30 “(5) ‘Temporary precious metal secondhand dealer’ means a precious metal secondhand
31 dealer who conducts operations at one or more locations in this state for no more than five
32 consecutive days at any one location.

33 “(6) ‘Transaction’:

34 “(a) Means a purchase, consignment, bailment, barter or trade of one or more items of 35 precious metal by a precious metal secondhand dealer from an individual who is not engaged

1 in the business of selling newly manufactured items of precious metal.

2 “(b) Does not include:

3 “(A) Gifts or other transfers of property unsupported by consideration; or 4 “(B) Business-to-business purchases or other transfers.

5 “SECTION 2. (1) A precious metal secondhand dealer in this state shall maintain the 6 following records with respect to each transaction conducted by the dealer:

7 “(a) The full name, date of birth, current telephone number, current address and signa-
8 ture of the seller;

9 “(b) The type and identification number of a currently valid government-issued photo
10 identification that has been issued to the seller;

11 “(c) A physical description of the seller; and

12 “(d) An identifying description or a digital photograph of each item of precious metal that 13 is the subject of the transaction.

14 “(2) A precious metal secondhand dealer in this state shall:

15 “(a) Maintain the records described in subsection (1) of this section for a period of at 16 least one year after the date of the transaction; and

17 “(b)(A) Maintain the records described in subsection (1) of this section at the location 18 at which the dealer is engaged in precious metal secondhand dealing and allow inspection of 19 the records by law enforcement officers upon request made during regular business hours; 20 or

21 “(B) If the dealer is a temporary precious metal secondhand dealer, maintain the records, 22 or electronic copies of the records, at the current location where the dealer is engaged in 23 precious metal secondhand dealing and allow inspection of the records or electronic copies
24 by law enforcement officers upon request made during regular business hours.

25 “(3) A precious metal secondhand dealer shall provide copies of records described in 26 subsection (1) of this section if requested by law enforcement officers.

27 “(4) A precious metal secondhand dealer in this state shall retain any item of precious
28 metal acquired in a transaction for a period of seven days after the date of the transaction
29 before the dealer may dispose of the item. The dealer shall keep items of precious metal
30 subject to retention under this subsection segregated from other items, but at the location
31 where the transaction occurred. The dealer shall allow inspection of items of precious metal
32 subject to retention under this subsection if requested by law enforcement officers.

33 “(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4) of this section, a temporary precious metal second-
34 hand dealer may retain items subject to retention under subsection (4) of this section at a
35 location of the dealer’s choosing in this state, but must provide an item of precious metal
36 to a requesting law enforcement officer within 24 hours of the officer’s request for the item.
37 Any cost incurred in providing a law enforcement officer with a requested item under this 38 subsection shall be borne by the dealer.

39 “SECTION 3. (1) Sections 1 to 4 of this 2012 Act do not apply within the jurisdiction of 40 any city or county that the Secretary of State has identified as having in effect an ordinance
41 that imposes on precious metal secondhand dealers:

42 “(a) Substantially equivalent or more stringent record keeping requirements for trans-43 actions; and

44 “(b) Equal or longer holding periods for items of precious metal that are acquired by 45 precious metal secondhand dealers through transactions.

1 “(2) The secretary shall maintain on the secretary’s website a list of cities and counties
2 in which sections 1 to 4 of this 2012 Act do not apply.

3 “(3) Each city or county that has an ordinance in effect that the city or county deter-
4 mines is as described in subsection (1) of this section shall notify the secretary in writing
5 and shall include a copy of the ordinance or an electronic link to the ordinance. If the city
6 or county amends or repeals the ordinance, the city or county shall notify the secretary of 7 the amendment or repeal and, in the case of an amendment, the city or county determination
8 of whether the ordinance as amended still is as described in subsection (1) of this section.

9 “SECTION 4. A city or county in this state may not require a precious metal secondhand
10 dealer in this state who is also a pawnbroker licensed under ORS chapter 726 to provide a 11 photograph of an item of precious metal acquired through a transaction.

12 “SECTION 5. (1) A person that violates the provisions of section 2 of this 2012 Act com-
13 mits a Class C violation.

14 “(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a person that violates the provisions
15 of section 2 of this 2012 Act three or more times commits a Class A violation for each sub-
16 sequent violation.

17 “(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2) of this section, a person that violates the 18 provisions of section 2 of this 2012 Act six or more times is subject to a fine of not less than 19 $5,000 for each subsequent violation.”.
