1 of this 2011 Act and that has been issued a policy by an insurer or a supervising entity pur-
2 suant to which the vendor may issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics insurance
3 coverage to customers.

4 “SECTION 2. (1) A vendor may not issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics in-
5 surance coverage unless the vendor has been issued a limited license by the Department of 6 Consumer and Business Services under this section.

7 “(2)(a) An application for a limited license under this section must be submitted on a
8 form in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection and accompanied by a fee as pre-9 scribed by the department by rule.

10 “(b) The application must, at a minimum, include:

11 “(A) The name and street address of an employee, agent or authorized representative of 12 the vendor who is the person designated by the vendor as being responsible for the vendor’s
13 compliance with sections 1 to 7 of this 2011 Act; and

14 “(B) The name and address in this state of a person designated by the vendor as the 15 vendor’s agent upon whom may be served, in the manner described in ORS 59.155, at any 16 time any process, notice or demand in a civil proceeding brought in connection with portable
17 electronics insurance coverage, including a proceeding brought by the Director of the De-
18 partment of Consumer and Business Services.

19 “(c) A vendor licensed under this section shall annually update the contact information
20 provided to the department under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

21 “(3)(a) A limited license issued under this section is valid for two years unless suspended
22 or revoked by the department.

23 “(b) A limited license may be renewed upon expiration for another two-year period upon 24 application of the vendor and payment of a fee as prescribed by the department by rule.

25 “(4) A vendor licensed under this section may not advertise, represent or otherwise hold 26 itself out as being licensed to sell any other type of insurance unless the vendor is actually 27 licensed under the laws of this state to sell the other type of insurance.

28 “SECTION 3. (1) A vendor policyholder may bill and collect the cost of portable elec-
29 tronics insurance coverage purchased by an enrolled customer. Any charge to the enrolled
30 customer for coverage that is not included in the cost to the enrolled customer to purchase
31 or lease portable electronics must be separately itemized in writing. If the coverage is in-32 cluded with the purchase or lease of portable electronics, whether or not the coverage is 33 included in the cost to the enrolled customer of the purchase or lease of the portable elec-34 tronics, the vendor policyholder shall clearly and conspicuously disclose in writing to the 35 enrolled customer that the coverage is included with the purchase or lease of the portable
36 electronics.

37 “(2) If authorized by an insurer or a supervising entity, a vendor policyholder that bills
38 and collects the cost of portable electronics insurance coverage from an enrolled customer 39 is not required to deposit the amount paid in a segregated account but shall remit the 40 amount collected to the insurer or the supervising entity within 60 days of receipt from the 41 enrolled customer.

42 “(3) Moneys collected by a vendor policyholder from an enrolled customer for the cost
43 of portable electronics insurance coverage are funds held by the vendor policyholder in trust
44 for the benefit of the insurer or the supervising entity.

45 “(4) A vendor policyholder may receive compensation from an insurer or a supervising

1 entity for billing and collecting the cost of portable electronics insurance coverage purchased
2 by enrolled customers.

3 “(5) Vendor policyholders, insurers and supervising entities are not subject to ORS
4 744.083 and 744.084.

5 “SECTION 4. A vendor policyholder shall make available to prospective customers of 6 portable electronics written materials that disclose:

7 “(1) That portable electronics insurance coverage may duplicate coverage already held 8 by the customer, including but not limited to homeowner’s insurance or renter’s insurance;

9 “(2) That issuance of portable electronics insurance coverage is not required for the 10 customer to purchase or lease portable electronics;

11 “(3) The material terms of coverage, including but not limited to:

12 “(a) The identity of and contact information for the insurer or the supervising entity that 13 issued the insurance policy to the vendor policyholder;

14 “(b) The amount of any applicable deductible and how the deductible is required to be paid
15 when a claim is made;

16 “(c) The benefits of coverage; and

17 “(d) Whether the covered portable electronics will be repaired or replaced with a similar 18 make and model, with a new or reconditioned device, accessory or part, or with a device,
19 accessory or part from other than the original manufacturer;

20 “(4) The process and requirements for returning portable electronics, and any fees that 21 will apply in the event the enrolled customer does not comply with the process and require-22 ments; and

23 “(5) That the enrolled customer may cancel the portable electronics insurance coverage
24 at any time and that the person paying the premium shall receive a refund of the unused
25 portion of any amount that has been paid for coverage. A reasonable administrative fee may 26 be charged in an amount not to exceed 10 percent of the refund due.

27 “SECTION 5. (1) An employee, agent or authorized representative of a vendor
28 policyholder may issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics insurance coverage to a 29 customer without obtaining a limited license under section 2 of this 2011 Act if:

30 “(a) The vendor policyholder has been issued a limited license under section 2 of this 2011
31 Act; and

32 “(b) The insurer or the supervising entity that issued a policy of portable electronics in-33 surance to the vendor policyholder develops a training program for employees, agents and 34 authorized representatives of the vendor policyholder that:

35 “(A) Is completed by employees, agents and authorized representatives of the vendor
36 policyholder who are directly engaged in the issuing, selling or offering for sale of portable
37 electronics insurance coverage to customers;

38 “(B) Includes basic instruction about portable electronics insurance coverage and the 39 disclosures required under section 4 of this 2011 Act; and

40 “(C) If delivered electronically, includes a supplementary education program that is con-
41 ducted and overseen by employees of the insurer or the supervising entity.

42 “(2) An employee, agent or authorized representative of a vendor policyholder who is 43 authorized to issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics insurance coverage under this 44 section may not advertise, represent or otherwise hold themselves out as holding a limited
45 license under section 2 of this 2011 Act or being a licensed insurer or insurance producer as

1 those terms are defined in ORS 731.104 and 731.106 unless the employee, agent or authorized
2 representative has been issued a limited license or is licensed as an insurer or insurance
3 producer under the laws of this state.

4 “(3) The acts of an employee, agent or authorized representative of a vendor policyholder
5 who is authorized to issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics insurance coverage un-
6 der this section are deemed to be the acts of the vendor policyholder for purposes of sections
7 1 to 7 of this 2011 Act.

8 “SECTION 6. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the insurer
9 or the supervising entity that has issued a policy of portable electronics insurance to a ven-10 dor policyholder may not modify or terminate the terms and conditions of the policy unless 11 the insurer or the supervising entity:

12 “(a) Provides the vendor policyholder and enrolled customers with notice of the modifi-13 cation or termination not less than 60 days prior to the effective date of the modification or 14 termination; and

15 “(b) In the event of a modification only, provides:

16 “(A) The vendor policyholder with a revised policy or endorsement evidencing the mod-17 ification; and

18 “(B) Each enrolled customer with a revised certificate, endorsement or other evidence
19 of a change in terms and conditions, updated written materials and a summary of the ma-
20 terial changes to the terms and conditions of coverage.

21 “(2)(a) An insurer or a supervising entity may terminate an enrolled customer’s portable
22 electronics insurance coverage:

23 “(A) Upon discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation made by the enrolled cus-24 tomer in obtaining the coverage or in the presentation of a claim; or 25 “(B) For nonpayment of a premium.

26 “(b) The insurer or the supervising entity must notify the enrolled customer at least 15
27 days before a termination under this subsection.

28 “(3) An insurer or a supervising entity may immediately terminate an enrolled 29 customer’s portable electronics insurance coverage if the enrolled customer ceases to have 30 active wireless service with the vendor policyholder or the enrolled customer exhausts the 31 aggregate limit of liability, and the insurer or the supervising entity sends notice of termi-
32 nation to the enrolled customer within 30 days after the active service ceases or the limit
33 has been exhausted.

34 “(4) A vendor policyholder that has issued portable electronics insurance coverage to an 35 enrolled customer may not terminate the coverage unless the vendor policyholder provides 36 the enrolled customer with notice of the termination not less than 30 days prior to the ef-
37 fective date of the termination.

38 “(5)(a) Notice to a vendor policyholder or enrolled customer that is required under this
39 section may either be sent as an electronic record in accordance with ORS 84.001 to 84.061
40 and 84.070, or:

41 “(A) In the case of a vendor policyholder, mailed by registered or certified mail or deliv-
42 ered to the vendor policyholder at the vendor policyholder’s principal place of business in this 43 state; or

44 “(B) In the case of an enrolled customer, mailed by registered or certified mail to the 45 enrolled customer’s last known mailing address.

1           “(b) An insurer, a supervising entity or a vendor policyholder providing notice under this 2 section must maintain proof of providing the notice for a minimum of three years after the 3 termination of the portable electronics insurance coverage.

4           “SECTION 7. The Department of Consumer and Business Services shall adopt rules to 5 carry out the provisions of sections 1 to 7 of this 2011 Act.

6           “SECTION 8. In addition to all other penalties and enforcement provisions provided by 7 law, if a person violates a provision of sections 1 to 7 of this 2011 Act or a rule adopted by 8 the Department of Consumer and Business Services under section 7 of this 2011 Act, the 9 department may:

10          “(1) Suspend or revoke the person’s limited license issued under section 2 of this 2011
11 Act;

12          “(2) Modify the terms of the person’s limited license issued under section 2 of this 2011
13 Act to limit:

14          “(a) The locations at which a vendor policyholder may issue, sell or offer for sale portable 15 electronics insurance coverage; or

16          “(b) The ability of employees, agents or authorized representatives of the vendor 17 policyholder to issue, sell or offer for sale portable electronics insurance coverage; and 18          “(3) Impose a civil penalty in the manner provided in ORS 183.745 not to exceed $1,000

19 per violation or $10,000 for multiple violations.

20          “SECTION 9. A vendor that is engaged in the issuance, sale or offering for sale of port-
21 able electronics insurance coverage on the operative date set forth in section 10 of this 2011
22 Act shall apply for a limited license under section 2 of this 2011 Act within 90 days after the 23 operative date specified in section 10 of this 2011 Act.

24          “SECTION 10. Sections 1 to 9 of this 2011 Act become operative on January 1, 2012.

25          “SECTION 11. The Department of Consumer and Business Services may take any action 26 before the operative date specified in section 10 of this 2011 Act that is necessary for the 27 department to exercise, on and after the operative date specified in section 10 of this 2011
28 Act, all of the duties, functions and powers conferred on the department by sections 1 to 8
29 of this 2011 Act.

30          “SECTION 12. This 2011 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public
31 peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2011 Act takes effect 32 on its passage.”.
