- 3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:
 - SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section:
 - (a) "Boarding kennel" means a facility that provides care for a fee to domestic animals that stay at the facility an average of less than 30 days.
 - (b) "Domestic animal" means an animal that has a keeper and is not livestock.
 - (c) "Keeper" means the owner of a domestic animal or an agent of the owner that has apparent authority to secure care for the domestic animal.
 - (d) "Livestock" means equines, bovines, llamas, alpacas, sheep, goats and swine, and chickens, turkeys and other domesticated fowl.
 - (2) A veterinary facility or a boarding kennel may provide for the removal of a domestic animal from the veterinary facility or boarding kennel if the keeper does not retake possession of the domestic animal. Prior to the removal of a domestic animal under this section, the veterinary facility or boarding kennel must send the keeper a letter by certified mail notifying the keeper that the domestic animal will be removed from the veterinary facility or boarding kennel if the keeper does not arrange to retake possession of the domestic animal. The letter must be addressed to the last address for the keeper known to the veterinary facility or boarding kennel.
 - (3) If the keeper does not contact the veterinary facility or boarding kennel and arrange to retake possession of the domestic animal, the veterinary facility or boarding kennel may provide for removal of the domestic animal four or more days after the keeper has received or refused delivery of the letter sent under subsection (2) of this section, as evidenced by the certified mail receipt or upon the letter being returned as undeliverable. If the keeper contacts the veterinary facility or boarding kennel but fails to retake possession of the domestic animal as arranged, the veterinary facility or boarding kennel may provide for removal of the domestic animal four or more days after the date on which the keeper fails to retake possession of the domestic animal. The removal of a domestic animal under this section may be by:
 - (a) Placing the domestic animal with a rescue group or animal shelter;
 - (b) Adopting out the domestic animal;

(c) Selling the domestic animal; or
