3 (1) Communications within a public body or between public bodies of an advisory nature to the 4 extent that they cover other than purely factual materials and are preliminary to any final agency
5 determination of policy or action. This exemption shall not apply unless the public body shows that 6 in the particular instance the public interest in encouraging frank communication between officials 7 and employees of public bodies clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

8 (2) Information of a personal nature such as but not limited to that kept in a personal, medical 9 or similar file, if public disclosure would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the 10 public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The 11 party seeking disclosure shall have the burden of showing that public disclosure would not consti-12 tute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.

13 (3) Public body employee or volunteer addresses, Social Security numbers, dates of birth and

21 shows by clear and convincing evidence that the public interest requires disclosure in a particular 22 instance;

28 has obliged itself in good faith not to disclose the information, and when the public interest would 29 suffer by the disclosure.

30 (5) Information or records of the Department of Corrections, including the State Board of Parole 31 and Post-Prison Supervision, to the extent that disclosure would interfere with the rehabilitation of 32 a person in custody of the department or substantially prejudice or prevent the carrying out of the 33 functions of the department, if the public interest in confidentiality clearly outweighs the public in-
34 terest in disclosure.

35 (6) Records, reports and other information received or compiled by the Director of the Depart-
36 ment of Consumer and Business Services in the administration of ORS chapters 723 and 725 not

39 weighs the public interest in disclosure.

40 (7) Reports made to or filed with the court under ORS 137.077 or 137.530.

13 or similar file, if public disclosure would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the 14 public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The 38 terest in disclosure.

39 (6) Records, reports and other information received or compiled by the Director of the Depart-
40 ment of Consumer and Business Services in the administration of ORS chapters 723 and 725 not
