Public Hearing

HB 2229

Allows Department of Revenue to disclose information related to tax on tobacco products other than cigarettes to government entities that regulate tobacco products or enforce laws related to tobacco products.

HB 2512

Provides that corporate excise taxpayer may not deduct portion of expenses or payments that equals amount of credit claimed for qualified research expenses.

HB 2232

Provides that provisions governing administration of Department of Revenue and of income tax laws apply to administration of income tax withholding law and of corporate minimum tax in same manner and to same extent as determinations and appeals involving taxes imposed upon or measured by net income.

HB 2511

Modifies provision relating to issuance of surplus kicker refunds to taxpayers who filed returns for tax year on which credit is computed but who are not required to file returns for year in which credit could be claimed.
