35 to do any of the following:

1 “(a) Interfere with, restrain or coerce employees in or because of the exercise of rights guar-
2 anteed in ORS 243.662.

3 “(b) Dominate, interfere with or assist in the formation, existence or administration of any em-4 ployee organization.

5 “(c) Discriminate in regard to hiring, tenure or any terms or condition of employment for the 6 purpose of encouraging or discouraging membership in an employee organization. Nothing in this 7 section is intended to prohibit the entering into of a fair-share agreement between a public employer
8 and the exclusive bargaining representative of its employees. If a ‘fair-share’ agreement has been 9 agreed to by the public employer and exclusive representative, nothing prohibits the deduction of 10 the payment-in-lieu-of-dues from the salaries or wages of the employees.

39 vidual who is a member of the governing body of a public employer, with respect to a dispute over 40 a collective bargaining agreement or negotiations over employment relations, if an objective or ef-
41 fect of such picketing is to induce another person to cease doing business with the governing body 42 member’s business or to cease handling, transporting or dealing in goods or services produced at the

44 a member of the governing body of a public employer when the collective bargaining negotiation or 45 dispute is between the State of Oregon and a labor organization. The Governor and other statewide

1 elected officials are not considered members of a governing body for purposes of this paragraph.
2 Nothing in this [unfair labor practice provision shall] paragraph may be interpreted or applied in 3 a manner that violates the right of free speech and assembly as protected by the Constitution of the 4 United States or the Constitution of the State of Oregon.

5 “(3) An injured party may file a written complaint with the Employment Relations Board not 6 later than 180 days following the occurrence of an unfair labor practice. For each unfair labor

21 one-half of the applicable fee.

22 “(2) When it comes to the attention of the conciliator that a labor controversy exists or is im-
23 minent, the conciliator may offer mediation services if the conciliator deems it to be in the public 24 interest.

25 “(3) At the request of the Governor, the Employment Relations Board shall instruct the 34 board shall cause an investigation to be made. If, on the basis of this investigation, it appears to the 35 board that an issue of fact or law exists as to a violation of ORS 663.120 to 663.165, the board shall 36 issue a complaint. The complaint shall contain a notice of hearing before the board, at a place fixed 37 in the notice, not less than five days after the serving of the complaint.

38 “(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the board may not issue a complaint based 39 upon an unfair labor practice occurring more than six months before the filing of the charge with 40 the board, and the service of a copy of the charge upon the person against whom the charge is made, 41 unless the person aggrieved by the unfair labor practice was prevented from filing the charge by 42 reason of service in the Armed Forces of the United States, in which event the six-month period
