8 the person did not know the minor's age or that the person reasonably believed the minor 9 to be 18 years of age or older.

10 (e) As used in this subsection, "minor" means a person under 18 years of age.

11 SECTION 4. ORS 12.117 is amended to read:

12 12.117. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 12.110, 12.115 or 12.160, an action based on conduct that con-13 stitutes child abuse or conduct knowingly allowing, permitting or encouraging child abuse that oc-14 curs while the person is under 18 years of age must be commenced before the person attains 40 15 years of age, or if the person has not discovered the causal connection between the injury and the 16 child abuse, nor in the exercise of reasonable care should have discovered the causal connection 17 between the injury and the child abuse, not more than five years from the date the person discovers 18 or in the exercise of reasonable care should have discovered the causal connection between the 19 child abuse and the injury, whichever period is longer.

20 (2) As used in subsection (1) of this section, "child abuse" means any of the following:

21 (a) Intentional conduct by an adult that results in:

22 (A) Any physical injury to a child; or 23 (B) Any mental injury to a child which results in observable and substantial impairment of the 24 child's mental or psychological ability to function caused by cruelty to the child, with due regard 25 to the culture of the child;

26 (b) Rape of a child, which includes but is not limited to rape, sodomy, unlawful sexual pene-27 tration and incest, as those acts are defined in ORS chapter 163;

28 (c) Sexual abuse, as defined in ORS chapter 163, when the victim is a child; or 29 (d) Sexual exploitation of a child, including but not limited to:

30 (A) Conduct constituting violation of ORS 163.435 and any other conduct which allows, employs, 31 authorizes, permits, induces or encourages a child to engage in the performing for people to observe 32 or the photographing, filming, tape recording or other exhibition which, in whole or in part, depicts 33 sexual conduct or contact; and

34 (B) Allowing, permitting, encouraging or hiring a child to engage in prostitution or to patronize 35 a prostitute, as defined in ORS chapter 167.

36 (3) Nothing in this section creates a new cause of action or enlarges any existing cause of 37 action.

38 SECTION 5. ORS 90.396 is amended to read:

39 90.396. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, after at least 24 hours' written 40 notice specifying the acts and omissions constituting the cause and specifying the date and time of 41 the termination, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement and take possession as provided 42 in ORS 105.105 to 105.168, if:

43 (a) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet seriously threatens to inflict 44 substantial personal injury, or inflicts any substantial personal injury, upon a person on the prem-45 ises other than the tenant;

1 (b) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control recklessly endangers a person on the premises 2 other than the tenant by creating a serious risk of substantial personal injury;

3 (c) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet inflicts any substantial per-4 sonal injury upon a neighbor living in the immediate vicinity of the premises;

5 (d) The tenant or someone in the tenant's control intentionally inflicts any substantial damage 6 to the premises or the tenant's pet inflicts substantial damage to the premises on more than one 7 occasion;

8 (e)(A) The tenant intentionally provided substantial false information on the application for the 9 tenancy within the past year;

10 (B) The false information was with regard to a criminal conviction of the tenant that would have 11 been material to the landlord's acceptance of the application; and 12 (C) The landlord terminates the rental agreement within 30 days after discovering the falsity 13 of the information; or

14 (f) The tenant, someone in the tenant's control or the tenant's pet commits any act that is out-15 rageous in the extreme, on the premises or in the immediate vicinity of the premises. For purposes 16 of this paragraph, an act is outrageous in the extreme if the act is not described in paragraphs (a) 17 to (e) of this subsection, but is similar in degree and is one that a reasonable person in that com-18 munity would consider to be so offensive as to warrant termination of the tenancy within 24 hours, 19 considering the seriousness of the act or the risk to others. An act that is outrageous in the extreme 20 is more extreme or serious than an act that warrants a 30-day termination under ORS 90.392. Acts 21 that are "outrageous in the extreme" include, but are not limited to, the following acts by a person:

22 (A) Prostitution, patronizing a prostitute or [promotion of] promoting prostitution, as de-23 scribed in ORS 167.007 and 167.012 and section 3 of this 2011 Act;

24 (B) Manufacture, delivery or possession of a controlled substance, as described in ORS 475.005, 25 but not including:

26 (i) The medical use of marijuana in compliance with ORS 475.300 to 475.346;

27 (ii) Possession of, or delivery for no consideration of, less than one avoirdupois ounce of 28 marijuana as described in ORS 475.860 (3) or 475.864 (3); or

29 (iii) Possession of prescription drugs;

30 (C) Intimidation, as described in ORS 166.155 and 166.165; or 31 (D) Burglary as described in ORS 164.215 and 164.225.

32 (2) If the cause for a termination notice given pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is based 33 upon the acts of the tenant's pet, the tenant may cure the cause and avoid termination of the 34 tenancy by removing the pet from the premises prior to the end of the notice period. The notice 35 must describe the right of the tenant to cure the cause. If the tenant returns the pet to the premises 36 at any time after having cured the violation, the landlord, after at least 24 hours' written notice 37 specifying the subsequent presence of the offending pet, may terminate the rental agreement and 38 take possession as provided in ORS 105.105 to 105.168. The tenant does not have a right to cure this 39 subsequent violation.

40 (3) For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, someone is in the tenant's control if that per-41 son enters or remains on the premises with the tenant's permission or consent after the tenant 42 reasonably knows or should know of that person's act or likelihood to commit any act of the type 43 described in subsection (1) of this section.

44 (4) An act can be proven to be outrageous in the extreme even if the act is one that does not 45 violate a criminal statute. Notwithstanding the references to criminal statutes in subsection (1)(f)

1 of this section, the landlord's burden of proof in an action for possession under subsection (1) of this 2 section is the civil standard of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

3 (5) If a good faith effort by a landlord to terminate the tenancy under subsection (1)(f) of this 4 section and to recover possession of the rental unit under ORS 105.105 to 105.168 fails by decision 5 of the court, the landlord may not be found in violation of any state statute or local ordinance re-6 quiring the landlord to remove that tenant upon threat of fine, abatement or forfeiture as long as 7 the landlord continues to make a good faith effort to terminate the tenancy.

8 SECTION 6. ORS 105.555 is amended to read:

9 105.555. (1) The following are declared to be nuisances and shall be enjoined and abated as 10 provided in ORS 105.550 to 105.600:

11 (a) Any place that, as a regular course of business, is used for the purpose of prostitution and 12 any place where acts of prostitution or patronizing a prostitute occur;

13 (b) Any place that is used and maintained for profit and for the purpose of gambling or a lottery, 14 as defined in ORS 167.117, by any person, partnership or corporation organized for profit and 15 wherein take place any of the acts or wherein are kept, stored or located any of the games, devices 16 or things that are forbidden by or made punishable by ORS 167.108 to 167.164;

17 (c) Any place that has been determined to be not fit for use under ORS 453.876 and that has 18 not been decontaminated and certified as fit for use under ORS 453.885 within 180 days after the 19 determination under ORS 453.876; and 20 (d) Any place where activity involving the unauthorized delivery, manufacture or possession of 21 a controlled substance, as defined in ORS 475.005, occurs or any place wherein are kept, stored or 22 located any of the devices, equipment, things or substances used for unauthorized delivery, manu-23 facture or possession of a controlled substance. As used in this paragraph, "devices, equipment, 24 things" does not include hypodermic syringes or needles. This paragraph does not apply to acts that 25 constitute violations under ORS 475.860 or 475.864.

26 (2) Nothing in ORS 105.550 to 105.600, 166.715 and 167.158 applies to property to the extent that 27 the devices, equipment, things or substances that are used for delivery, manufacture or possession 28 of a controlled substance are kept, stored or located in or on the property for the purpose of lawful 29 sale or use of these items.

13 133.724. (1) An ex parte order for the interception of wire, electronic or oral communications 14 may be issued by any circuit court judge upon written application made upon oath or affirmation 15 of the individual who is the district attorney or a deputy district attorney authorized by the district 16 attorney for the county in which the order is sought. The application shall include:

17 (a) The name of the district attorney or the deputy district attorney making the application and 18 the authority of the district attorney or the deputy district attorney to make the application;

19 (b) The identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application and the 20 officer authorizing the application;

21 (c) A statement demonstrating that there is probable cause to believe that an individual is 22 committing, has committed or is about to commit:

23 (A) A particular felony of murder, kidnapping, arson, robbery, bribery, extortion or other crime 24 dangerous to life and punishable as a felony;

25 (B) A crime punishable as a felony under ORS 166.720, 475.840, 475.846 to 475.894 or 475.904 to 27 (C) Any conspiracy to commit any of the foregoing crimes;

28 (d) A statement of the details, if known, of the particular crime alleged under paragraph (c) of 29 this subsection;

30 (e) A particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which or the place 31 where the wire, electronic or oral communication is to be intercepted, if known;

32 (f) A particular description of the type of wire, electronic or oral communication sought to be 33 intercepted;

34 (g) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose wire, 35 electronic or oral communications are to be intercepted;

36 (h) A full and complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have been 37 tried and failed or why other investigative procedures reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed 38 if tried or are likely to be too dangerous;

39 (i) A statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained. If 40 the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not automat-41 ically terminate when the described type of wire, electronic or oral communication has been first 42 obtained, a description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communi-43 cations of the same type will occur thereafter;

44 (j) A statement as to whether any prior application has been made to intercept wire, electronic 45 or oral communications from the same person and, if such prior application exists, a statement of 1 the current status of that application; and

2 (k) Where the application is for the extension of an existing order, a statement setting forth the 3 results thus far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain 4 such results.

5 (2) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence 6 in support of the application.

7 (3) Upon examination of such application and evidence the judge may enter an ex parte order, 8 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire, electronic or oral com-9 munications within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the ap-10 plicant that:

11 (a) There is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed or is about 12 to commit a particular crime described in subsection (1)(c) of this section;

13 (b) There is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that crime will 14 be obtained through such interception;

15 (c) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be 16 unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely to be too dangerous; and

17 (d) There is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire, 18 electronic or oral communications to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in 19 connection with the planning or the commission of that crime are open to the public or are owned 20 by, leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by the individual suspected.

21 (4) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire, electronic or oral com-22 munication shall specify:

23 (a) The identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted;

24 (b) The nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where, 25 authority to intercept is granted;

26 (c) A particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted, and a state-27 ment of the particular crime to which it relates;

28 (d) The identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications and of the person 29 authorizing the application;

30 (e) The period of time during which such interception is authorized, including a statement as to 31 whether or not the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communication 32 has been first obtained; and 33 (f) The name of the applicant, date of issuance, and the signature and title of the issuing judge.

34 (5) An order entered pursuant to this section may not authorize or approve the interception of 35 any wire, electronic or oral communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the 36 objective of authorization and in no event for longer than 30 days. Extensions of any order may be 37 granted, but only when application for an extension is made in accordance with subsection (1)(k) of 38 this section and the court makes the findings required by subsection (3) of this section. The period 39 of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purpose 40 for which it is granted and in no event for longer than 30 days. Every order and extension of that 41 order shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept must be executed as soon as 42 practicable, must be conducted in such a way as to minimize the interception of communications not 43 otherwise subject to interception, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, 44 or in any event in 30 days.

45 (6) Whenever an order authorizing interception is entered pursuant to this section, the order

1 may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order showing what progress has been 2 made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception. Such 3 reports shall be made at such intervals as the judge may require.

4 SECTION 9. ORS 133.726 is amended to read:

5 133.726. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 133.724, under the circumstances described in this section, a 6 law enforcement officer is authorized to intercept an oral communication to which the officer or a 7 person under the direct supervision of the officer is a party, without obtaining an order for the in-8 terception of a wire, electronic or oral communication under ORS 133.724.

9 (2) For purposes of this section and ORS 133.736, a person is a party to an oral communication 10 if the oral communication is made in the person's immediate presence and is audible to the person 11 regardless of whether the communication is specifically directed to the person.

12 (3) An ex parte order for intercepting an oral communication in any county of this state under 13 this section may be issued by any judge as defined in ORS 133.525 upon written application made 14 upon oath or affirmation of the district attorney or a deputy district attorney authorized by the 15 district attorney for the county in which the order is sought or upon the oath or affirmation of any 16 peace officer as defined in ORS 133.005. The application shall include:

17 (a) The name of the applicant and the applicant's authority to make the application;

18 (b) A statement demonstrating that:

19 (A) There is probable cause to believe that a person whose oral communication is to be inter-20 cepted is engaged in committing, has committed or is about to commit a particular felony, or a 21 misdemeanor under ORS 167.007 or section 3 of this 2011 Act, and that intercepting the oral 22 communication will yield evidence thereof; or

23 (B)(i) There is reasonable suspicion to believe that a person whose oral communication is to be 24 intercepted is engaged in committing, has committed or is about to commit a crime;

25 (ii) There is reasonable suspicion to believe that the circumstances in which the oral communi-26 cation is to be intercepted present a substantial risk of death, serious physical injury or sexual as-
27 sault to a law enforcement officer or a person under the direct supervision of the officer;

28 (iii) Interception of the oral communication is necessary to protect the safety of the person who 29 may be endangered; and

30 (iv) Other investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be 31 unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely to be too dangerous; and

32 (c) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose oral 33 communication is to be intercepted.

34 (4) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence 35 in support of the application.

36 (5) Upon examination of the application and evidence, the judge may enter an ex parte order,
37 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving the interception of an oral communication 38 within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

39 (a)(A) There is probable cause to believe that a person is engaged in committing, has committed 40 or is about to commit a particular felony, or a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007 or section 3 of this 41 2011 Act; and

42 (B) There is probable cause to believe that the oral communication to be obtained will contain 43 evidence concerning that crime; or

44 (b)(A) There is reasonable suspicion to believe that a person whose oral communication is to 45 be intercepted is engaged in committing, has committed or is about to commit a crime;

1 (B) There is reasonable suspicion to believe that the circumstances in which the oral communi-2 cation is to be intercepted present a substantial risk of death, serious physical injury or sexual as-
3 sault to a law enforcement officer or a person under the direct supervision of the officer;

4 (C) Interception of the oral communication is necessary to protect the safety of the person who 5 may be endangered; and

6 (D) Other investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be 7 unlikely to succeed if tried or are likely to be too dangerous.

8 (6) An order authorizing or approving the interception of an oral communication under this 9 section must specify:

10 (a) The identity of the person, if known, whose oral communication is to be intercepted;

11 (b) A statement identifying the particular crime to which the oral communication is expected 12 to relate;

13 (c) The agency authorized under the order to intercept the oral communication;

14 (d) The name and office of the applicant and the signature and title of the issuing judge;

15 (e) A period of time after which the order shall expire; and 16 (f) A statement that the order authorizes only the interception of an oral communication to 17 which a law enforcement officer or a person under the direct supervision of a law enforcement of-18 ficer is a party.

19 (7) An order under ORS 133.724 or this section is not required when a law enforcement officer 20 intercepts an oral communication to which the officer or a person under the direct supervision of 21 the officer is a party if the oral communication is made by a person whom the officer has probable 22 cause to believe has committed, is engaged in committing or is about to commit:

23 (a) A crime punishable as a felony under ORS 475.840, 475.846 to 475.894 or 475.904 to 475.910 24 or as a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007 or section 3 of this 2011 Act; or

25 (b) Any other crime punishable as a felony if the circumstances at the time the oral communi-
26 cation is intercepted are of such exigency that it would be unreasonable to obtain a court order
27 under ORS 133.724 or this section.

28 (8) A law enforcement officer who intercepts an oral communication pursuant to this section
29 may not intentionally fail to record and preserve the oral communication in its entirety. A law 30 enforcement officer, or a person under the direct supervision of the officer, who is authorized under 31 this section to intercept an oral communication is not required to exclude from the interception an 32 oral communication made by a person for whom probable cause does not exist if the officer or the 33 person under the officer's direct supervision is a party to the oral communication.

34 (9) A law enforcement officer may not divulge the contents of an oral communication intercepted 35 under this section before a preliminary hearing or trial in which an oral communication is going to 36 be introduced as evidence against a person except:

37 (a) To a superior officer or other official with whom the law enforcement officer is cooperating
38 in the enforcement of the criminal laws of this state or the United States;

39 (b) To a magistrate;

40 (c) In a presentation to a federal or state grand jury; or 41 (d) In compliance with a court order.

44 (11) As used in this section, "law enforcement officer" means an officer employed by the United 45 States, this state or a municipal government within this state, or a political subdivision, agency,

1 department or bureau of those governments, to enforce criminal laws.

2 (12) Violation of subsection (9) of this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

3 SECTION 10. ORS 133.726, as amended by section 3, chapter 442, Oregon Laws 2007, is 4 amended to read:

5 133.726. (1) Notwithstanding ORS 133.724, under the circumstances described in this section, a 6 law enforcement officer is authorized to intercept an oral communication to which the officer or a

8 terception of a wire, electronic or oral communication under ORS 133.724.

9 (2) For purposes of this section and ORS 133.736, a person is a party to an oral communication

11 regardless of whether the communication is specifically directed to the person.

12 (3) An ex parte order for intercepting an oral communication in any county of this state under 13 this section may be issued by any judge as defined in ORS 133.525 upon written application made 14 upon oath or affirmation of the district attorney or a deputy district attorney authorized by the

21 intercepting the oral communication will yield evidence thereof; and

22 (c) The identity of the person, if known, suspected of committing the crime and whose oral 23 communication is to be intercepted.

24 (4) The judge may require the applicant to furnish further testimony or documentary evidence 25 in support of the application.

26 (5) Upon examination of the application and evidence, the judge may enter an ex parte order,
27 as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving the interception of an oral communication 28 within the state if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

29 (a) There is probable cause to believe that a person is engaged in committing, has committed 30 or is about to commit a particular felony, or a misdemeanor under ORS 167.007 or section 3 of this 31 2011 Act; and

32 (b) There is probable cause to believe that the oral communication to be obtained will contain

45 (7) An order under ORS 133.724 or this section is not required when a law enforcement officer

1 intercepts an oral communication to which the officer or a person under the direct supervision of
2 the officer is a party if the oral communication is made by a person whom the officer has probable
3 cause to believe has committed, is engaged in committing or is about to commit:

4 (a) A crime punishable as a felony under ORS 475.840, 475.846 to 475.894 or 475.906 or as a 5 misdemeanor under ORS 167.007 or section 3 of this 2011 Act; or

6 (b) Any other crime punishable as a felony if the circumstances at the time the oral communi-
7 cation is intercepted are of such exigency that it would be unreasonable to obtain a court order
8 under ORS 133.724 or this section.

9 (8) A law enforcement officer who intercepts an oral communication pursuant to this section
10 may not intentionally fail to record and preserve the oral communication in its entirety. A law 11 enforcement officer, or a person under the direct supervision of the officer, who is authorized under 12 this section to intercept an oral communication is not required to exclude from the interception an 13 oral communication made by a person for whom probable cause does not exist if the officer or the 14 person under the officer's direct supervision is a party to the oral communication.

15 (9) A law enforcement officer may not divulge the contents of an oral communication intercepted 16 under this section before a preliminary hearing or trial in which an oral communication is going to 17 be introduced as evidence against a person except:

18 (a) To a superior officer or other official with whom the law enforcement officer is cooperating
19 in the enforcement of the criminal laws of this state or the United States;

20 (b) To a magistrate;

23 (10) A law enforcement officer may intercept an oral communication under this section only 24 when acting within the scope of the officer's employment and as a part of assigned duties.

25 (11) As used in this section, "law enforcement officer" means an officer employed by the United 26 States, this state or a municipal government within this state, or a political subdivision, agency, 27 department or bureau of those governments, to enforce criminal laws.
