

Good afternoon,

I heard something today about a bill being passed where residential appraisers would review and make judgment against commercial work performed by state certified general appraisers. To me this sounds like a bad idea. Why would you not have someone with the proper qualification take on that job?

Sincerely,

Kyle Bamford
State Certified General Appraiser
Bamford Appraisal Group
(541) 499-0923