3 teammates to the 2012 Rose Bowl with 2,700 passing yards, 33 passing touchdowns and just seven 4 interceptions for the season; and

5 “Whereas Carson York, offensive lineman for the 2011 University of Oregon football team,
6 earned the honor of being selected as the university’s 84th member of the Academic All-America 7 team; and

8 “Whereas tight end David Paulson and offensive linemen Mark Asper and Carson York earned 9 the honor of being selected to the Pacific-12 Conference’s All-Academic First Team for the sport of 10 football; and

11 “Whereas wide receiver Justin Hoffman and defensive tackle Taylor Hart earned the honor of 12 being selected to the Pacific-12 Conference’s All-Academic Second Team for the sport of football; 13 and

14 “Whereas wide receiver Daryle Hawkins, placekicker Alejandro Maldonado, punter Jackson
15 Rice, tight end Nick Musgrove, defensive end Tony Washington and linebackers Michael Clay, 16 Keloni Kamalani and Derrick Malone were honorably mentioned as considerations for those teams;
17 and

18 “Whereas the 2011 University of Oregon football team had more selections and honorably men-19 tioned considerations for the Pacific-12 Conference’s All-Academic First and Second Teams than any 20 other Pacific-12 football team in 2011; and

21 “Whereas every member of the 2011 University of Oregon football team participated in public 22 service projects organized by and through the university’s athletic department; and

23 “Whereas those players took part in a variety of public services, including visiting schools and 24 hospitals, hosting educational workshops, raising money for the homeless, signing and sending foot-25 balls to young people afflicted with cancer and being pen pals with active duty United States mili-26 tary service personnel; now, therefore,”.

27 On page 2, line 1, before “achievements” insert “athletic, academic and public service”.
