dated May 26

Sponsored by Senator STARR (Presession filed.)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure.

Authorizes court to terminate parental rights of parent convicted of first or second degree rape with respect to child conceived as result of that rape. Specifies that termination of parental rights does not relieve parent of obligation to pay child support.

Prohibits court from awarding custody or parenting time to parent convicted of first or second degree rape with respect to child conceived as result of that rape.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

2 Relating to parental rights of parent convicted of rape; creating new provisions; and amending ORS
3 107.105, 107.137 and 419B.500.

4 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

5 SECTION 1. Section 2 of this 2011 Act is added to and made a part of ORS 419B.502 to 6 419B.524.

7 SECTION 2. (1) The rights of the parent may be terminated as provided in ORS 419B.500
8 if the court finds that the child or ward was conceived as the result of an act that led to the 9 parent's conviction for rape under ORS 163.365 or 163.375 or other comparable law of another 10 jurisdiction.

11 (2) Termination of parental rights under subsection (1) of this section does not relieve 12 the parent of any obligation to pay child support.

13 (3) Termination of parental rights under subsection (1) of this section is an independent 14 basis for termination of parental rights and the court need not make any of the consider-
15 ations or findings described in ORS 419B.502, 419B.504, 419B.506 or 419B.508.

16 SECTION 3. ORS 107.137 is amended to read:

17 107.137. (1) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, in determining custody of 18 a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135, the court shall give primary consideration to the best 19 interests and welfare of the child. In determining the best interests and welfare of the child, the 20 court shall consider the following relevant factors:

21 (a) The emotional ties between the child and other family members;

22 (b) The interest of the parties in and attitude toward the child;

23 (c) The desirability of continuing an existing relationship;

24 (d) The abuse of one parent by the other;

25 (e) The preference for the primary caregiver of the child, if the caregiver is deemed fit by the 26 court; and

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted.
New sections are in boldfaced type.

1 (f) The willingness and ability of each parent to facilitate and encourage a close and continuing 2 relationship between the other parent and the child. However, the court may not consider such 3 willingness and ability if one parent shows that the other parent has sexually assaulted or engaged
4 in a pattern of behavior of abuse against the parent or a child and that a continuing relationship
5 with the other parent will endanger the health or safety of either parent or the child.

6 (2) The best interests and welfare of the child in a custody matter shall not be determined by 7 isolating any one of the relevant factors referred to in subsection (1) of this section, or any other
8 relevant factor, and relying on it to the exclusion of other factors. However, if a parent has com-
9 mitted abuse [,] as defined in ORS 107.705, other than as described in subsection (5) of this
10 section, there is a rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interests and welfare of the child
11 to award sole or joint custody of the child to the parent who committed the abuse.

12 (3) In determining custody of a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135, the court shall con-
13 sider the conduct, marital status, income, social environment or life style of either party only if it 14 is shown that any of these factors are causing or may cause emotional or physical damage to the 15 child.

16 (4) No preference in custody shall be given to the mother over the father for the sole reason
17 that she is the mother, nor shall any preference be given to the father over the mother for the sole 18 reason that he is the father.

19 (5)(a) The court determining custody of a minor child under ORS 107.105 or 107.135 shall 20 not award sole or joint custody of the child to a parent if:

21 (A) The court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 163.365 or 22 163.375 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction; and

23 (B) The rape resulted in the conception of the child.

24 (b) A denial of custody under this subsection does not relieve the parent of any obligation
25 to pay child support.

26 SECTION 4. ORS 107.105 is amended to read:

27 107.105. (1) Whenever the court renders a judgment of marital annulment, dissolution or sepa-
28 ration, the court may provide in the judgment:

29 (a) For the future care and custody, by one party or jointly, of all minor children of the parties 30 born, adopted or conceived during the marriage and for minor children born to the parties prior to 31 the marriage, as the court may deem just and proper under ORS 107.137. The court may hold a 32 hearing to decide the custody issue prior to any other issues. When appropriate, the court shall 33 recognize the value of close contact with both parents and encourage joint parental custody and 34 joint responsibility for the welfare of the children.

35 (b) For parenting time rights of the parent not having custody of such children and for visitation
36 rights pursuant to a petition filed under ORS 109.119. When a parenting plan has been developed
37 as required by ORS 107.102, the court shall review the parenting plan and, if approved, incorporate 38 the parenting plan into the court's final order. When incorporated into a final order, the parenting
39 plan is determinative of parenting time rights. If the parents have been unable to develop a par-40 enting plan or if either of the parents requests the court to develop a detailed parenting plan, the 41 court shall develop the parenting plan in the best interest of the child, ensuring the noncustodial 42 parent sufficient access to the child to provide for appropriate quality parenting time and ensuring 43 the safety of the parties, if implicated. The court shall deny parenting time to a parent under 44 this paragraph if the court finds that the parent has been convicted of rape under ORS 45 163.365 or 163.375 or other comparable law of another jurisdiction and the rape resulted in

1 the conception of the child. Otherwise, the court may deny parenting time to the noncustodial
2 parent under this subsection only if the court finds that parenting time would endanger the health
3 or safety of the child. The court shall recognize the value of close contact with both parents and 4 encourage, when practicable, joint responsibility for the welfare of such children and extensive
5 contact between the minor children of the divided marriage and the parties. If the court awards 6 parenting time to a noncustodial parent who has committed abuse, other than being convicted for 7 rape as described in this paragraph, the court shall make adequate provision for the safety of the 8 child and the other parent in accordance with the provisions of ORS 107.718 (6).

9 (c) For the support of the children of the marriage by the parties. In ordering child support, the 10 formula established under ORS 25.275 shall apply. The court may at any time require an accounting 11 from the custodial parent with reference to the use of the money received as child support. The 12 court is not required to order support for any minor child who has become self-supporting,
13 emancipated or married [or] or for any child who has ceased to attend school after becoming 18 14 years of age.

15 (d) For spousal support, an amount of money for a period of time as may be just and equitable 16 for one party to contribute to the other, in gross or in installments or both. The court may approve
17 an agreement for the entry of an order for the support of a party. In making the spousal support
18 order, the court shall designate one or more categories of spousal support and shall make findings
19 of the relevant factors in the decision. The court may order:

20 (A) Transitional spousal support as needed for a party to attain education and training neces-
21 sary to allow the party to prepare for reentry into the job market or for advancement therein. The 22 factors to be considered by the court in awarding transitional spousal support include but are not 23 limited to:

- 24 (i) The duration of the marriage;
- 25 (ii) A party's training and employment skills;
- 26 (iii) A party's work experience;
- 27 (iv) The financial needs and resources of each party;
- 28 (v) The tax consequences to each party;
- 29 (vi) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
- 30 (vii) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

31 (B) Compensatory spousal support when there has been a significant financial or other contri-32 bution by one party to the education, training, vocational skills, career or earning capacity of the 33 other party and when an order for compensatory spousal support is otherwise just and equitable in 34 all of the circumstances. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding compensatory 35 spousal support include but are not limited to:

- 36 (i) The amount, duration and nature of the contribution;
- 37 (ii) The duration of the marriage;
- 38 (iii) The relative earning capacity of the parties;
- 39 (iv) The extent to which the marital estate has already benefited from the contribution;
- 40 (v) The tax consequences to each party; and
- 41 (vi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.

42 (C) Spousal maintenance as a contribution by one spouse to the support of the other for either
43 a specified or an indefinite period. The factors to be considered by the court in awarding spousal 44 maintenance include but are not limited to:

- 45 (i) The duration of the marriage;

- 1 (ii) The age of the parties;
  - 2 (iii) The health of the parties, including their physical, mental and emotional condition;
  - 3 (iv) The standard of living established during the marriage;
  - 4 (v) The relative income and earning capacity of the parties, recognizing that the wage earner's
  - 5 continuing income may be a basis for support distinct from the income that the supported spouse
  - 6 may receive from the distribution of marital property;
  - 7 (vi) A party's training and employment skills;
  - 8 (vii) A party's work experience;
  - 9 (viii) The financial needs and resources of each party;
  - 10 (ix) The tax consequences to each party;
  - 11 (x) A party's custodial and child support responsibilities; and
  - 12 (xi) Any other factors the court deems just and equitable.
- 13 (e) For the delivery to one party of such party's personal property in the possession or control
- 14 of the other at the time of the giving of the judgment.
- 15 (f) For the division or other disposition between the parties of the real or personal property, or
- 16 both, of either or both of the parties as may be just and proper in all the circumstances. A retire-
- 17 ment plan or pension or an interest therein shall be considered as property. The court shall consider
- 18 the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker as a contribution to the acquisition of marital assets.
- 19 There is a rebuttable presumption that both spouses have contributed equally to the acquisition of
- 20 property during the marriage, whether such property is jointly or separately held. Subsequent to the
- 21 filing of a petition for annulment or dissolution of marriage or separation, the rights of the parties
- 22 in the marital assets shall be considered a species of co-ownership, and a transfer of marital assets
- 23 under a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separation entered on or after Oc-
- 24 tober 4, 1977, shall be considered a partitioning of jointly owned property. The court shall require
- 25 full disclosure of all assets by the parties in arriving at a just property division. In arriving at a
- 26 just and proper division of property, the court shall consider reasonable costs of sale of assets, taxes
- 27 and any other costs reasonably anticipated by the parties. If a spouse has been awarded spousal
- 28 support in lieu of a share of property, the court shall so state on the record and shall order the
- 29 obligor to provide for and maintain life insurance in an amount commensurate with the obligation
- 30 and designating the obligee as beneficiary for the duration of the obligation. If the obligor dies prior
- 31 to the termination of such support and such insurance is not in force, the court may modify the
- 32 method of payment of spousal support under the judgment or order of support from installments to
- 33 a lump sum payment to the obligee from the estate of the obligor in an amount commensurate with
- 34 the present value of the spousal support at the time of death. The obligee or attorney of the obligee
- 35 shall cause a certified copy of the judgment to be delivered to the life insurance company or com-
- 36 panies. If the obligee or the attorney of the obligee delivers a true copy of the judgment to the life
- 37 insurance company or companies, identifying the policies involved and requesting such notification
- 38 under this section, the company or companies shall notify the obligee, as beneficiary of the insur-
- 39 ance policy, whenever the policyholder takes any action that will change the beneficiary or reduce
- 40 the benefits of the policy. Either party may request notification by the insurer when premium
- 41 payments have not been made. If the obligor is ordered to provide for and maintain life insurance,
- 42 the obligor shall provide to the obligee a true copy of the policy. The obligor shall also provide to
- 43 the obligee written notice of any action that will reduce the benefits or change the designation of
- 44 the beneficiaries under the policy.
- 45 (g) For the creation of trusts as follows:

1 (A) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, control and manage for the benefit of 2 the children of the parties, of the marriage or otherwise such of the real or personal property of 3 either or both of the parties, as the court may order to be allocated or appropriated to their support 4 and welfare, and to collect, receive, expend, manage or invest any sum of money awarded for the 5 support and welfare of minor children of the parties.

6 (B) For the appointment of one or more trustees to hold, manage and control such amount of 7 money or such real or personal property of either or both of the parties, as may be set aside, allo-
8 cated or appropriated for the support of a party.

9 (C) For the establishment of the terms of the trust and provisions for the disposition or distrib-
10 ution of such money or property to or between the parties, their successors, heirs and assigns after 11 the purpose of the trust has been accomplished. Upon petition of a party or a person having an in-12 terest in the trust showing a change of circumstances warranting a change in the terms of the trust, 13 the court may make and direct reasonable modifications in its terms.

14 (h) To change the name of either spouse to a name the spouse held before the marriage. The 15 court shall order a change if it is requested by the affected party.

16 (i) For a money award for any sums of money found to be then remaining unpaid upon any order
17 or limited judgment entered under ORS 107.095. If a limited judgment was entered under ORS 18 107.095, the limited judgment shall continue to be enforceable for any amounts not paid under the 19 limited judgment unless those amounts are included in the money award made by the general judg-20 ment.

21 (j) For an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the 22 action in favor of a party or in favor of a party's attorney.

23 (2) In determining the proper amount of support and the proper division of property under sub-
24 section (1)(c), (d) and (f) of this section, the court may consider evidence of the tax consequences 25 on the parties of its proposed judgment.

26 (3) Upon the filing of the judgment, the property division ordered shall be deemed effective for 27 all purposes. This transfer by judgment, which shall affect solely owned property transferred to the 28 other spouse as well as commonly owned property in the same manner as would a declaration of a 29 resulting trust in favor of the spouse to whom the property is awarded, is not a taxable sale or ex-30 change.

31 (4) If an appeal is taken from a judgment of annulment or dissolution of marriage or of separa-
32 tion or from any part of a judgment rendered in pursuance of the provisions of ORS 107.005 to 33 107.086, 107.095, 107.105, 107.115 to 107.174, 107.405, 107.425, 107.445 to 107.520, 107.540 and 107.610,
34 the court rendering the judgment may provide in a supplemental judgment for any relief provided
35 for in ORS 107.095 and shall provide that the relief granted in the judgment is to be in effect only 36 during the pendency of the appeal. A supplemental judgment under this subsection may be enforced
37 as provided in ORS 33.015 to 33.155 and ORS chapter 18. A supplemental judgment under this sub-38 section may be appealed in the same manner as provided for supplemental judgments modifying a 39 domestic relations judgment under ORS 19.275.

40 (5) If an appeal is taken from the judgment or other appealable order in a suit for annulment
41 or dissolution of a marriage or for separation and the appellate court awards costs and disburse-
42 ments to a party, the court may also award to that party, as part of the costs, such additional sum 43 of money as it may adjudge reasonable as an attorney fee on the appeal.

44 (6) If, as a result of a suit for the annulment or dissolution of a marriage or for separation, the 45 parties to such suit become owners of an undivided interest in any real or personal property, or

1 both, either party may maintain supplemental proceedings by filing a petition in such suit for the 2 partition of such real or personal property, or both, within two years from the entry of the judgment,
3 showing among other things that the original parties to the judgment and their joint or several 4 creditors having a lien upon any such real or personal property, if any there be, constitute the sole
5 and only necessary parties to such supplemental proceedings. The procedure in the supplemental 6 proceedings, so far as applicable, shall be the procedure provided in ORS 105.405 for the partition 7 of real property, and the court granting the judgment shall have in the first instance and retain 8 jurisdiction in equity therefor.

9 SECTION 5. ORS 419B.500 is amended to read:

10 419B.500. The parental rights of the parents of a ward may be terminated as provided in this
11 section and ORS 419B.502 to 419B.524 and section 2 of this 2011 Act, only upon a petition filed 12 by the state or the ward for the purpose of freeing the ward for adoption if the court finds it is in 13 the best interest of the ward. If an Indian child is involved, the termination of parental rights must 14 be in compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act. The rights of one parent may be terminated 15 without affecting the rights of the other parent.

16 SECTION 6. Section 2 of this 2011 Act and the amendments to ORS 107.105, 107.137 and 17 419B.500 by sections 3 to 5 of this 2011 Act apply to child custody, parenting time and par-
18 ental termination proceedings filed on or after the effective date of this 2011 Act.

19
