I have spent the last twenty years renting property that I have worked hard to own. I have held on to them in good markets and bad. I have had good renters and bad. I pride myself on offering clean, safe housing to others. I have an elderly Aunt on social security who relies on being in a safe place. She is very trusting of others. I feel it is my duty as a landlord to ensure the neighbors she has are not criminals, past or present. I feel it is my right as a property owner to rent to those that I feel I can risk having in a home worth over a $100, 000.

Please allow me the right to keep my renters, as well as myself, a woman safe.

Thank you,
Christine Larson
