41 to the proceeding, it may file a brief with the board as if it were a party. The brief shall be due on 42 the same date the respondent's brief is due and shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $100.

2 mailed or otherwise submitted to parties entitled to notice under ORS 197.615. Failure to include a 3 certificate of mailing with the notice mailed under ORS 197.615 shall not render the notice defective.
4 Copies of the notice of intent to appeal shall be served upon the local government, special district

6 agency proceeding. The notice shall be served and filed in the form and manner prescribed by rule

17 (b) Within 10 days after service of a notice of intent to appeal, the board shall provide notice
18 to the petitioner and the respondent of their option to enter into mediation pursuant to ORS 197.860.

20 intervene is filed. The notice required by this paragraph shall be accompanied by a statement that 21 mediation information or assistance may be obtained from the Department of Land Conservation and

33 respondent's brief, the local government or state agency may withdraw its decision for purposes of 34 reconsideration. If a local government or state agency withdraws an order for purposes of recon-35 sideration, it shall, within such time as the board may allow, affirm, modify or reverse its decision.
36 If the petitioner is dissatisfied with the local government or agency action after withdrawal for 37 purposes of reconsideration, the petitioner may refile the notice of intent and the review shall pro-
38 ceed upon the revised order. An amended notice of intent shall not be required if the local govern-
39 ment or state agency, on reconsideration, affirms the order or modifies the order with only minor 40 changes.

41 (14) The board shall issue a final order within 77 days after the date of transmittal of the record.
42 If the order is not issued within 77 days the applicant may apply in Marion County or the circuit 43 court of the county where the application was filed for a writ of mandamus to compel the board to 44 issue a final order.

45 (15)(a) Upon entry of its final order the board may, in its discretion, award costs to the pre-

1 vailing party including the cost of preparation of the record if the prevailing party is the local 2 government, special district or state agency whose decision is under review. The deposit required 3 by subsection (9) of this section shall be applied to any costs charged against the petitioner.

4 (b) The board shall also award reasonable attorney fees and expenses to the prevailing party
5 against any other party who the board finds presented a position without probable cause to believe
