

From: Connie Dunham [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, April 04, 2013 10:00 PM
To: Newell Channa
Subject: SB573

[REDACTED] Newell,

This bill could present some unforeseen problems for farmers with landholdings. Their situation is different than a business owner who may only own the space their storefront occupies. But to tie up significant landholdings could threaten loans and credit necessary for continuing operation. I think another method of disputes over wages should be considered.

Sincerely,

Connie Dunham