WHAT THE MEASURE DOES: Makes crimes of involuntary servitude, trafficking in persons, and compelling prostitution subject to civil forfeiture. Includes Court Appointed Special Advocate Volunteer Programs as permissible recipients of remaining forfeiture proceeds. Declares emergency, effective upon passage.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- Importance of taking away proceeds and instrumentalities of sex trafficking

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT: Includes Court Appointed Special Advocate Volunteer Programs as permissible recipients of remaining forfeiture proceeds.

BACKGROUND: Civil forfeiture is a civil remedy, distinct from any criminal liability. In civil forfeiture, the government sues the property item itself. Oregon law currently allows for civil forfeiture most principally in crimes involving illegal drugs.

The crimes for involuntary servitude (in the first and second degrees) and trafficking in persons were enacted in 2007 following passage of Senate Bill 578. The crime of compelling prostitution was enacted in 1971.
