

Senate Bill 429

Printed pursuant to Senate Interim Rule 213.28 by order of the President of the Senate in conformance with pre-session filing rules, indicating neither advocacy nor opposition on the part of the President (at the request of Senate Interim Committee on Judiciary)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced.

Authorizes detention of minor accused of certain prostitution-related conduct for up to three judicial days under certain circumstances.

Declares emergency, effective on passage.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to prostitution; amending ORS 419C.136; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 419C.136 is amended to read:

419C.136. (1) If a parent, guardian or other person responsible for the youth cannot be found or will not take responsibility for the youth, no appropriate shelter care space is available and the youth cannot be released safely on recognizance or conditionally, a youth who is accused of an act [which] that would be a crime if committed by an adult may be detained for a period of time not exceeding 36 hours from the time the youth is first [is] taken into custody to allow the juvenile department counselor or other person designated by the juvenile court to develop a release plan to [insure] ensure the youth's safety and appearance in court.

(2) Notwithstanding ORS 419C.139, a youth may be detained for a period of time not exceeding three judicial days from the time the youth is first taken into custody to allow the juvenile department counselor or other person designated by the juvenile court to develop a release plan to ensure the youth's safety and appearance in court if:

(a) The youth is alleged to have committed an act that would constitute a violation of ORS 167.007 (1)(a) if committed by an adult; and

(b) There is reason to believe that, if released, the youth would be likely to commit an act that would constitute a violation of ORS 167.007 (1)(a) if committed by an adult.

(3) [Such] Detention under this section shall conform to the limitations of ORS 419C.130.

SECTION 2. This 2011 Act being necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is declared to exist, and this 2011 Act takes effect on its passage.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
