6 managing agent or officer of any business, firm, corporation or association owning, or having in 7 possession or under control taxable personal property shall make a return of the property for ad
8 valorem tax purposes to the assessor of the county in which the property has its situs for taxation.
9 As between a mortgagor and mortgagee or a lessor and lessee, however, the actual owner and the 10 person in possession may agree between them as to who shall make the return and pay the tax, and 11 the election shall be followed by the person in possession of the roll who has notice of the election.
12 Upon the failure of either party to file a personal property tax return on or before March 1 of any 13 year, both parties shall be jointly and severally subject to the provisions of ORS 308.296.

14 “(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply to personal property exempt from taxation
15 under ORS 307.162.

17 ciation owning or in possession of taxable real property shall make a return of the property for ad

19 uated.

20 “(3)(a) Each return of personal property shall contain a full listing of the property and a state-

24 shall contain the name, assumed business name, if any, and address of the owner of the personal 25 property and, if it is a partnership, the name and address of each general partner or, if it is a cor-

27 “(b) Each return of real property shall contain a full listing of the several items or parts of the

35 31 preceding the assessment year, the department or assessor shall cause blank forms for the returns 36 to be prepared and distributed by mail, but failure to receive or secure the form does not relieve the 37 person, managing agent or officer from the obligation of making any return required by this section.

38 “(4) All returns shall be filed on or before March 1 of each year, but the county assessor or the 39 Department of Revenue may grant an extension of time to April 15 within which to file the return

3 form shall comply with ORS 308.297. Notwithstanding ORS 308.875, a manufactured structure that 4 is a part of an industrial property shall be included in a combined return.

5 “(c) In order that the county assessor may comply with ORS 308.295, the department shall pro-

9 “(d) If the department has delegated appraisal of the property to the county assessor under ORS
10 306.126 (3), the department shall notify the person otherwise required to file the combined return 11 under this subsection as soon as practicable after the delegation that the combined return is re-12 quired to be filed with the assessor.

13 “(e) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, a combined return of real and personal 14 property that is industrial property appraised by the department shall be filed with the department

19 “(A) Good or sufficient cause exists for granting an extension for the property tax year of the 20 return; or

21 “(B) Granting an extension enhances the accuracy of the filing by the taxpayer and long-term
22 voluntary compliance. An extension granted under this subparagraph shall continue in effect for 23 each subsequent property tax year until the taxpayer cancels the extension or the department re-
24 vokes the extension.

25 “(c) An extension granted under this subsection shall apply to returns required to be filed under 26 subsection (5) of this section with either the county assessor or the department.

27 “(d) The department shall notify assessors in affected counties when the department grants ex-28 tensions under this subsection.

29 “(7)(a) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, any person required to file a return 30 with the county assessor under this section may apply to the assessor for an extension of time to 31 April 15 within which to file the return.

32 “(b) Extensions granted under this subsection may be based on a finding by the assessor that:

33 “(A) Good or sufficient cause exists for granting an extension for the property tax year of the 34 return; or

35 “(B) Granting an extension enhances the accuracy of the filing by the taxpayer and long-term
36 voluntary compliance. An extension granted under this subparagraph shall continue in effect for 37 each subsequent property tax year until the taxpayer cancels the extension or the assessor revokes 38 the extension.

39 “(8)(a) Any person required to file returns in more than one county may apply to the Department
40 of Revenue for an extension of time to April 15 within which to file the returns. The department 41 may grant extensions to a person required to file returns in more than one county.

42 “(b) Extensions granted under this subsection may be based on a finding by the department that:

43 “(A) Good or sufficient cause exists for granting an extension for the property tax year of the 44 return; or

45 “(B) Granting an extension enhances the accuracy of the filing by the taxpayer and long-term

1 voluntary compliance. An extension granted under this subparagraph shall continue in effect for 2 each subsequent property tax year until the taxpayer cancels the extension or the department re-
3 vokes the extension.

4 “(c) Whenever the department grants an extension to a person required to file returns in more 5 than one county, the department shall notify the assessors in the counties affected by the extensions.

6 “(9) The Department of Revenue shall, by rule, establish procedures and criteria for granting,
7 denying or revoking extensions under this section after consultation with an advisory committee 8 selected by the department that represents the interests of county assessors and affected taxpayers.

9 “(10) A return is not in any respect controlling on the county assessor or on the Department
10 of Revenue in the assessment of any property. On any failure to file the required return, the prop-11 erty shall be listed and assessed from the best information obtainable from other sources.

15 section.

16 “(b) The assessor or the department may forward any return received in error to the department 17 or the county official responsible for appraising the property described in the return.

18 “(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, a return described in paragraph (a) of this

31 brought by a taxpayer;

32 “(E) The Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice or a district attorney to the
