CHAPTER

AN ACT

Relating to deposits of public funds; creating new provisions; and amending ORS 295.001, 295.004, 295.046 and 295.048.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 295.004 is amended to read:

295.004. (1) A public official may deposit public funds in a bank depository in an amount in excess of the amount allowed in ORS 295.002 without requiring the bank depository to show that it has entered into a pledge agreement or deposited securities pursuant to ORS 295.015 (1) if the funds are initially deposited into a bank depository in Oregon and the Oregon bank depository participates in a program through which:

(a) The Oregon bank depository arranges for deposit of the funds into one or more certificates of deposit or time deposits issued by other financial institutions in the United States;

(b) Each certificate of deposit or time deposit is fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;

(c) The Oregon bank depository administers the funds on behalf of the public official; and

(d) Other financial institutions participating in the program place funds into the Oregon depository in an amount at least equal to the amount deposited into the Oregon bank depository by the public official for purposes of the program.

(2) A public official may deposit public funds in a bank depository in an amount in excess of the amount allowed in ORS 295.002 without requiring the bank depository to show that it has entered into a pledge agreement or deposited securities pursuant to ORS 295.015 (1) if the funds are initially deposited into a bank depository in Oregon and the Oregon bank depository participates in a program that meets the following conditions:

(a) On or after the date that the funds are received, the Oregon bank depository:

(A) Arranges for the redeposit of the funds into one or more insured deposit accounts in other financial institutions in the United States; and

(B) Administers the funds on behalf of the public official;

(b) The full amount of the funds redeposited by the Oregon bank depository into deposit accounts in other financial institutions, together with any interest accrued on deposited funds, is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and

(c) On the same date that the funds are redeposited under this subsection, the Oregon bank depository receives an amount of deposits from customers of other financial institutions that are at least equal to the amount of the funds redeposited by the Oregon bank depository.

[2] (3) Until the Oregon bank depository places public funds into one or more certificates of deposit or time deposits as provided in subsection (1) of this section or places public funds into insured deposit accounts as provided in subsection (2) of this section, any uninsured public funds held by the Oregon bank depository pending such placement must be collateralized as provided in ORS 295.001 to 295.108 for other uninsured public funds deposits.

[3] (4)(a) The provisions of ORS 295.006, 295.013, 295.015, 295.018 and 295.037 do not apply to public funds deposits deposited into a bank depository in Oregon that the bank depository arranges for under the provisions of the [program] programs described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(b) The provisions of ORS 294.035 and 295.001 requiring deposit of public funds into depositories that have offices or branches in Oregon do not apply to certificates of deposit or time deposits that an Oregon bank depository arranges for under the provisions of the program described in subsection (1) of this section or to public funds that an Oregon bank depository arranges to deposit into insured deposit accounts under subsection (2) of this section.

SECTION 2. ORS 295.004, as amended by section 3, chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2010, is amended to read:

295.004. (1) A public official may deposit public funds in a depository in an amount in excess of the amount allowed in ORS 295.002 without requiring the depository to show that the depository entered into a pledge agreement or deposited securities pursuant to ORS 295.015 (1) if the public official deposits the funds into a depository in Oregon and the Oregon depository participates in a program through which:

(a) The Oregon depository arranges to deposit the funds into one or more certificates of deposit or time deposits issued by other financial institutions in the United States;

(b) Each certificate of deposit or time deposit is fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund;

(c) The Oregon depository administers the funds on behalf of the public official; and

(d) Other financial institutions that participate in the program place funds into the Oregon depository in an amount at least equal to the amount the public official deposited into the Oregon depository for purposes of the program.

(2) A public official may deposit public funds in a depository in an amount in excess of the amount allowed in ORS 295.002 without requiring the depository to show that it has entered into a pledge agreement or deposited securities pursuant to ORS 295.015 (1) if the funds are initially deposited into a depository in Oregon and the Oregon depository participates in a program that meets the following conditions:

(a) On or after the date that the funds are received, the Oregon depository:

(A) Arranges for the redeposit of the funds into one or more insured deposit accounts in other financial institutions in the United States; and

(B) Administers the funds on behalf of the public official;

(b) The full amount of the funds redeposited by the Oregon depository into deposit accounts in other financial institutions, together with any interest accrued on deposited funds, is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund; and

(c) On the same date that the funds are redeposited under this subsection, the Oregon depository receives an amount of deposits from customers of other financial institutions that are at least equal to the amount of the funds redeposited by the Oregon depository.

[2] (3) Until the Oregon depository places public funds into one or more certificates of deposit or time deposits as provided in subsection (1) of this section or places public funds into insured deposit accounts as provided in subsection (2) of this section, any uninsured public funds that the Oregon depository holds pending placement must be collateralized as provided in ORS 295.001 to 295.108 for other uninsured public funds deposits.

[3] (4)(a) The provisions of ORS 295.006, 295.013, 295.015, 295.018 and 295.037 and section 12, chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2010, do not apply to Oregon depositories that arrange to deposit public funds in accordance with the [program] programs described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(b) The provisions of ORS 294.035 and 295.001 that require public funds to be deposited into depositories that have offices or branches in Oregon do not apply to public funds that an Oregon depository arranges to deposit into certificates of deposit or time deposits under the provisions of the program described in subsection (1) of this section or to public funds that an Oregon depository arranges to deposit into insured deposit accounts under subsection (2) of this section.

SECTION 5. ORS 295.046 is amended to read:

295.046. (1) A bank depository may not accept a deposit of public funds if the deposit would cause the aggregate of public funds deposits made by any one public official in the bank depository to exceed at any time the net worth of the bank depository. If a bank depository's net worth is reduced, the bank depository may allow public funds on deposit in excess of the reduced net worth to remain if the bank depository deposits with its custodian eligible securities valued at market value in an amount at least equal to the amount of the excess public funds deposits. If the additional securities required by this section are not deposited with the custodian, the bank depository shall permit the public official to withdraw deposits prior to maturity, including accrued interest, in accordance with applicable statutes and governmental regulations.

(2) The limitations of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to:

(a) Public funds deposits held by a bank depository in a certificate of deposit or time deposit under ORS 295.004 (1); or

(b) Public funds that an Oregon bank depository arranges to deposit into an insured deposit account under ORS 295.004 (2).

SECTION 6. ORS 295.046, as amended by section 15, chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2010, is amended to read:

295.046. (1) A depository may not accept a deposit of public funds if the deposit would cause the aggregate of public funds deposits that any one public official makes in the depository to exceed at any time the depository's net worth. If a depository's net worth is reduced, the depository may allow public funds on deposit in excess of the reduced net worth to remain if the depository deposits with the depository's custodian eligible securities valued at market value in an amount at least equal to the amount of the excess public funds deposits. If the additional securities required by this section are not deposited with the custodian, the depository shall permit the public official to withdraw deposits prior to maturity, including accrued interest, in accordance with applicable statutes and governmental regulations.

(2) The limitations of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to public funds deposits a depository holds in a certificate of deposit or time deposit under ORS 295.004 (1); or

(b) Public funds that an Oregon depository arranges to deposit into an insured deposit account under ORS 295.004 (2).

SECTION 7. ORS 295.048 is amended to read:

295.048. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 295.046, a bank depository may not permit the aggregate of public funds deposits on deposit with the bank depository from all public officials to exceed at any time:

(a) 100 percent of the value of the bank depository's net worth, if the bank depository is an undercapitalized bank depository;

(b) 150 percent of the value of the bank depository's net worth, if the bank depository is an adequately capitalized bank depository;

(c) 200 percent of the value of the bank depository's net worth, if the bank depository is a well capitalized bank depository; or

(d) 30 percent of the total aggregate uninsured public funds deposits of all public officials in all bank depositories as reported in the most recent notice received by the bank depository from the State Treasurer.

(2) The State Treasurer shall notify each bank depository and its custodian of the total aggregate uninsured public funds deposits of all public officials in all bank depositories, based on the most recently submitted treasurer reports. The treasurer shall give the notification required by this subsection by the last day of the month in which bank depositories are required to submit a treasurer report.

(3) If a bank depository's aggregate of uninsured public funds deposits exceeds the amount set forth in subsection (1) of this section, the bank depository shall, within three business days after receipt of notice from the State Treasurer, cease accepting deposits of uninsured public funds.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3) of this section:

(a) A bank depository may accept and hold uninsured public funds deposits in excess of the limits provided in subsection (1) of this section if the State Treasurer, upon good cause shown, approves the request of the bank depository to hold uninsured public funds in excess of the limits provided in subsection (1) of this section for a period not exceeding 90 days and eligible securities are deposited with the bank depository's custodian as collateral in an amount at least equal to the amount of the uninsured public funds deposits in excess of the limits provided in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) The limits of subsection (1) of this section do not apply to public funds deposits held by a bank depository in a certificate of deposit or time deposit under ORS 295.004 (1) or public funds that an Oregon bank depository arranges to deposit into an insured deposit account under ORS 295.004 (2).

(c) A well capitalized bank depository or an adequately capitalized bank depository may accept and hold public funds deposits in excess of the limit provided in subsection (1)(d) of this section if eligible securities are deposited with the bank depository's custodian as collateral in an amount at least equal to the amount of the public funds deposits in excess of the limit prescribed in subsection (1)(d) of this section.

SECTION 8. ORS 295.048, as amended by section 16, chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2010, is amended to read:

295.048. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 295.046, a depository may not permit the aggregate of public funds deposits on deposit with the depository from all public officials to exceed at any time the lesser of:

(a) 100 percent of the value of the depository's net worth, if the depository is an undercapitalized depository;

(b) 150 percent of the value of the depository's net worth, if the depository is an adequately capitalized depository;

(c) 200 percent of the value of the depository's net worth, if the depository is a well capitalized depository;

(d) For a bank depository, 30 percent of the total aggregate public funds deposits of all public officials in all bank depositories as reported in the most recent notice the bank depository received from the State Treasurer; or

(e) For a credit union depository, 30 percent of the total aggregate public funds deposits of all public officials in all credit union depositories as reported in the most recent notice the credit union depository received from the State Treasurer.

(2) The State Treasurer shall notify each bank depository or credit union depository and the depository's custodian of the total aggregate public funds deposits of all public officials in all bank depositories or credit union depositories, as appropriate, based on the most recently submitted treasurer reports. The State Treasurer shall give the notification required by this subsection by the last day of the month in which the depositories are required to submit a treasurer report.

(3) If a depository's aggregate of public funds deposits exceeds the amount set forth in subsection (1) of this section, the depository shall, within three business days after receiving notice from the State Treasurer, cease accepting deposits of public funds.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3) of this section:

(a) A depository may accept and hold public funds deposits in excess of the limits specified in subsection (1) of this section if the State Treasurer, upon good cause shown, approves the depository's request to hold public funds in excess of the limits specified in subsection (1) of this section for a period not exceeding 90 days and eligible securities are deposited with the depository's custodian as collateral in an amount at least equal to the amount of the uninsured public funds deposits that exceeds the limits specified in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) The limits specified in subsection (1) of this section do not apply to public funds deposits a depository holds in a certificate of deposit or time deposit under ORS 295.004 (1) or public funds that an Oregon depository arranges to deposit into an insured deposit account under ORS 295.004 (2).

(c) A well capitalized depository or an adequately capitalized depository may accept and hold public funds deposits that exceed the limit specified in subsection (1)(d) or (e) of this section if eligible securities are deposited with the depository's custodian as collateral in an amount at least equal to the amount of the uninsured public funds deposits that exceed the limit specified in subsection (1)(d) or (e) of this section.

SECTION 9. The amendments to ORS 295.001, 295.004, 295.046 and 295.048 by sections 1 to 8 of this 2011 Act apply to public funds deposits held on or after the effective date of this 2011 Act.
