WHAT THE MEASURE DOES: Adds language to the summons for appearance in a juvenile court proceeding that if you are a party to the proceeding, you have a right to appeal a judgment to the Court of Appeals but must do so no later than 30 days after entry of juvenile court's judgment.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Informing the parties about their rights

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: No amendment.

BACKGROUND: ORS 419A.200 specifically states that a party to a juvenile proceeding has a right to appeal the juvenile court decision to the Court of Appeals. Many parties before a juvenile court do not realize they have this right. Having this language in the summons will inform them of this right.
