ities at work. The research conducted by the task force shall consider the best practices in the public and private sectors in Oregon and model policies from other states. These practices and models shall include, but are not limited to, policies that address workforce attachment disparities and pay and career advancement inequities resulting from the family care responsibilities of employees. Such policies include, but are not limited to:

(a) Equitable part-time work options;

(b) Flexible work arrangements;

(c) Paid sick, family, medical and disability leave;

(d) Access to affordable, high quality child and adult care; and

(e) Protections from employment discrimination due to caregiving responsibilities or experience as a domestic violence survivor.

(3) The task force may make recommendations for legislation to the appropriate legislative committee.

(4) A majority of the voting members of the task force constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(5) Official action by the task force requires the approval of a majority of the voting members of the task force.

(6) The task force shall elect one of its members to serve as chairperson.

(7) If there is a vacancy for any cause, the appointing authority shall make an appointment to become immediately effective.

(8) The task force shall meet at times and places specified by the call of the chairperson or of a majority of the voting members of the task force.

(9) The task force may adopt rules necessary for the operation of the task force.

(10) The task force shall submit periodic reports and a final report, that may include recommendations for legislation, to an appropriate interim committee of the Legislative Assembly related to work and family life issues no later than October 1, 2012.

(11) The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall provide staff support to the task force.

(12) Notwithstanding ORS 171.072, members of the task force who are members of the Legislative Assembly are not entitled to mileage expenses or a per diem and serve as volunteers on the task force. Other members of the task force are not entitled to compensation or reimbursement for expenses and serve as volunteers on the task force.

(13) All agencies of state government, as defined in ORS 174.111, are directed to assist the task force in the performance of its duties and, to the extent permitted by laws relating to confidentiality, to furnish such information and advice as the members of the task force consider necessary to perform their duties.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this 2011 Act is repealed on February 4, 2013.
