f)(A) The purchaser is responsible for payment of the insurance premiums or other costs 17 related to the policy.

18 (B) The amount of the premiums, if applicable.

19 (g) The name, business address and telephone number of the independent third party 20 providing escrow services and the relationship to the broker.

22 purchaser.

23 (i) Whether the purchaser is entitled to a refund of all or part of the purchaser's in-24 vestment under the settlement contract if the policy is later determined to be null and void.

25 (j)(A) Group policies may contain limitations or caps in the conversion rights, and addi-26 tional premiums may have to be paid if the policy is converted.

27 (B) The name of the party responsible for the payment of the additional premiums.

28 (C) If a group policy is terminated and replaced by another group policy, there may be 29 no right to convert the original coverage.

30 (k) The risks associated with policy contestability, including but not limited to the risk 31 that the purchaser will have no claim or only a partial claim to death benefits should the 32 insurer rescind the policy within the contestability period.

33 (L) Whether the purchaser will be the owner of the policy in addition to being the bene-34 ficiary and if the purchaser is the beneficiary only and not also the owner, the special risks 35 associated with that status, including but not limited to the risk that the beneficiary may 36 be changed or the premium may not be paid.

37 (m) The experience and qualifications of the person who determines the life expectancy 38 of the insured, the information this projection is based on and the relationship of the 39 projection maker to the life settlement provider, if any.

40 (6) Disclosure to a life settlement purchaser shall include distribution of a brochure de-41 scribing the process of investment in life settlements, in a form to be developed and approved 42 by the director.

43 (7) A life settlement provider or its life settlement investment agent shall provide the life 44 settlement purchaser with at least the following disclosures no later than at the time of the 45 assignment, transfer or sale of all or a portion of an insurance policy. The disclosures must

1 be contained in a document signed by the life settlement purchaser and life settlement pro-2 vider or life settlement investment agent, and must make the following disclosures to the life 3 settlement purchaser:

4 (a) The life expectancy certifications obtained by the provider in the process of deter-5 mining the price paid to the owner.

6 (b) If premium payments or other costs related to the policy have been escrowed, the 7 date when the escrowed funds will be depleted, whether the purchaser is responsible for 8 payment of premiums thereafter and, if so, the amount of the premiums.

9 (c) Whether or not premium payments or other costs related to the policy have been 10 waived. If waived, whether or not the investor is responsible for payment of the premiums 11 if the insurer that wrote the policy terminates the waiver after purchase, and the amount 12 of those premiums.

13 (d) The type of policy offered or sold, such as whole life, term life, universal life or a 14 group policy certificate, any additional benefits contained in the policy and the current status 15 of the policy.

16 (e) If the policy is term insurance, the special risks associated with term insurance, in-17 cluding but not limited to the purchaser's responsibility for additional premiums if the owner 18 continues the term policy at the end of the current term.

19 (f) If the policy is contestable.

20 (g) If the insurer that wrote the policy has any additional rights that could negatively 21 affect or extinguish the purchaser's rights under the life settlement contract, what these 22 rights are and under what conditions these rights are activated.

23 (h) The name and address of the person responsible for monitoring the insured's condi-24 tion. A description of how often the monitoring of the insured's condition is done, how the 25 date of death is determined and how and when this information is transmitted to the pur-26 chaser.

27 (8) The life settlement purchase agreement is voidable by the purchaser at any time 28 within three days after the disclosures mandated by subsection (7) of this section are re-29 ceived by the purchaser.

30 SECTION 12. Prior to the initiation of a plan, transaction or series of transactions, a life 31 settlement broker or life settlement provider shall fully disclose to an insurer the plan, 32 transaction or series of transactions to which the life settlement broker or life settlement 33 provider is a party, to originate, renew, continue or finance a life insurance policy with the 34 insurer for the purpose of engaging in the business of life settlements at anytime prior to, 35 or during the first five years after, issuance of the policy.

36 SECTION 13. (1)(a) A life settlement provider entering into a life settlement contract 37 shall first obtain:

38 (A) If the owner is the insured, a written statement from a licensed attending physician 39 that the owner is of sound mind and under no constraint or undue influence to enter into a 40 life settlement contract; and 41 (B) A document in which the insured consents to the release of the insured's medical 42 records to a licensed life settlement provider, life settlement broker and the insurance 43 company that issued the life insurance policy covering the life of the insured.

44 (b) Within 20 days after a owner executes documents necessary to transfer any rights 45 under an insurance policy or, if the insured is terminally ill, within 20 days after an owner

1 entering any agreement, option, promise or any other form of understanding, expressed or 2 implied, to transfer the policy for value, the life settlement provider shall give written notice 3 to the insurer that issued the insurance policy that the policy has or will become a settled 4 policy. The notice must be accompanied by the documents required by paragraph (c) of this 5 subsection.

6 (c) The life settlement provider shall deliver a copy of the medical release required under 7 paragraph (a)(B) of this subsection, a copy of the owner's application for the life settlement 8 contract, the notice required under paragraph (b) of this subsection and a request for ver-9 ification of coverage to the insurer that issued the life policy that is the subject of the life 10 transaction. The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services shall de-11 velop and approve a form for the request for verification.

12 (d) The insurer shall respond to a request for verification of coverage submitted on an 13 approved form by a life settlement provider or life settlement broker within 30 calendar days 14 of the date the request is received and shall indicate whether, based on the medical evidence 15 and documents provided, the insurer intends to pursue an investigation at this time regard-16 ing the validity of the insurance contract or possible fraud. The insurer shall accept a re-17 quest for verification of coverage made on a form approved by the director. The insurer shall 18 accept an original or facsimile or electronic copy of such request and any accompanying 19 authorization signed by the owner. Failure by the insurer to meet its obligations under this 20 subsection is a violation of the Insurance Code.

21 (e) Prior to or at the time of execution of the life settlement contract, the life settlement 22 provider shall obtain a witnessed document in which the owner consents to the life settle-23 ment contract, represents that the owner has a full and complete understanding of the life 24 settlement contract, that the owner has a full and complete understanding of the benefits 25 of the life insurance policy, acknowledges that the owner is entering into the life settlement 26 contract freely and voluntarily and, for persons with a terminal illness or chronic illness or 27 condition, acknowledges that the insured has a terminal illness or chronic illness and that 28 the terminal illness or chronic illness or condition was diagnosed after the life insurance 29 policy was issued.

30 (f) If a life settlement broker performs any of the activities required of the life settle-31 ment provider, the provider is deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of this section that 32 were performed by the broker.

33 (2) All medical information solicited or obtained by any licensee is privileged and confi-34 dential under ORS 705.137.

35 (3)(a) All life settlement contracts entered into in this state must provide the owner with 36 an absolute right to rescind the contract before the earlier of 60 calendar days after the date 37 upon which the life settlement contract is executed by all parties or 30 calendar days after 38 the life settlement proceeds have been sent to the owner under subsection (5) of this section.

39 (b) The life settlement provider may condition rescission upon the owner both giving 40 notice and repaying to the life settlement provider within the rescission period all proceeds 41 of the settlement and any premiums, loans and loan interest paid by or on behalf of the life 42 settlement provider in connection with or as a consequence of the life settlement.

43 (c) If the insured dies during the rescission period, the life settlement contract is deemed 44 to have been rescinded, subject to repayment within 60 calendar days of the death of the 45 insured to the life settlement provider or purchaser of all life settlement proceeds and any

1 premiums, loans and loan interest that have been paid by the life settlement provider or 2 purchaser.

3 (d) In the event of any rescission, if the life settlement provider has paid commissions 4 or other compensation to a life settlement broker in connection with the rescinded trans-5 action, the life settlement broker shall refund all such commissions and compensation to the 6 life settlement provider within five business days following receipt of written demand from 7 the life settlement provider. The demand must be accompanied by either the owner's notice 8 of rescission if rescinded at the election of the owner, or the notice of the death of the in-9 sured if rescinded by reason of the death of the insured within the applicable rescission pe-10 riod.

11 (4) The life settlement purchaser shall have the right to rescind a life settlement con-12 tract within three days after the disclosures mandated by section 11 (7) of this 2009 Act are 13 received by the purchaser.

14 (5)(a) The life settlement provider shall instruct the owner to send the executed docu-15 ments required to effect the change in ownership, assignment or change in beneficiary di-16 rectly to an independent escrow agent selected by the provider.

17 (b) Within three business days after the date the escrow agent receives the document, 18 or from the date the life settlement provider receives the documents, if the owner erro-19 neously provides the documents directly to the provider, the provider shall pay or transfer 20 the proceeds of the life settlement into an escrow or trust account maintained in a state or 21 federally chartered financial institution whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit 22 Insurance Corporation.

23 (c) Upon payment of the settlement proceeds into the escrow account, the escrow agent 24 shall deliver the original change in ownership, assignment or change in beneficiary forms to 25 the life settlement provider or related provider trust or other designated representative of 26 the life settlement provider. Upon the escrow agent's receipt of the acknowledgment of the 27 properly completed transfer of ownership, assignment or designation of beneficiary from the 28 insurance company, the escrow agent shall pay the settlement proceeds to the owner.

29 (6) Failure to pay the owner the full contract amount for the life settlement contract 30 within the time set forth under subsection (5) of this section renders the life settlement 31 contract voidable by the owner until the time full payment is tendered to and accepted by 32 the owner. Funds are deemed sent by a life settlement provider to a owner as of the date 33 that the escrow agent either releases funds for wire transfer to the owner or places a check 34 for delivery to the owner via the United States Postal Service or another nationally recog-35 nized delivery service.

36 (7)(a) Contacts with the insured for the purpose of determining the health status of the 37 insured by the life settlement provider or life settlement broker after the life settlement has 38 occurred may be made only by the life settlement provider or broker licensed in this state 39 or its authorized representatives and are limited to once every three months for insureds 40 with a life expectancy of more than one year, and to no more than once per month for in-41 sureds with a life expectancy of one year or less.

42 (b) The limitations set forth in this subsection do not apply to any contacts with an in-43 sured for reasons other than determining the insured's health status.

44 SECTION 14. (1) A person may not enter into a life settlement contract at any time prior 45 to the application or issuance of a policy that is the subject of a life settlement contract or

1 within a five-year period commencing with the date of issuance of the insurance policy or 2 certificate. However, this five-year restriction does not apply if the owner certifies to the life 3 settlement provider that any one or more of the following conditions has been met within 4 the five-year period:

5 (a) The policy was issued upon the owner's exercise of conversion rights arising out of 6 a group or individual policy if the total of the time covered under the conversion policy plus 7 the time covered under the prior policy is at least 60 months. The time covered under a 8 group policy is calculated without regard to any change in insurance carriers, provided the 9 coverage has been continuous and under the same group sponsorship;

10 (b) The owner submits independent evidence to the life settlement provider that one or 11 more of the following conditions have been met within the five-year period:

12 (A) The owner or insured is terminally ill or chronically ill;

13 (B) The owner's spouse dies;

14 (C) The owner divorces the owner's spouse;

17 the disability prevents the owner from maintaining full-time employment; or 18 (F) A final order, judgment or decree is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction, on 19 the application of a creditor of the owner, adjudicating the owner bankrupt or insolvent, or 20 approving a petition seeking reorganization of the owner or appointing a receiver, trustee 21 or liquidator to all or a substantial part of the owner's assets; or

22 (c) The owner enters into a life settlement contract more than two years after the date 23 of issuance of a policy and, with respect to the policy, at all times prior to the date that is 24 two years after policy issuance, the following conditions are met:

25 (A) Policy premiums have been funded exclusively with unencumbered assets, including 26 an interest in the life insurance policy being financed only to the extent of its net cash sur-27 render value, provided by, or full recourse liability incurred by, the insured or a person 28 closely related to the insured by blood or law or a party having a lawful substantial economic 29 interest in the continued life, health and bodily safety of the person insured, or a trust es-30 tablished primarily for the benefit of such parties;

31 (B) There is no agreement or understanding with any other person to guarantee any such 32 liability or to purchase or stand ready to purchase the policy, including through an assump-33 tion or forgiveness of the loan; and 34 (C) Neither the insured nor the policy has been evaluated for settlement.

35 (2) Copies of the independent evidence described in subsection (1)(b) of this section and 36 documents required by section 13 (1) of this 2009 Act must be submitted to the insurer when 37 the life settlement provider or other party entering into a life settlement contract with an 38 owner submits a request to the insurer for verification of coverage. The copies must be ac-39 companied by a letter of attestation from the life settlement provider that the copies are 40 true and correct copies of the documents received by the life settlement provider.

41 (3) If the life settlement provider submits to the insurer a copy of the owner's or in-42 sured's certification described in and the documents required by section 13 (1) of this 2009
43 Act when the provider submits a request to the insurer to effect the transfer of the policy 44 or certificate to the life settlement provider, the copy conclusively establishes that the life 45 settlement contract satisfies the requirements of this section and the insurer shall respond

1 in a timely manner to the request.

2 (4) An insurer may not, as a condition of responding to a request for verification of 3 coverage or effecting the transfer of a policy pursuant to a life settlement contract, require 4 that the owner, insured, life settlement provider or life settlement broker sign any forms, 5 disclosures, consent or waiver form that has not been expressly approved by the Director 6 of the Department of Consumer and Business Services for use in connection with life 7 settlement contracts in this state.

8 (5) Upon receipt of a properly completed request for a change of ownership or beneficiary 9 of a policy, the insurer shall respond in writing within 30 calendar days with written ac-10 knowledgement confirming that the change has been effected or specifying the reasons why 11 the requested change cannot be processed. The insurer may not unreasonably delay effecting 12 change of ownership or beneficiary and may not otherwise seek to interfere with any life 13 settlement contract lawfully entered into in this state.

14 SECTION 15. (1) With respect to a life settlement contract or insurance policy, a life 15 settlement broker may not knowingly solicit an offer from, effectuate a life settlement with 18 or under common control with the life settlement broker.

19 (2) With respect to a life settlement contract or insurance policy, a life settlement pro-

31 to the policy that are in addition to the amounts required to pay the principal, interest and 32 service charges related to the policy premiums under the premium finance agreement or 33 subsequent sale of the agreement. Any payments, charges, fees or other amounts in addition 34 to the amounts required to pay the principal, interest and service charges related to policy

39 employ any device, scheme or artifice in violation of ORS 743.024.

40 (6) A life settlement provider may not enter into a life settlement contract unless the life 41 settlement promotional, advertising and marketing materials, as may be prescribed by reg-
42 ulation, have been filed with the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business 43 Services.

44 (7) A life insurance producer, insurance company, life settlement broker, life settlement 45 provider or life settlement investment agent may not make any statement or representation

1 to the applicant or policyholder in connection with the sale or financing of a life insurance 2 policy to the effect that the insurance is free or without cost to the policyholder for any 3 period of time unless provided in the policy.

4 (8) A person may not present, cause to be presented or prepare with the knowledge or 45 insurance.

1 (14) A person may not recklessly enter into, negotiate, broker or otherwise deal in a life 2 settlement contract, the subject of which is a life insurance policy that was obtained by 3 presenting false information concerning any fact material to the policy or by concealing, for 4 the purpose of misleading another, information concerning any fact material to the policy, 5 for which the person or the persons intended to defraud the policy's issuer, the life settle-
6 ment provider or the owner. For the purposes of this subsection, "recklessly" means engag-7 ing in conduct in conscious and clearly unjustifiable disregard of a substantial likelihood of 8 the existence of the relevant facts or risks, such disregard involving a gross deviation from 9 acceptable standards of conduct.

10 (15) A person may not facilitate the change of state of ownership of a policy or certificate 11 or the state of residency of an owner to a state or jurisdiction that does not have a law 12 similar to ORS 744.319 to 744.358 for the express purposes of evading or avoiding the pro-

16 (17) A life settlement investment agent shall not have any contact, directly or indirectly, 17 with the owner or insured under the policy or have knowledge of the identity of the owner 18 or insured.

19 SECTION 16. (1) This section applies to any advertising of life settlement contracts, life 20 purchase agreements or related products or services intended for dissemination in this state, 21 including Internet advertising viewed by persons located in this state. When disclosure re-22 quirements are established pursuant to federal regulation, this section is interpreted so as 23 to minimize or eliminate conflict with federal regulation wherever possible.

24 (2) Every licensee must establish and at all times maintain a system of control over the 25 content, form and method of dissemination of all advertisements of its contracts, products 26 and services. All advertisements, regardless of by whom written, created, designed or pre-27 sented, is the responsibility of the licensees, as well as the individual who created or pre-28 sented the advertisement. A system of control must include regular routine notification, at 29 least once a year, to agents and others authorized by the licensee who disseminate adver-
30 tisements, of the requirements of this section and the requirements adopted by the Director 31 of the Department of Consumer and Business Services in the use of any advertisements not 32 furnished by the licensee.

33 (3) Advertisements must be truthful and not misleading in fact or by implication. The 34 form and content of an advertisement of a life settlement contract or life settlement pur-35 chase agreement must be sufficiently complete and clear so as to avoid deception. It may 36 not have the capacity or tendency to mislead or deceive.

37 (4) An advertisement may not use the name or title of a life insurance company or a life 38 insurance policy unless the named company or policy-holder consents to the usage in a form 39 prescribed by the director.

40 (5) An advertisement may not represent that premium payments will not be required to 41 be paid on the life insurance policy that is the subject of a life settlement contract or life 42 settlement purchase agreement in order to maintain that policy, unless that is the fact.

43 (6) An advertisement may not state or imply that a life settlement contract or life 44 settlement purchase agreement, benefit or service has been approved or endorsed by a group 45 of individuals, society, association or other organization unless that is the fact and unless

1 any relationship between an organization and the licensee is disclosed. If the entity making 2 the endorsement or testimonial is owned, controlled or managed by the licensee, or receives 3 any payment or other consideration from the licensee for making an endorsement or testi-4 monial, that fact must be disclosed in the advertisement.

5 (7) When an endorsement refers to benefits received under a life settlement contract or 6 life settlement purchase agreement, all pertinent information must be retained for a period 7 of five years after its use.

8 (8) An advertisement may not contain statistical information unless it accurately reflects 9 recent and relevant facts. The source of all statistics used in an advertisement must be 10 identified.

11 (9) An advertisement may not directly or indirectly create the impression that any divi-12 sion or agency of this state or of the United States government endorses, approves or favors:

13 (a) Any licensee or its business practices or methods of operation;

14 (b) The merits, desirability or advisability of any life settlement contract or life settle-15 ment purchase agreement;

16 (c) Any life settlement contract or life settlement purchase agreement; or 17 (d) Any life insurance policy or life insurance company.

18 (10) The director may adopt rules to implement this section.

19 SECTION 17. (1) A person may not knowingly or intentionally interfere with the 20 enforcement of the provisions of ORS 744.319 to 744.358 or investigations of suspected or 21 actual violations of ORS 744.319 to 744.358.

22 (2) A person in the business of life settlements may not knowingly or intentionally permit 23 any person convicted of a felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust to participate in the 24 business of life settlements.

25 (3) Life settlements contracts and purchase agreement forms and applications for life 26 settlements, regardless of the form of transmission, must contain the following statement 27 or a substantially similar statement: "Any person who knowingly presents false information 28 in this application is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in 29 prison."

30 (4) The lack of a statement as required in subsection (3) of this section does not consti-
31 tute a defense in any investigation or prosecution for an act violating any provision of ORS 32 744.319 to 744.358.

33 (5) Any person engaged in the business of life settlements having knowledge or a rea-34 sonable suspicion that a fraudulent life settlement act is being, will be or has been committed 35 must provide to the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services infor-36 mation as required by, and in a manner prescribed by, the director.

37 (6) Any other person having knowledge or a reasonable belief that a fraudulent life 38 settlement act is being, will be or has been committed may provide to the director the in-39 formation required by, and in a manner prescribed by, the director.

40 (7)(a) No civil liability is imposed on and no cause of action arises from a person's fur-41 nishing information concerning suspected, anticipated or completed fraudulent life settle-42 ment acts or suspected or completed fraudulent insurance acts, if the information is 43 provided to or received from:

44 (A) The director or the director's employees, agents or representatives;

45 (B) Federal, state or local law enforcement or regulatory officials or their employees,

1 agents or representatives;

2 (C) A person involved in the prevention and detection of fraudulent life settlement acts 3 or that person's agents, employees or representatives;

4 (D) The National Association of Insurance Commissioners, the Financial Industry Regu-5 latory Authority or the North American Securities Administrators Association, or their 6 employees, agents or representatives, or any other regulatory body overseeing life insurance, 7 life settlements, securities or investment fraud; or 8 (E) The life insurer that issued the life insurance policy covering the life of the insured.

9 (b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection shall not apply to statements made with actual 10 malice. In an action brought against a person for filing a report or furnishing other infor-11 mation concerning a fraudulent life settlement act, the party bringing the action must plead 12 specifically any allegation that paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply because the 13 person filing the report or furnishing the information did so with actual malice.

14 (c) A person furnishing information as identified in paragraph (a) of this subsection is 15 entitled to an award of attorney fees and costs if the person is the prevailing party in a civil 16 cause of action for libel, slander or any other relevant tort arising out of activities in car-17 rying out the provisions of ORS 744.319 to 744.358 and the party bringing the action was not 18 substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this paragraph, a proceeding is "substan-19 tially justified" if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.
20 However, such an award does not apply to a person furnishing information concerning the 21 person's own fraudulent life settlement acts.

22 (d) This section does not abrogate or modify common law or statutory privileges or im-23 munities enjoyed by a person described in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

24 (8) The documents and evidence obtained by the director in an investigation of suspected 25 or actual fraudulent life settlement acts are privileged and confidential under ORS 705.137.

26 (9) This section does not:

27 (a) Preempt the authority or relieve the duty of other law enforcement or regulatory 28 agencies to investigate, examine and prosecute suspected violations of law;

29 (b) Prevent or prohibit a person from disclosing voluntarily information concerning life 30 settlement fraud to a law enforcement or regulatory agency other than the Department of 31 Consumer and Business Services; or

32 (c) Limit the powers granted elsewhere by the laws of this state to the director or any 33 other state department or agency to investigate and examine possible violations of law and 34 to take appropriate action against wrongdoers.

35 (10)(a) Life settlement providers and life settlement brokers must have in place antifraud 36 initiatives reasonably calculated to detect, prosecute and prevent fraudulent life settlement 37 acts. At the discretion of the director, the director may order, or a licensee may request and 38 the director may grant, such modifications of the required initiatives described in paragraph 39 (b) of this subsection as necessary to ensure an effective antifraud program. The modifica-40 tions may be more or less restrictive than the required initiatives as long as the modifica-41 tions may reasonably be expected to accomplish the purpose of this section.

42 (b) Antifraud initiatives must include:

43 (A) Fraud investigators, who may be life settlement provider or life settlement broker 44 employees or independent contractors; and 45 (B) An antifraud plan, which must be submitted to the director. The antifraud plan must 1 include, but is not limited to:

2 (i) A description of the procedures for detecting and investigating possible fraudulent life 3 settlement acts and procedures for resolving material inconsistencies between medical re-4 cords and insurance applications;

5 (ii) A description of the procedures for reporting possible fraudulent life settlement acts 6 to the director;

7 (iii) A description of the plan for antifraud education and training of underwriters and 8 other personnel; and

9 (iv) A description or chart outlining the organizational arrangement of the antifraud 10 personnel who are responsible for investigating and reporting possible fraudulent life settle-11 ment acts and investigating unresolved material inconsistencies between medical records and 12 insurance applications.

13 (c) Antifraud plans submitted to the director are privileged and confidential under ORS 14 705.137.

15 SECTION 18. (1) A person who violates any provision of ORS 744.319 to 744.358 is subject 16 to civil penalties under ORS 731.988 and cease and desist orders under ORS 731.252.

17 (2) If a person violates any provision of ORS 744.319 to 744.358, the Director of the De-18 partment of Consumer and Business Services may seek an injunction in a court of competent 19 jurisdiction and may apply for temporary and permanent orders that the director determines 20 are necessary to restrain the person from committing the violation.

21 (3) A person damaged by the acts of a person in violation of any provision of ORS 744.319 22 to 744.358 may bring a civil action against the person committing the violation in a court of 23 competent jurisdiction.

24 (4) A violation of any provision of ORS 744.319 to 744.358 attendant to the execution of a 25 life settlement purchase agreement renders the life settlement purchase agreement voidable 26 and subject to rescission by the life settlement purchaser, upon return of the policy received 27 to the life settlement provider. Suit for rescission may be brought in a court of competent 28 jurisdiction or where the alleged violator resides or has a principal place of business or where 29 the alleged violation occurred.

30 (5) Except for an act under section 15 (8) to (16) of this 2009 Act, the enforcement pro-31 visions and penalties of this section do not apply to an owner.

32 SECTION 19. (1) Violation of section 15 of this 2009 Act, in addition to any applicable 33 prescribed denial, suspension or revocation of any license or civil forfeiture, shall be 34 punishable upon conviction as for the crime of theft under ORS 164.015 to 164.135 or the 35 crime of forgery or related offenses under ORS 165.002 to 165.070.

36 (2) A person convicted of a violation of section 15 of this 2009 Act may be ordered to pay 37 restitution to persons aggrieved by the violation of section 15 of this 2009 Act. Restitution 38 may be ordered in addition to a fine or imprisonment, but not in lieu of a fine or 39 imprisonment.

40 (3) Except for an act under section 15 (8) to (16) of this 2009 Act, the penalties of this 41 section shall not apply to an owner.

42 SECTION 20. ORS 744.358 is amended to read:

43 744.358. The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services may adopt rules for 44 the purpose of carrying out ORS 744.319 to 744.358. In addition:
